- Except as provided in Education Code section 47605(d)(2), admission to a charter school shall not be determined according to the place of residence of the pupil, or of his or her parent or legal guardian, within this state, except that an existing public school converting partially or entirely to a charter school under this part shall adopt and maintain a policy giving admission preference to pupils who reside within the former attendance area of that school. (Ed. Code § 47605(d)(1).)
- Admit all pupils who wish to attend Charter School. (Ed. Code § 47605(d)(2)(A).)
- Except for existing pupils of Charter School, determine attendance by a public random drawing if the number of pupils who wish to attend Charter School exceeds Charter School’s capacity. Code § 47605(d)(2)(B).)

with Section 3540) of Division 4 of Title I of the Government Code. Charter School shall comply with all provisions of the EERA and shall act independently from LAUSD for collective bargaining purposes. In accordance with the EERA, employees may join and be represented by an organization of their choice for collective bargaining purposes.

NOTE: This Charter contains specific “District Required Language” (DRL), including the Assurances, Affirmations, and Declarations section above. The DRL should be highlighted in gray within each Charter element or section. The final section of the Charter provides a consolidated addendum of the DRL. This intentional redundancy facilitates efficient charter petition review while ensuring ready access to the DRL for any given section of the Charter. To the extent that any inconsistency may exist between any provision contained within the body of the Charter and the DRL contained in the addendum, the provisions of the DRL addendum shall control.

ELEMENT 1 – THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM

“The educational program of the charter school, designed, among other things, to identify those whom the charter school is attempting to educate, what it means to be an “educated person” in the 21st century, and how learning best occurs. The goals identified in that program shall include the objective of enabling pupils to become self-motivated, competent, and lifelong learners.” (Ed. Code § 47605(b)(5)(A)(i).)

“The annual goals for the charter school for all pupils and for each subgroup of pupils identified pursuant to Section 52052, to be achieved in the state priorities, as described in subdivision (d) of Section 52060, that apply for the grade levels served, or the nature of the program operated, by the charter school, and specific annual actions to achieve those goals. A charter petition may identify additional school priorities, the goals for the school priorities, and the specific annual actions to achieve those goals.” (Ed. Code § 47605(b)(5)(A)(ii).)

“If the proposed charter school will serve high school pupils, a description of the manner in which the charter school will inform parents about the transferability of courses to other public high schools and the eligibility of courses to meet college entrance requirements. Courses offered by the charter school that are accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges may be considered transferable and courses approved by the University of California or the California State University as creditable under the “A” to “G” admissions criteria may be considered to meet college entrance requirements.” (Ed. Code § 47605(b)(5)(A)(iii).)

In accordance with Education Code sections 47604.33 and 47606.5, Charter School shall annually update its goals and annual actions to achieve those goals identified in the charter pursuant to Education Code section 47605(b)(5)(A)(ii), using the Local Control and Accountability Plan template adopted by the State Board of Education, as it may be changed from time to time. Charter School shall comply with all requirements of Education Code section 47606.5, including but not limited to the requirement that Charter School “shall consult with teachers, principals, administrators, other school personnel, parents, and pupils in developing the local control and accountability plan and annual update to the local control and accountability plan.” (Ed. Charter School shall adhere to all provisions of federal law related to students with disabilities including, but not limited to, section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, and the Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act of 2004.

Special Education Program

Charter School shall ensure that no student otherwise eligible to enroll in Charter School shall be denied, directly or indirectly, admission due to a disability or to Charter School's inability to provide necessary services. Charter School acknowledges that policies and procedures are in place to ensure the recruitment, enrollment, service, and retention of students with disabilities at LAUSD-authorized charter schools, including Charter School.

Prior to LAUSD Board of Education approval of an initial Charter petition, and if a renewing Charter School intends to operate as a "school of the district" for special education services, Charter School shall execute a Memorandum of Understanding ("MOU") by and between LAUSD and Charter School regarding the provision and funding of special education services consistent with applicable state law and the LAUSD Special Education Local Plan Area ("SELPA") Local Plan for Special Education and shall be considered a "public school of the District" for purposes of Special Education pursuant to Education Code Section 47641(b). However, Charter School reserves the right to make written verifiable assurances that it may become an independent local educational agency (LEA) and join a SELPA pursuant to Education Code Section 47641 (a) either on its own or with a grouping of charter school LEAs as a consortium following the requirements of Education Code section 56195.3(b).

SELPA Reorganization

The Los Angeles Unified School District is approved to operate as a single-District SELPA under the provisions of Education Code section 56195.1(a). As a single-District SELPA, the District has created two charter school sections (District-operated Programs and Charter-operated Programs) under the administration of one single Administrative Unit pursuant to a reorganization plan approved by the Board of Education on January 4, 2011 (149/10-11). Full implementation of the reorganized LAUSD SELPA commenced in the 2013-2014 school year requiring all District-authorized charter schools to elect one of the three options available under the LAUSD SELPA. Prior to an option election, all District-authorized charter schools were required to participate as a school of the District under the District-Operated Programs Unit. Prior to the beginning of the 2013-2014 school year, all District-authorized charter schools, other than those that had previously executed an Option 3 Memorandum of Understanding (“MOU”), were required to execute a new MOU setting forth the LAUSD SELPA option election for the remainder of the charter petition term. The Charter-operated Program schools do not have LEA status for the purposes of special education but will function in a similar role in that each charter school will be responsible for all special education requirements, including but not limited to services, placement, due process, related services, special education classes, and special education supports. Charter schools that have elected to participate in a District-operated programs option may apply for membership in the Charter-operated Program section of the SELPA. Charter schools accepted for participation in the Charter-operated Programs section receive support from a Special Education Director for the Charter-operated Programs.

Modified Consent Decree Requirements

All charter schools approved by the LAUSD Board of Education are bound by and must adhere to the terms, conditions and requirements of the Chanda Smith Modified Consent Decree (“MCD”) and other court orders imposed upon the District pertaining to special education. The MCD is a consent decree entered in a federal court class action lawsuit initially brought on behalf of students with disabilities in LAUSD. It is an agreement of the parties approved by the federal court and monitored by a court-appointed independent monitor. The MCD includes nineteen statistically measureable outcomes and facilities obligations that the District has to achieve to disengage from the MCD and federal court oversight. All charter schools are required to use the District’s Special Education Policies and Procedures Manual and Welligent, the District-wide web-based software system used for online Individualized Education Programs (“IEPs”) and tracking of related services provided to students during the course of their education.

As part of fulfilling the District’s obligations under the MCD, student level data requests from District-operated and Charter-operated charter schools are made on a regular basis. The requested data must be submitted in the Office of the Independent Monitor’s (“OIM”) required format in accordance with the OIM’s required timelines and as follows:

- End of Year Suspension

District ID, SSIS ID, last name, first name, date of birth, gender, grade, date of suspension, number of days suspended, and reason for suspension.

- Statewide Assessment Data

The standard file including District ID.

- Norm day
District ID, SSIS ID, last name, first name, date of birth, gender, grade, location code, school name and local district for all students enrolled on norm day.
- CBEDS
- All Students enrolled as of December 1 of each school year
District ID, SSIS ID, last name, first name, date of birth, gender, grade, location code, school name and local district for all students enrolled on norm day.
- Dropout
District ID, SSIS ID, last name, first name, middle name, date of birth, grade, last location, school name and local district
- Monthly SESAC and Suspension data
- Graduation roster from all charter schools with 12th grade students with disabilities

The MCD requires charter schools to implement the District's integrated student information system, which is currently referred to as My Integrated Student Information System (MiSiS). MiSiS is a suite of applications which is designed to capture all District student data. All charter schools are required to utilize MiSiS directly or interface with MiSiS via a web based Application Programming Interface (API) in compliance with the requirements of the MCD and applicable timelines. Upon charter school full utilization of MiSiS either directly or via a web based API, the list of required data above will automatically be captured within MiSiS.

COMMUNITY NEED FOR CHARTER SCHOOL

Equitas Academy originally opened in 2009 after authorization by the Los Angeles Unified School District (“LAUSD” or “District”).¹ Equitas Academy is located in the Pico-Union area of Los Angeles and currently serves approximately 450 scholars in grades TK-4. Enrollment at the school is 96% Hispanic/Latino, 2% African American, 2% Asian/Filipino and <1% White; 96% of our scholars are Socioeconomically Disadvantaged (SED); 38% are English Learners (EL); 8% are Special Education (SpEd) and 1% are Foster/Homeless Youth.

EQ is the flagship school of Equitas Academy Charter School, Inc. (“Equitas Schools,” “Equitas,” “Network,”), which also operates:

Equitas Academy 2: 400 scholars in grades 5-8; opened 2013

Equitas Academy 3: 400 scholars in grades TK-2, opened in 2015, expanding to 500 scholars in TK-4 by 2019-20

Equitas Academy 4: 170 scholars in grades 5-6, opened in 2017 expanding to 400 scholars in grades 5-8 by 2019-20

Equitas Academy 5: authorized by LAUSD to open with students in September 2019; ultimately will serve 500 scholars in grades TK-4.

All of the Equitas Schools are located in the Pico-Union area, where our Founder and CEO, Malka Borrego, was raised. Equitas has proven that a strong culture, a mentality of “no excuses” and family, scholar and staff dedication can lead to academic success. Ms. Borrego founded Equitas Academy in 2009 at the culmination of her participation in the prestigious Building Excellent Schools (BES) Fellowship program, a national incubator and school leader training program that has led to the opening of 120+ charter schools located in 29 high-need urban areas nationally, including some of the nation’s top-performing urban schools.² As part of one of the first cohorts of BES Fellows in Los Angeles, Ms. Borrego has gone on to mentor subsequent BES Fellows as they have launched additional high-performing charter schools in Los Angeles, and has used the flagship school as a training site for future and existing school leaders. BES has recognized Equitas as a member of “The Network,” a select group of the highest performing BES schools nationwide: “Network schools demonstrate strong academic results, sound organizational practices, and the genuine ability to close the achievement gap in their communities.” (Id.) The Network challenges and supports high-capacity leaders to examine and improve the quality and growth of their organizations.

¹ On March 13, 2012, LAUSD approved a Material Revision to the enrollment capacity to increase enrollment from 360 scholars to 450 in grades K-5 due to increased class sizes (25:1 instead of an originally projected 20:1 as a result of changes to Class Size Reduction funding) and to meet overwhelming demand for our high-performing school. In order to preserve our 5-8 model for a new middle school, Equitas submitted another Material Revision approved by LAUSD in February 2014, to serve 450 scholars in grades TK-4.

We are quite proud of our accomplishments over our nine-year history, including:

- In 2013-14, the California Department of Education (“CDE”) awarded Equitas Academy prestigious recognition as a California Distinguished School and in 2015-16, designation as a Gold Ribbon School.
- Our first middle school, Equitas Academy 2, also received Gold Ribbon School designated from the California Department of Education in 2016.
- According to the Accountability Framework of the California Charter Schools Association (CCSA), which assigns a ranking for all public schools in California based on data from CDE, Equitas Academy not only meets all criteria for renewal, but has a State Rank of 9/10 and a Similar Schools Rank of 10/10.
- On the 2017 results of the Smarter Balanced Assessment Consortium/California Assessment of Performance and Progress (SBAC/CAASPP), Equitas Academy’s 3rd and 4th graders (the only two grades at the school eligible to participate in state standardized testing), were 69% Met/Exceeded in ELA and 58% Met/Exceeded in Math.
- Ms. Borrego’s commitment to and success in improving educational options for this high-need community was recently recognized with the California Charter Schools Association’s 2016 Hart Vision Leader of the Year Award, established to “annually recognize and honor individuals demonstrating outstanding leadership and excellence in education.” (CCSA Press Release, March 2016.)
- During this charter term, Equitas Academy has had ZERO suspensions and ZERO expulsions.
- In 2014-15, following a Material Revision of our charter to revert back to our original model of TK-4,
- After three facilities moves in our first four years of operations, Equitas Academy continues to relish our long-term, beautiful facility in the heart of Pico-Union. With support from Pacific Charter School Development (PCSD), in 2012 we took residence of a 24,399 square foot 1-story warehouse converted into our school facility. Not only does this facility provide a much-needed home for our flagship school, but the renovation of an existing, boarded up eyesore surrounded with barbed wire fence has been a welcome boost to this community and the families we serve.
- Hosted Building Excellent School Weekend Warrior Visit, February 2018
- Our school leaders and teachers have attended significant professional development training including:
 - RELAY Getting Better Faster Training, June-October 2017
 - Achievement First Navigator Training in New York for ELA Instruction, June 2018
 - Achievement First Accelerator Training from Jan 2016-June 2018
 - Leaders of Emerging Network Program for Coaches and School Directors, July 2018-May 2019
 - Standards Institute Training for Coaches, Deans, and School Directors, July 2018

Equitas Schools provide an environment that maximizes the opportunity for academic and life success for every scholar. The Equitas model upholds a rigorous academic program and serves the specific academic and developmental needs of scholars in grades TK-8.

Equitas is a Latin word for justice, equity, and fairness. Our name guides a founding principle of the school. Too often, scholars enter middle and high schools lacking the strong study skills and content knowledge necessary to graduate and advance onto four-year colleges and universities. Equitas is a place to provide our scholars an equitable learning experience encouraging their development into persons capable of and determined to make meaningful contributions to society, and thereby fulfilling the educational goals to become self-motivated, competent and lifelong learners. Ed. Code § 47605 (b)(5)(A).

As detailed fully in this petition, Equitas Schools have five core beliefs to fulfill our mission, based on best practices and research:

1. Equitas holds high academic and behavioral expectations for every scholar.
2. Equitas engages and grows competent and experienced school leadership and staff.
3. Equitas offers a rigorous academic program with intentional scholar supports.
4. Equitas provides clear standards, research-proven curriculum, and frequent assessments.
5. Equitas is a mission-driven school community.

The proven success of our model is helping to demonstrate that all children, including those who are English Learners, socio-economically disadvantaged, Hispanic/Latino, special needs and who come from families where the adults have not completed high school can succeed in meeting our high expectations for success.

EQUITAS ACADEMY'S PERFORMANCE DURING THE CURRENT CHARTER TERM MEETS RENEWAL CRITERIA

Equitas Academy meets and exceeds criteria for renewal, across numerous metrics and measures as detailed herein. Based on its specific record of performance throughout our second charter term, Equitas Academy has and will continue to meet the needs of the community it serves.

Academic Performance Data and Other Absolute and Comparative Performance Indicators

According to current California law and District policy, a charter school "shall" meet the following criteria set forth in Education Code section 47607(b)(4) prior to receiving a charter renewal: Equitas Academy's academic performance is at least equal to the academic performance of the public schools that the charter school pupils would otherwise have been required to attend, as well as the academic performance of the schools in the school district in which the charter school is located, taking into account the composition of the pupil population that is served at the charter school.

As noted in the Ed Code, “The determination made pursuant to this paragraph shall be based upon all of the following: (i) Documented and clear and convincing data; (ii) Pupil achievement data from assessments, including, but not limited to, the Standardized Testing and Reporting Program established by Article 4 (commencing with Section 60640) of Chapter 5 of Part 33 for demographically similar pupil populations in the comparison schools; (iii) Information submitted by the charter school.” (Cal. Ed. Code § 47607(b)(4)(B).

Surrounding Schools Demographic and CAASPP Data

Equitas Academy meets criteria for renewal.

Based on an analysis of the scholar’s residence addresses and the 2017-18 Data Set provided by LAUSD’s Charter Schools Division (CSD Data Set), the following table lists the top Resident district schools our scholars would otherwise be required to attend:

The following data details the ways in which Equitas Academy surpasses the performance of these comparable resident schools (“Comps”).

SMARTER BALANCED ASSESSMENT CONSORTIUM (“SBAC”)/CALIFORNIA ASSESSMENT OF STUDENT PERFORMANCE AND PROGRESS (“CAASPP”) RESULTS

On the 2017 CAASPP, 69% of Equitas Academy’s 3rd-4th graders Met or Exceeded state standards, significantly outperforming all eight Comps – more than doubling five of the schools -- and well above LAUSD’s 40% rate and the State’s 49% rate for the same grades.

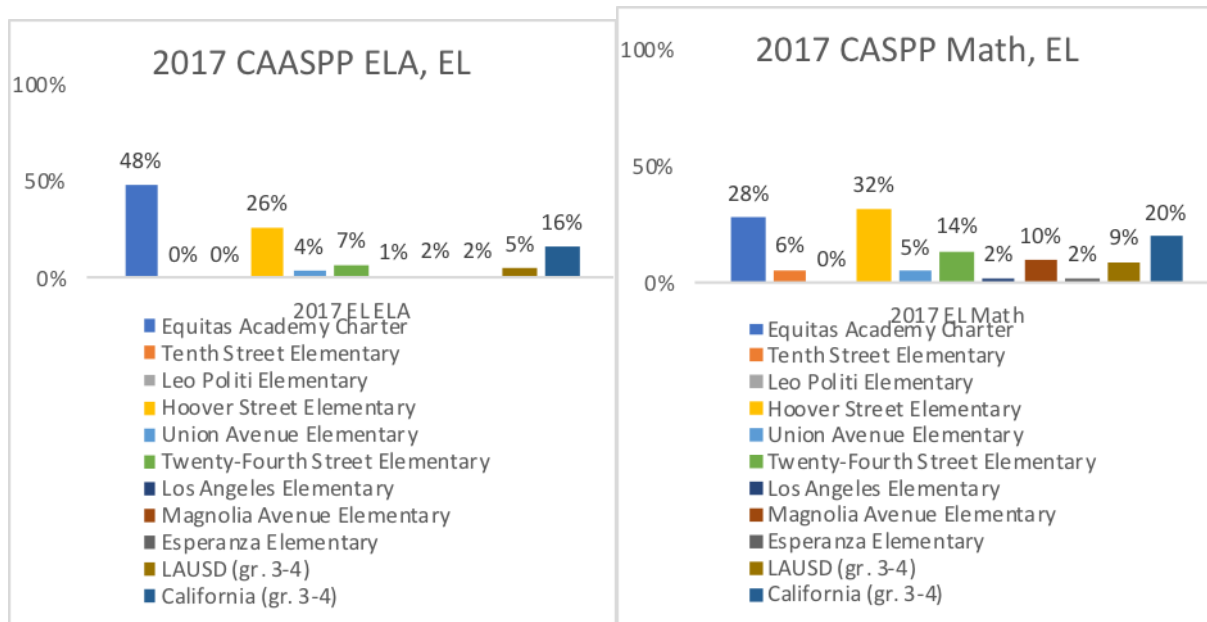

<https://caaspp.cde.ca.gov/sb2017/Search>

In Math, Equitas Academy’s 58% Met/Exceeded rate similarly outperformed all of the Comps (11%-57%), LAUSD (30%) and the State (38%).

<https://caaspp.cde.ca.gov/sb2017/Search>

In looking at subgroup performance, our English Learners showed exceptional performance compared to the Comps (two of which had zero ELs who Met/Exceeded standards in ELA), LAUSD averages (4%), and State (12%). In Math, our ELs exceeded all but one of the Comps (0-32%), LAUSD (5%) and the State (12%).

(<https://caaspp.cde.ca.gov/sb2017/Search>)

Our Hispanic/Latino scholars (96% of our enrollment) and FRPL scholars (96% of enrollment) also are demonstrating significant achievement, with each achieving 68% Met/Exceeded in ELA and 58% Met/Exceeded in Math, again, outperforming the comparisons:

We are particularly pleased that our special education scholars are demonstrating strong achievement, with 40% Met/Exceeded in ELA and 20% Met/Exceeded in Math.

(<https://caaspp.cde.ca.gov/sb2017/Search>)

Growth Over Time

From 2015 to 2017, our scholars are demonstrating steady and consistent growth on the CAASPP in both ELA and Math.

(<https://caaspp.cde.ca.gov/sb2017/Search>)

ENGLISH LEARNER RECLASSIFICATION

With such a high percentage of English Learners (38% of enrollment), we prioritize ensuring our young students develop English proficiency and are reclassified, as quickly as possible. Our EL reclassification rates have consistently outpaced LAUSD averages, including LAUSD’s impressive 2018 reclassification rate of 20.1%:

Year	2014-15	2015-16	2016-17	2017-18
Reclassification Rate	33%	34.8%	17.4%	26.7%

STUDENT ATTENDANCE RATE AND CHRONIC ABSENTEEISM

Average Daily Attendance (ADA) each year of operation has ranged from 96% to our 2017-18 rate of 97%, consistently above our goal of 95%. In 2017-18, 8% of scholars had perfect attendance, 72% of scholars had 96% or better attendance, and 95% of scholars had 90% or better attendance. (Internal database.) Through extensive parent education efforts, we help families understand how important consistent attendance is for their child’s success, and how the habits they form at a young age will carry through their education and in the workforce. Our staff works to support families who may indicate challenges in maintaining timely, consistent attendance by meeting with parents and scholars after three unexcused absences or tardies.

SUSPENSION/EXPULSION RATE

Equitas Academy has not had a single suspension or expulsion in any of the past four years. This obviously is well below LAUSD and state rates:

Rate	Los Angeles Unified			State
	2014-15	2015-16	2016-17	2014-15	2015-16	2016-17
Suspensions	0.91	0.93	0.80	3.80	3.65	3.60
Expulsions	0.01	0.02	0.02	0.09	0.09	0.09

STAKEHOLDER SATISFACTION

Each year, Equitas surveys parents. In 2017-18, 98% of parents indicated that they are satisfied with teachers’ expectations of their child and 95% are satisfied with the academic rigor at Equitas Academy. The 2017-2018 parent survey was completed by 46% of parents. Parents also express their support of our school via volunteer hours: 96.5% of parents volunteered at least 10 hours in 2017-2018, and on average, these parents volunteered 47 hours each. Not only do these volunteer hours provide helpful assistance to our teachers and school staff, but perhaps more importantly these hours help families build a stronger connection with our school community and one another in supporting our scholars.

LAUSD ANNUAL OVERSIGHT VISIT RESULTS

Equitas Academy has enjoyed consistently strong Annual Oversight Visits with staff from LAUSD’s Charter Schools Division (CSD). In our most recent Oversight Visit Report, dated March 15, 2018:

SUMMARY OF RATINGS (4)=Accomplished (3)=Proficient (2)=Developing (1)=Unsatisfactory
Governance	Student Achievement and Educational Performance	Organizational Management, Programs, and Operations	Fiscal Operations
3	4	3	3

(CSD Annual Oversight Visit Report, 3/15/2018.)

CSD staff noted several “Areas of Demonstrated Strength and/or Progress:”

Governance

The governing board consists of 8 members and the organizational chart shows the Chief Executive Officer (CEO), as well as the School Site Council (SSCs) and English Learner Advisory Committees (ELACs), report directly to the board, and all other personnel report directly to the CEO. Documentation evidence showed executive level leadership evaluation forms and evaluation process information.

The Governing Board monitors school performance and other internal data to inform decision-making.

Based on review of board agendas and board minutes, the governing board established committees, such as the Finance, Ad Hoc, Governance, Resource Development, and Academic Accountability committees, meet often and provide updates to the board during regular board meetings.

Scholar Achievement and Educational Performance

SBAC Subgroup ELA – All subgroups demonstrated growth in CAASPP ELA performance from 2015/16 to 2016/17.

The numerically significant group of English Learners that met or exceeded the standards in ELA increased by 26.50% from 21% in 2016 to 47.50% in 2017.

SBAC Schoolwide ELA – The schoolwide percentage of scholars who met or exceeded standards on the SBAC in ELA at 69.19% was higher than the Resident Schools Median of 26.16%.

SBAC Schoolwide Math – The schoolwide percentage of scholars who met or exceeded standards on the SBAC in Math at 58.38% was higher than the Resident Schools Median of 29.88%.

The school reclassifies English Learners at a rate higher than the District average. In 2016-2017 the school reclassification rate was 17.4% compared to the District average of 16.8%.

Organizational Management, Programs, and Operations

Classroom observations showed an array of positive reinforcement from teachers to scholars, i.e. “loud and proud,” and from scholars to scholars, i.e. motivational hand gestures as part of the supportive culture. Observations also confirmed the use of academic discourse in classrooms via cadenced responses, sing-aloud, direct inquiry, and content anchors. Also observed in some classes was the use of productive struggle coupled with supportive culture tactics scholars were given time to “wrestle” with a question, problem, or pronunciation, after which they were provided positive feedback by teacher or classmates whether the response was accurate or not. Classrooms visited were clean visuals and text rich with common-thread anchors related to content, vocabulary, sample scholar work, as well as, the Equitas Way/Values/Creed, and college-bound messaging.

Per discussion with the school’s leadership and written responses to guiding questions, instruction is informed via data analysis of daily, weekly, and trimester internal assessments, as well as NWEA interim assessments for reading and math. Areas of success and areas of improvement are identified for scholars and scholar subgroups and plans are developed to address needs.

Fiscal Operations

Equitas Academy Charter’s fiscal condition is strong and has been upward trending since Fiscal Year 2013-2014. According to the 2016-2017 independent audit report, the school had positive net assets of $3,975,338 and net income of $781,708. The 2017-2018 First Interim projects positive net assets of $4,326,273 and net income of $350,935.

CALIFORNIA CHARTER SCHOOLS ASSOCIATION ACCOUNTABILITY FRAMEWORK

The California Charter Schools Association (CCSA) has developed an accountability framework based on publicly available academic indicators. Like the Dashboard Reports published by the California Department of Education (CDE), CCSA utilizes “Distance from Level 3” (DF3) as a status measure for academic progress, “which measures how far (or the distance) each student is from the Level 3 (i.e., Standard Met) Smarter Balanced performance level. Each students' score is compared to Level 3, and all distance results are then averaged to produce a school- and student-group-level average scale score. The results will show, on average, the needed improvement to bring the average student score to Level 3 or the extent to which the average student score meets or exceeds Level 3.”³ CCSA ranks the DF3 score given to every eligible public school in the state⁴ from lowest to highest into percentiles (1-100) and 10 decile ranks. The 1st percentile is equivalent to the lowest 1% of schools statewide, while the 1st decile translates to the bottom 10% of schools (1-10), according to the schools’ average results on the California Assessment of Student Performance and Progress (CAASPP). Conversely, the 10th decile rank is equivalent to a school having an average DF3 in the top 10% of schools statewide (91-100).

CCSA’s accountability framework aligns with the old Academic Performance Index (API) decile rankings detailed in California Education Code §47607, and is consistent with the Education Code in prioritizing “pupil academic achievement for all groups of pupils served by the charter school as the most important factor” in the determination whether to renew a charter school. CCSA’s accountability tool also relies on California Education Code §52066 (detailing Local Control Accountability Plans and the state’s eight priorities) in determining what to classify as an indicator of academic achievement. Conversely, the CDE’s Dashboard reports do not prioritize or weight academic achievement more heavily than non-academic indicators, thus the Dashboard’s application to charter renewals is rather limited under the law.

The CCSA accountability framework includes four basic measures:

- Percentile: DF3 must be above the 5th percentile in two of the last three years.
- State Rank (Academic Status): DF3 decile rank of four or higher in two of the past three years. Academic Status is the school’s DF3 compared to all other eligible public schools in California, using decile rank.
- Similar Schools Rank (SSR): SSR of four or higher in two of the past three years. The Similar Schools Rank is a 1-10 decile ranking of average student test results, after taking into account the demographics of a school’s tested students.

For Elementary and Middle Schools:

- Academic Growth: Above the 75th percentile in DF3 growth over the past three years (between 2015 and 2017, this was 18+ points). Academic Growth is the amount of change in a school’s average DF3 over the past three years, and shows that the school is making some progress toward having all students meet ELA and Math proficiency standards.

OR, For High Schools:

- Post-secondary readiness: 75% of graduating seniors have completed the minimum A-G course requirements of the University of California/California State University system with a “C” or better in two of the past three years.

According to CCSA’s Accountability Framework, Equitas Academy not only meets all criteria for renewal according to CCSA, but has a State Rank of 9/10 and a Similar Schools Rank of 10/10:

School meets CCSA's Accountability Criteria and qualifies for renewal support based on academics.

SUCCESS OF THE INNOVATIVE FEATURES OF THE EDUCATION PROGRAM

Certain key foundational beliefs and practices have helped us build an innovative, successful and engaging public education program:

College preparatory curriculum that begins in kindergarten: For scholars who live in a community where more than 30% of adult residents have less than a 9th grade education and a total of 47% do not have a high school diploma,⁵ we work hard to help our scholars believe that college is a realistic and attainable goal for each and every one of them. Our scholars are explicitly taught the importance of attending and graduating from college. Every classroom features college and university signage and decorations. Scholars are addressed individually as scholars and collectively as the year that they will graduate from college (kindergarteners that start in school in the fall of 2019 are called “The Class of 2036”). Additionally, every year, beginning in kindergarten, scholars visit colleges and universities, tour the campuses, and sit in on classes. By exposing scholars to the skills and knowledge they need to succeed in college and simultaneously stressing that every Equitas Academy scholar can and will attend and graduate from college, we help to dramatically improve the educational outcomes for the scholars of Pico-Union.

Slow growth model of growing one grade level each year: Our model of growing just one grade level per year after launching with TK/Kindergarten and 1st grades has proven to be a tremendous boost to our ability to develop capacity over time and make improvements and refinements to our program based on data. Our small school environment with small class sizes helps foster a child-centered approach to learning in which children form meaningful relationships with several adults and receive individualized instruction and attention. Scholars, parents, teachers and staff develop an important sense of “belonging” in our school community, a powerful force in combating the challenges faced outside our school walls.

Laser focus on the core content areas of literacy, mathematics: Our academic program is centered on mastery of foundational skills in literacy and mathematics, along with mastery in the core content areas of social studies and science. Scholars will benefit from longer literacy and math instruction in the primary years. Specific attention and longer instruction in literacy will ensure scholars have early literacy success that supports them to higher levels of achievement. The overall literacy program is based on the five components of a balanced literacy program: phonemic awareness/phonics, fluency, vocabulary, comprehension, and writing.

Intentional use of data to drive instructional decisions: Teachers plan and deliver instruction informed through frequent assessment where school leadership and teachers analyze assessments and plan instruction for scholars to master the individual standards embedded within them. Daily, weekly, and trimester-based systems are put in place to monitor the effectiveness of instruction and scholar learning. Teacher-created and curriculum-generated assessments are used to inform the weekly lesson plans. On a more formal basis, Interim Assessments are administered frequently three times a year to inform instruction and the scope and sequence of instruction is modified based on the scholar performance data on in Interim Assessments. For instance, if Interim Assessments data demonstrates that our scholars have not mastered a specific content standard, we will modify our lesson plans, re-teach and assess the content standards once again until we reach mastery. We expect scholars at Equitas Academy to perform competitively on state and nationally-normed assessment. We expect to reach the ambitious and measurable goals outlined in the school’s accountability plan (see Elements 2/3 for further detail). For this to be possible, a thoughtful, sequential series of frequent assessments continuously informs leadership and staff as to the efficacy of the instructional program and scholar supports, and guides all decisions in a time-effective and proactive manner for every scholar.

Network leadership team and centralized staff supporting school site School Director and School Operations Manager from Day One allows the Charter School to focus and meet our high academic standards: Based on successful urban charter schools throughout the nation, Equitas Academy made a strategic decision to launch in Year 1 with a leadership team that included a School Director (then called a Director of Curriculum and Instruction), focused solely on the academic program, a School Operations Manager, focused solely on facilities, finance/accounting and operations, and an Executive Director (now called CEO), overseeing all functions and providing extra intensive support to the academic and operations functions. As we have strategically grown to five schools, we have continued to ensure that our organizational structure includes intensive support that enables our staff to excel in what they do best – our educators focus on education while our operational staff focus on key infrastructure and efficiencies both at the school site level and across our Network. We believe this model has been critical to our success.

SUCCESS OF THE SCHOOL’S EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM IN MEETING THE SPECIFIC NEEDS OF ITS STUDENT POPULATION

As evidenced by the data and external reviews detailed above, Equitas Academy – which was designed originally by our Founder and CEO, Malka Borrego, based on her experience growing up in the same Pico-Union community, as well as her extensive education experience and research – is a clear success. While our organization is committed to continuous improvement and constant self-reflection, we are incredibly proud of our success to date and the lives we are helping to change in this community.

AREAS OF CHALLENGE THE SCHOOL HAS EXPERIENCED AND HOW THEY HAVE BEEN/WILL BE IMPROVED

Based on progress to date, school leadership have identified three key focus areas for improvement in our academic program:

Shift to New Curriculum: As Equitas has grown to five schools and more than 1,500 students, we have engaged in a rigorous and deep strategic planning process to both reflect on our successes and challenges, and plan for the future. Part of this process included recognition of the need to continue ensuring that we maintain the vertical and horizontal alignment we set out to include in our curriculum across campuses as we grow. While we have predominantly relied on teacher-created lesson planning to date, and have been proud of our successes, based on best practices we now know that to get to the next level, in addition to being rigorous, our curriculum needs to be part of an aligned program where teachers have a deeper and more sophisticated level of content knowledge. As such, at the beginning of the 2017-2018 school year, we shifted to adopting Achievement First’s Open Source Curriculum, which was designed by a team of content experts and is based on Common Core standards and geared to true college readiness. Achievement First is an acclaimed charter network that serves more than 13,000 predominantly low-income, Hispanic/Latino and African American students at 36 urban schools across Connecticut, New York and Rhode Island.

With this shift, we moved the focus for our teachers from spending their time creating lesson plans to deeply understanding and discussing their content so they are prepared for the more sophisticated, adaptive teaching necessary to ensure our scholars are college ready. To accomplish this and continue building from on our adoption, this summer our Deans and School Directors attended curriculum-training sessions in New York, where they had access to Achievement First curriculum coaches. They also participated and will continue participating in webinars over the course of the year to strengthen our content knowledge. Our team of Deans and School Directors then brought this learning back to our Summer Professional Development where we systematically trained teachers in specific content protocols and fostered a collaborative environment to help teachers unpack units and intellectually prepare for unit 1 lessons in preparation for the first day of school. As a result of these efforts and ongoing professional development throughout the year, we are confident we will have a stronger and more aligned curriculum for the 2018-2019 school year.

Data Analysis Process: Equitas has a strong history of data analysis systems. This has consisted of reflection on scholar performance expectations, scholar strengths and weaknesses, analysis of the mastery of standards including whole class mastery, small group mastery, and individual mastery and analysis of errors and with instructional plan to address areas of concern, and details for re-teaching. For instance, if data demonstrates that our scholars have not mastered a specific content standard, we modify our lesson plans, re-teach and assess the content standards once again until we reach mastery. As we redesigned our curriculum, we built on our previous data analysis systems to carve out time for a weekly collaborative grade-level meeting specifically centered around data. Deans and School Directors help prepare materials for the Friday data meeting based on weekly quiz results and following the “See it. Name it. Do it.” Framework. This weekly meeting builds on our existing data practices to allow for more constant adjustment to instruction based on scholar performance. It will give teachers time to review comparative data as a grade level, share best practices, will allow for them to plan and practice reteach together. We have also built a re-teach block into the schedule every Monday so that plans designed on Friday can be taught right after the weekend.

Intervention: Building on the weekly data meetings and the Monday reteach block, we also used our SBAC and MAP data to determine that even though we were using a rigorous curriculum for Math (Eureka), we did not see the increases to our math scores that we had seen in our ELA scores since the adoption of Common Core. As part of our curriculum shift in the 2017-2018 school year, we added a second math block and an intervention block focused solely on Math to combat this trend. As a result, we saw an increase in our Math scores this past year, but didn’t make gains in ELA as we had previously seen. This year, our teachers will use their daily exit ticket data to determine whether they use their RtI blocks for ELA or for Math. In this way, our teams will be looking at data daily and weekly and using the data to determine whether the daily intervention block would be most effectively used re-teaching ELA or Math.

As we look forward to celebrating our 10th anniversary in 2019-20, Equitas Academy celebrates the dramatic impact on the scholars and families we serve, and the broader Pico-Union community. Beyond the test data, we know that our scholars’ resilience and the habits of heart and mind they have developed at Equitas Academy will increase their chances of performing well in rigorous middle schools, high schools, colleges, and beyond. We look forward to continuing to serve as a model for urban education for the next five years.

STUDENT POPULATION TO BE SERVED

Target Population

As noted, EQ serves grades TK/K-4. Our target neighborhood is Pico-Union/MacArthur Park (zip codes 90015, 90006 and 90057), illustrated in the map below – with the adjacent boundaries of West Pico, one block west of Union, within a mile of the flagship school. The Pico-Union⁶ community derives its name from the intersection of Pico Boulevard and Union Avenue, west of downtown Los Angeles, thus our new school facility is literally in the heart of this neighborhood.

Pico-Union is a very densely populated neighborhood: zip code 90015 has almost 19,000 people in just 1.7 square miles, zip code 90006 has more than 59,000 people in 1.9 square miles, and 90057 has approximately 45,000 people in less than one square mile.⁷ On average, Los Angeles has almost 7,000 people per square mile; these three zip codes average 27,333 per square mile (statewide, the ratio is just 282.5 people per square mile in all of California; nationally it is just 88 people). According to the Los Angeles times, the area highlighted in the map above includes three of the four most densely populated neighborhoods in all of Los Angeles.

Not surprisingly, poverty levels in the community are significant; in 2018, the federal poverty line for a family of four is just $25,100.⁸

Notably, according to Living Wage Calculator, a project of Dr. Amy K. Glasmeier, Professor of Economic Geography at MIT, a family of four in Los Angeles with two working adults needs to earn $73,615 annually to be self-sustaining (not needing public assistance) in Los Angeles.⁹ This equates to $17.70/hour per adult; the federal poverty line rate equates to just $5.00/hour. In other words, as many as 85-90% of families in these zip codes are living in poverty based on the economic realities of the area.

In addition to residing in an economically impoverished community, Pico-Union residents lack educational attainment: 47% do not have a high school diploma (including 30% of adult residents having less than a 9th grade education). Only 14.5% have at least a Bachelor’s degree, less than half

Source: factfinder2.census.gov (2010 census).

Lack of employment, high population, and low educational attainment contribute to the high-crime rate and proliferation of gangs in Pico-Union. High poverty rates and lack of educational attainment are among the myriad factors that contribute to the high-crime rate and proliferation of gangs in Pico-Union. In a six-month period between December 2017 and June 2018, according to the Los Angeles Times there were 193 reported violent crimes in Pico-Union (the 29th highest frequency out of 209 neighborhoods tracked by the paper) and 516 property crimes; the adjacent Westlake area (in zip code 90057) was ranked 25th that same time period with 563 violent crimes and 1,231 property crimes.¹¹ In other words, our scholars and their families face significant risks and stresses outside of school.

While community demographics paint a picture of a severely impoverished neighborhood, the area is beginning the early stages of gentrification with residential development and revitalization efforts. Pico-Union is adjacent to the new LA Live Development and its six city blocks of apartments, theatres, and high-end hotels such as the Ritz-Carlton/JW Marriott. While Pico-Union families face ongoing challenges, improvements in education allow residents the opportunity to be a part of the revitalization efforts. Without access to education, economic advancement is difficult and limits families’ ability to participate in the economic growth of their neighborhood.

We anticipate total enrollment over the next charter term to be consistent with current levels, based on our facilities capacity:

GOALS AND PHILOSOPHY

MISSION AND VISION

Equitas Academy provides a structured, achievement-based community that prepares elementary scholars to graduate from four-year colleges and universities.

Equitas Academy believes scholars must have access to an achievement-oriented learning environment, beginning in kindergarten (and transitional kindergarten) to ensure all scholars make a smooth transition to the demands of college preparatory middle and high schools with the ultimate goal of college graduation. Our vision includes a school with a college preparatory focus in the primary grades, so scholars are able to develop the foundational skills necessary for entrance into high-performing middle and secondary schools. We envision a school with a grade span, curriculum, and educational program that will allow scholars, despite any obstacles, to learn to read, write, and compute on or above grade level, to develop the academic and character skills that will serve them through the many life challenges they may face in accessing higher education. We envision a school in which education enriches the lives of scholars and their families and where we work closely with families to do the hard work necessary to achieve excellence and college graduation.

For the vision of Equitas Academy to become a reality, every decision regarding the educational program and philosophy centers on how to best drive scholar achievement by creating a small, safe and structured community enabling scholars the opportunity and support to reach the high expectations we hold for them.

AN EDUCATED PERSON IN THE 21ST CENTURY

Beginning with kindergarten (including TK), Equitas Academy capitalizes on the concept that “college prep begins in kindergarten.” Serving a population that is not traditionally college-bound, and too often does not have the core foundation to successfully complete middle and secondary education and go on to pursue higher education, college preparation begins with the youngest of scholars, and is infused into every aspect of school life. The curriculum focuses on the core skills and content area knowledge that scholars need to excel in middle school and college preparatory high schools on their road to competitive colleges and universities. Scholars are immersed in literacy, the gateway for all future learning, and in a school language and culture that reveres and celebrates academic achievement. Scholars are explicitly taught the importance of attending and graduating from college. Every classroom features college and university signage and decorations. Scholars are addressed individually as scholars and collectively as the year that they will graduate from college (kindergarteners that start in school in the fall of 2018 will be called “The Class of 2035”). Additionally, every year, beginning in kindergarten, scholars visit colleges and universities, tour the campuses, and sit in on classes. By exposing scholars to the skills and knowledge they need to succeed in college and simultaneously stressing that every Equitas scholar can and will attend and graduate from college, we help to dramatically improve the educational outcomes for the scholars of Pico-Union.

Our model adds to the growing segment of public schools that are educating urban youth and reversing the achievement gap through a highly structured environment, character education, and college preparatory emphasis delivered within a culture of high expectations for academic achievement. With the belief that all scholars can learn and achieve at high levels, schools founded by KIPP, Building Excellent Schools (BES) fellows as well as 50+ high-performing urban charter schools nationally) and others are demonstrating that scholars in “high risk” communities can close the achievement gap. These schools’ combination of inspired leadership, dedicated staff, demanding curriculum, clear behavioral code, longer days, and use of assessment to drive instruction serve as a model for raising scholar achievement.

We believe that college preparation starts on a child’s first day of primary education. Young scholars and their families are able to identify the link between strong academic outcomes now and later success facilitated with a college education in the future. Beginning in kindergarten, we expose our scholars to the world of middle and high school and college with the implicit and explicit message that with hard work they have all the tools and ability necessary to succeed in these institutions. We present this message through classroom lessons, exposure to mentors and tutors from institutions of higher learning, and real and virtual tours of campuses.

Because we want our scholars to strive academically in order to earn life choices, we also expose them to as much of the wider world of art, music, recreation, and nature as possible. Such exposure is essential to helping scholars see the life that is possible for them (and for their communities) through their own perseverance and commitment. We have developed a strong enrichment program where scholars are exposed to the arts through dance, yoga, art, music, and technology. We emphasize with our scholars that hard work and strong character development pave the road to college.

Building on successful models, we believe that all children, regardless of background, can learn to read, write, speak and compute with the expertise needed to succeed and access an outstanding college education.

Equitas Academy strives to ensure scholars who matriculate from fourth grade are prepared for the challenges of college preparatory middle and high schools, to provide scholars access to college and choice in life-sustaining employment as they move into the 21st century. In the 21st century, changes in our global society call for a new definition of “an educated person.” Access to information is central as we become more interdependent and able to communicate more freely. This interdependency requires an understanding of the global diaspora with a respectful approach to communication and interaction. This interaction requires strong literacy and mathematical ability, significant problem-solving skills and a higher level of education than ever before – aligned to living and working in a globalized new millennium. 21st century adults must be lifelong learners, have a firm grasp of computer technology, work well in a multicultural society, and be prepared to handle various careers and professions over their lifetimes. The educated person will need to work cooperatively with others from diverse backgrounds, identify and solve problems, and be able to resolve conflicts in a constructive manner. “The good jobs of the future will increasingly be tied to the global economy and will require both high-tech skills –such as data literacy and analysis - and flexible, ‘soft’ skills – such as communication and teamwork – needed to compete in the 21st century economy.” Most importantly, in a highly competitive and ever-changing work place, an educated person needs to be able to succeed and graduate from college. By integrating the needs of the 21st century into schools, scholars will grow to reach their maximum potential, and foster a lifetime love of learning.

With knowledge and communication as key tools for the new millennium, a strong foundation in literacy is an integral component to ensuring all scholars are prepared to handle the complexities of the 21st century and to take their place as an educated person within our democracy. Public schools must provide a strong academic literacy program and must hold and support the highest of expectations. Educational programs need to ensure all scholars succeed in learning at high levels. In Good to Great, Jim Collins¹² identifies the main factor for achieving outstanding organizational results as a narrow focus of the company’s resources in its field of competence. As a school, we believe that strong literacy development is the key competency scholars must master to be successful, and thus the major focus of our educational program. Like all schools in the 21st century dedicated to the academic and life success of our scholars, Equitas Academy ensures all scholars are educated for the demands and opportunities of the new century.

College and Career Readiness

To ensure college graduation, we emphasize college readiness and awareness starting in kindergarten. Scholars along with their families take field trips to local universities as early as kindergarten. While the work and college discussion begins in the earliest years, the entire school carries out these practices. In addition, all courses and instruction are planned and implemented for scholars to gain the foundational skills, transcripts, and test scores - and the personal ambition - necessary to enter college preparatory middle and high schools.

Use of Technology

Equitas Academy is committed to ensuring that all scholars have the technological skills to compete in the 21st century and are prepared to take online assessments. As detailed above, all scholars will receive explicit instruction in basic typing skills, Word, Excel, PowerPoint, and email. By the time they matriculate from EQ, scholars will be proficient with these programs, and have the necessary technological literacy to further their education and interests. Scholars will use computer-based learning programs to master foundational literacy skills. Then scholars will use computers for research and fact-finding to complete assigned projects and homework. Technology instruction is integrated into the core curriculum.

HOW LEARNING BEST OCCURS

To meet our scholars' needs in mastering the California content standards (including the new Common Core and Next Generation Science Standards), our model integrates the foundational theories of directed learning (objectivist) and cognitive learning. In directed instruction, behavioral theories concentrate on immediately observable changes in performance (e.g., tests) as indicators of learning. There is a focus on memory, how a scholar receives and stores memories and builds on previously learned material. Robert Gagne contributes to this area with his systematic approach to instructional design and training with the nine steps of instruction: (1) gain attention, (2) inform learner of objective, (3) stimulate recall of prior knowledge, (4) present the material, (5) provide guidance for learning, (6) elicit performance, (7) provide feedback, (8) assess performance, and (9) enhance retention and transfer.¹³ Directed methods have influenced our thinking in selecting and designing teaching methods, curriculum, and behavior modification techniques as well as how we assess and define learning. Directed instructional models focus on teaching sequence of skills beginning with lower level skills in order to build to higher level skills as well as clearly stating skill objectives with assessments to match.

In conjunction with the work of behavioral theorists, we utilize cognitive learning theories such as Vygotsky's social development theory and Bandura's social learning theory. Social development and learning theory involves attention, memory and motivation, and therefore can be viewed as a bridge between behaviorist and cognitive learning theories. In Mind and Society,¹⁴ Vygotsky asserts that social interaction plays a fundamental role in the process of cognitive development. He writes how speech and writing is used to mediate our social environments. Initially, children use these tools solely for social functions, but through the internalization of speech and writing, children are led to higher thinking skills. Vygotsky promotes students and teachers to take an active role in learning. Vygotsky's theory of Zone of Proximal Development (ZPD), or the distance between a student's ability to perform a task under guidance and/or collaboration and the student's ability to solve problems independently, informs our teaching methodology. Originally ZPD was developed to argue against standardized tests as a means to gauge intelligence. ZPD has expanded since its original concept to include scaffolding. Scaffolding was developed by sociocultural theorists to include the process through which a teacher provides assistance until the child is able to accomplish the task or learning independently. Vygotsky maintains that learning occurs just above the students' current level of competence. Therefore, students learn by having teachers scaffold the learning so students are successful at tasks that could not be accomplished independently. Teachers use language and shared experiences to scaffold or as a learning tool. Children learn by solving problems with the help of the teacher who models the process and in a classroom environment that is directed by the teacher. The teacher collaborates with students to provide support and direction for the learning. In addition, the curriculum needs to challenge and stretch the student's competence.

Bandura's social learning theory adds to Vygotsky's work on ZPD. Bandura asserts that people learn from one another through observation, imitation, and modeling. Social learning theory explains human behavior in terms of interaction between cognitive, behavioral and environmental influences. There are four conditions necessary for effective modeling: attention, retention, reproduction, and motivation. Bandura asserts that behavior and environment have a reciprocal relationship and affect each other.

The work of Vygotsky and Bandura both point to the importance of social interaction, language, and environment. Moreover, in designing an effective learning environment it is important to create a structure with measurable outcomes. While some may believe behavioral and cognitive theorists differ in defining learning and describing conditions required to make learning happen, we have found both have meaningful contribution in conceptualizing, designing, and articulating our school model.

In addition to these educational theorists, our instructional model also is based on work such as No Excuses: Lessons from 21 High-Performing, High Poverty Schools, in which Carter asserts that "rigorous and regular testing leads to continuous student achievement."¹⁵ Carter describes testing as a diagnostic tool used to enforce the school's goals of academic achievement. Similarly, No Excuses: Closing the Racial Gap in Learning details superb educational experiences¹⁶ with common systems of are strong academics with student supports such as a longer school day and school year. Finally, Equitas Academy draws inspiration from Jim Collins acclaimed book, Good to Great,¹⁷ in which he writes, "Greatness is not a function of circumstance. Greatness, it turns out, is largely a matter of conscious choice, and discipline." At Equitas Academy, we are working toward greatness for each scholar and for the school as an organization through the discipline of mission focus.

EQUITAS ACADEMY WILL ENABLE ALL STUDENTS TO BECOME SELF-MOTIVATED, COMPETENT, LIFELONG LEARNERS

Research and learning theory have informed our program framework as the Equitas Academy mission and vision provide a map for how learning best occurs and how to achieve the goals of an educated person in the new millennium. Our program goals include focusing on the needs of scholars for academic and life success realized through success in middle and high school and eventual college graduation. Our program goals are realized through providing a safe and structured environment where we are able to support scholars to meet academic standards articulated through California content standards proficiency, develop strong character values, and academic stamina in order to meet scholar's own personal goals.

Our goals are informed through research and practices used at high achieving schools, and demonstrated success at the existing Equitas schools (Equitas Academy (2016) and Equitas Academy 2 (2015) were both named Gold Ribbon Schools by the California Department of Education). Prior to the opening of our flagship school, Equitas Academy, Ms. Borrego, the school's founding CEO, completed a residency at Leadership Preparatory Charter School — a charter school in Brooklyn, New York. Leadership Prep serves a high poverty, minority population, yet has demonstrated significant progress in reading and math, including dramatic annual gains in proficiency. Ms. Borrego's residency at Leadership Prep informed the design and innovative elements of Equitas' first school, elements which continue to define the entire Equitas operation today.

In addition to using best practices from successful public schools and a strong research base, our school goals are focused on accountability, standard-based curriculum, and high expectations with measurable goals. Specifically:

- 1. We hold high academic and behavioral expectations for every scholar.*
- 2. We engage and grow competent and experienced school leadership and staff.*
- 3. We offer a rigorous academic program with intentional scholar supports.*
- 4. We provide clear standards, research-proven curriculum, and frequent assessments.*
- 5. We are a mission-driven school community.*

1. WE HOLD HIGH ACADEMIC AND BEHAVIORAL EXPECTATIONS FOR EVERY SCHOLAR.

Equitas has developed and school culture that is achievement-oriented and is built on strong and universal values. The school's core values of curiosity, optimism, gratitude, grit, self-control, social intelligence and zest¹⁸ are explicitly taught and assist scholars rise to the high academic and behavioral expectations we hold for them. Teachers actively model and teach the values of the school throughout the day of instruction as well as during the weekly community circle.

Academic Expectations

A critical component of our success is that teachers communicate to scholars that they can learn to be smart; effort is continuously celebrated and rewarded in the classroom. A vast majority of characteristics that we have so often ascribed to “intelligence” are skills that can be taught and learned.¹⁹ Each and every adult at Equitas Academy believes that all scholars are college-bound by holding scholars to high academic expectations at every grade level.

Teaching to mastery also is critical. Classes are structured to optimize learning, with common routines for all daily practices that minimize distraction and disruption from learning time, and with multiple formal and informal checks for understanding. Since all scholars are expected to meet or exceed grade level standards, if a scholar does not meet passing scores on assessments, multiple supports are put in place to work with the scholar until he or she has mastered the material. Equitas Academy will formally recognize and celebrate scholars who evidence the academic and behavioral excellence that lie at the core of the school’s values and educational program by gathering together each week with celebration at Community meeting. The school celebrates our core values by having teachers provide awards for scholars exemplifying the school values.

Teachers assign appropriate levels of homework at each grade level (ranging from 30 minutes per night in kindergarten to 60 minutes per night in 4th grade) and scholars are held to high expectations for nightly homework completion in order to practice skills taught explicitly during the school day. Based on our experience operating schools in the Pico-Union community, we recognize that many of our families have parents who work beyond school hours, thus approximately 60% of our scholars will participate in our after-school program, which begins with a 60 minute session for homework completion. During this time, the after-school staff is available to assist scholars with their homework.

Because we believe this daily reinforcement of skills and content taught during the school day is critical to scholars’ academic growth, we have structured supports within the day to aid its completion. For example, if scholars do not complete homework they miss “choice time” at the end of the day. “Choice time” provides scholars opportunities to choose center learning opportunities (i.e., alphabet learning, manipulatives, poetry, writing, puzzles, computer, art, etc.).

Behavioral Expectations

We seek to create confident, self-assured learners. We believe that confidence and self-assurance comes from our delivery of a structured learning environment that engages scholars in learning. Equitas Academy will have high standards for scholar conduct and communicates those with clarity and consistency. We believe that every child wants to behave well, and will rise up to the expectations of the primary adults in their lives. We have established a positive, caring atmosphere where scholars feel safe and successful while being held to high standards of behavior at all times. A strong school culture is the foundation of scholar discipline, utilizing scholar engagement strategies. Behavioral expectations are consistent from classroom to classroom.

¹⁹ Rothman, R. (1996). Organizing for Results, National Center on Education and the Economy.

All scholars are expected to wear uniforms and practice common courtesies (please, thank you, and proper greetings), use good table manners at breakfast and lunch, and learn how to converse respectfully with their peers and with adults. In all classrooms, scholars sit at their desks, listen and track the speaker. All the school's high expectations are explicitly taught, constantly modeled, and appropriately reinforced to our scholars, and poor behavior choices are addressed quickly, effectively, and in developmentally appropriate ways.

The school day is structured and transparent so that scholars understand how to adhere to school routines. When necessary to redirect and correct scholar behavior, teachers are trained in common scholar discipline techniques. Teachers manage minor disruptions in their classrooms and teach the common routines and behaviors necessary for our scholars to be successful.

The entire school community is guided by a clear Code of Conduct. Implementation of the Code of Conduct is designed to ensure scholars engage in positive interactions with teachers and with one another throughout the school day. It also provides the necessary tools to guide scholars' internal decision making in order to assist them in choices that will lead them to success in college and life. The school's Code of Conduct is based on preventing misbehavior with the appropriate incentives for following our Code of Conduct. Scholars are recognized during morning meeting and school wide during community meeting for their positive contributions and demonstrated commitment to learning and growing, thus modeling for all scholars what is expected and celebrated at Equitas Academy. Scholars earn privileges for positive behaviors (choosing your seat, lunch with a teacher or school leader, pencil, etc.), while those who engage in negative behaviors and violate the school's Code of Conduct earn consequences such as loss of choices for scholars.

Character education is explicit at Equitas Academy with morning meeting each day and the school wide celebration of community meeting. Teachers create their own curriculum under the supervision and support of our School Director, Dean of Scholar Services and Curriculum Specialist. The goal of this curriculum is to have scholars internalize and utilize the school's core values of curiosity, optimism, gratitude, grit, self-control, social intelligence and zest.²⁰

2. WE WILL ENGAGE AND GROW COMPETENT AND EXPERIENCED SCHOOL LEADERSHIP AND STAFF.

We know that in order for any school to be successful, effective leadership must be present. Equitas Academy will launch with strong leadership capacity from day one, including an experienced Chief Executive Officer, Chief Academic Officer, and School Director. The most successful charter schools have learned that there must be dedicated and senior staff responsible for both the organizational and the academic success of the school.²¹ A school must have academic results to be counted as successful, and a school must maintain financial health and conduct long-term strategic planning to project its success into the future.

²⁰ Based on the work of Paul Tough, (2012). How Children Succeed. Grit, Curiosity, and the Hidden Power of Character. Houghton Mifflin. Boston, MA.

Senior Leadership Team

Equitas has a centralized management and support structure for all of our schools in the Equitas Network (aka “Equitas,” “Equitas Academy Charter Schools,” or “Network”) that includes:

Our Chief Executive Officer (CEO), reporting to the Board of Directors, is responsible for leadership and management of all aspects of the school’s strategic development and operations, execution of the mission and all external and non-academic functions, including Board relations, regulatory reporting, financial operations, and fundraising. Successful managerial experience and proven practice with our scholar population is integral to this position.

The Chief Academic Officer (CAO) reports to and works closely with the CEO as he/she focuses on is responsible for providing vision, management experience, and educational expertise for all Instruction at Equitas’ network of schools. The CAO leads the organization in the planning, development, implementation, delivery, and evaluation of instructional programs for all scholars, including services for Special Education and English Language development; provide decisive, dynamic leadership and supervision of curriculum and instruction, including special education, state and federal categorical programs, pupil services, program evaluation, and staff development; provide direction and inspiration for our continual improvement in academic content standards and assessment, teaching and learning, and professional development; and supervise, develop and evaluate the performance of staff including the School Directors.

The Chief Operating Officer (COO) reports to and works closely with the CEO. He/she focuses provides strategic leadership and planning for non-instructional aspects of school management, including facility acquisition and management; information technology; internal financial processes; human resources; vendor management; compliance; enrollment; lottery; and scholar information systems.

The Chief of Staff (COS), reports to and works closely with the CEO. He/she focuses on ensuring the CEO and her direct reports and leadership team are poised to meet or exceed Equitas’ short and long-term organizational objectives. The Chief of Staff will also be a strong and inspirational leader, managing the critical functions of Talent/Leadership development, Development, Programs (Alumni, Expanded Learning, Parent Engagement, Marketing & Communications, Community Relations, and Board Relations) while serving as a strategic partner to the CEO and senior staff. He/she will ensure high productivity for the CEO, her direct reports and the senior leadership team by initiating and overseeing cross-departmental strategic projects and initiatives and serving as a trustworthy thought partner to all internal and external stakeholders. She/he will serve as the CEO’s proxy and Equitas representative when needed at internal and external meetings and events, should the CEO not be available.

The Chief Schools Officer (CSO), reports to and works closely with the CEO. He/she focuses on leading the work of School Director management, performance management towards student achievement and the implementation of a rigorous academic program and high expectations-oriented culture. Responsibilities include school performance management, which encompasses managing a team of School Directors developing and leading School Directors toward strong talent outcomes such as teacher performance, retention and staff engagement; and leading the vision of school culture for all Equitas schools to ensure high expectations for all students drives a culture of achievement that is safe and welcoming. In addition, alongside the CEO, the CSO develops/executes on a vision for deeply developing teachers in their content knowledge and executes the vision by maximizing professional development opportunities and leads the strategy for utilizing assessment data across the year to ensure Equitas Academy and its leaders are nimble in their ability to adjust program based on student performance. The CSO also ensures full compliance with state and federal guidelines in support for students and schools.

The senior leadership team is supported by several Network staff in the areas of HR/Recruiting, Accounting/Finance, Facilities, Development/Communications, Data/IT, and instructional specialists.

School Staff

Equitas Academy's School Director (School Site) will focus on daily issues of teaching and learning. Having a School Director solely devoted to improving instruction and supporting teachers and scholars allows us to remain focused on academic outcomes. This leadership structure also allows the School Director to conduct daily classroom observations to keep our focus on improving teaching and scholar learning.

The School Operations Manager assists with all operational matters at the school site, is responsible for operations and reporting, and to ensure the school is operating smoothly. The School Operations Manager has an indirect reporting relationship to the School Director and a direct reporting relationship to the Senior Director of Operations.

Teachers at Equitas Academy will be recruited and retained by the School Director because they are effective, professional, and dedicated educators. Teachers must be experts in literacy development, particularly with the needs of our target population. Teachers will be credentialed and meet our high standards and expectations for success.

To develop and ensure teacher effectiveness, teachers will be observed daily by the School Directors, Deans, and/or Assistant Directors as well as instructional coaches who are current teachers. Teachers will be provided informal feedback once a week and formal feedback/evaluation at least two times a year. Teachers will participate in four weeks of mandatory training prior to the opening of the school with additional professional development required as part of the teacher salary throughout the year based on the needs of the scholars/staff and directed by school leadership observations. Prior to the school year starting, teachers will practice the school-wide routines that underpin the daily work of learning, solidify their ability to implement the school's Code of Conduct in clear and consistent ways, plan curriculum, write assessments, and analyze state standards and standardized tests to ensure curriculum alignment.

Teachers will be given planning time to collaborate and will be observed regularly by school leadership. Instruction and its improvement drive the school culture and learning and its measurable results drive instruction.

Combined with an experienced and highly trained faculty and staff, and the use of outside consultants and expertise (legal, back-office, special education, professional development and more), Equitas Academy is designed to ensure that appropriate staffing and operations support all facets of our program.

3. WE OFFER A RIGOROUS ACADEMIC PROGRAM WITH INTENTIONAL SCHOLAR SUPPORTS.

Equitas Academy offers rigorous academic programming beginning in the youngest grades to ensure a foundation of skills that sets scholars on the path for academic success.

Foundational Skills— Common Core and the Content Areas

Our academic program is centered on mastery of foundational skills in literacy and mathematics, along with mastery in the core content areas of social studies and science, all based on the California content standards including the Common Core and new Next Gen Science Standards. Scholars benefit from longer literacy and math instruction in the primary years. Specific attention and longer instruction in literacy ensures scholars have early literacy success that supports them to higher levels of achievement. The overall literacy program is based on the five components of a balanced literacy program: phonemic awareness/phonics, fluency, vocabulary, comprehension, and writing.

College Readiness and Awareness

To ensure college graduation, we emphasize college readiness and awareness starting in kindergarten. Scholars along with their families take field trips to local universities as early as kindergarten. While the work and college discussion begins in the earliest years, the entire school carries out these practices. In addition, all courses and instruction are planned and implemented for scholars to gain the foundational skills, transcripts, and test scores - and the personal ambition - necessary to enter college preparatory middle and high schools.

Extended Day and Year

A critical teaching methodology at Equitas Academy is to provide teachers more time to teach and support scholars, and to provide more time for scholars to learn and advance. More access to effective instructional time increases learning, builds confidence allowing students to become self motivated and competent learners. As noted above, scholars attend Equitas Academy for an extended school day and year. School opens at 7:30 am and dismissal is at 3:30 pm for all grade levels. The school year extends to 180 days. Catherine Dodd²² examines several studies that explore the question of whether extending learning time for scholars in need of support can bridge the academic gap. In one study, extending the school day for kindergartners using the same curriculum as its half-day counterparts made a significant difference in the achievement levels of the full-day participants.²³

Beyond providing a longer school day, Choice Time is provided for scholars who do not adequately complete daily assignments and voluntarily for scholars who would like a quiet space to complete their work or need tutoring support.

Culturally-Relevant Learning Environment

Our culturally-relevant learning environment honors our diverse representation of scholars as an asset to the school community. Because of the large Latino population, all home communications are accessible in English and Spanish. This helps to instill in our scholars that their bilingual capacities are attributes and gifts, as well as assets. We recognize our scholars have multiple identities whether as immigrants, Americans, and/or Angelinos, and we organize the learning environment to meet these needs and honor these identities.

4. WE PROVIDE CLEAR AND CONSISTENT STANDARDS, RESEARCH-PROVEN CURRICULUM, AND FREQUENT ASSESSMENTS.

Clear standards ensure learning is focused on the specific skills and content knowledge that scholars need to master in a logical and sequential manner and allow for effective planning of instruction and assessments. All school curricula is fully aligned with California Content Standards, which “are designed to encourage the highest achievement of every scholar, by defining the knowledge, concepts, and skills that scholars should acquire at each grade level,”²⁴ as well as the Common Core State Standards and, going forward as they are implemented, the newly approved Next Generation Science Standards. Network staff, the School Director and Deans guide and support all classroom teachers as they organize and plan all daily lessons using these standards, with reliance on the CDE’s Curriculum Frameworks for each subject. All assessments and instruction are designed for mastery of the standards.

Uniform Instructional System

To maximize learning, all teachers in all grades follow a Uniform Instructional System (UIS). Working within a model that provides for direct instruction, guided practice, and scholar mastery, teachers use an instructional approach often referred to as “I do,” “We do,” “You do²⁵.” Teachers begin by making a connection to the scholar’s prior learning and directing the teaching to the lesson’s objective (“I do”). Scholars then move to practicing content with the teacher’s guidance (“We do”). After the teacher feels confident in the scholars’ understanding as a group, the lesson moves into individual scholar practice (“You do”).

²⁵ <http://www.sjboces.org/doc/Gifted/GradualReleaseResponsibilityJan08.pdf>

Teachers also implement the use of a Unified Blackboard System²⁶ (UBS) with elements that include: 1) Do Now, or lesson starter, 2) Aim or learning standard, 3) Agenda or steps for the lesson, 4) and Homework. Each teacher begins instruction with a Do Now, a five-minute quiet activity to get scholars engaged in the lesson. On the board, the teacher writes the Aim or learning standard and agenda for the day. The homework assignment is also posted so scholars know and are able to write down their daily homework assignment.

Scholars receive a weekly syllabus in English and translated in Spanish to inform parents about the daily agenda, homework, and learning objectives

Research-Proven Curriculum

Equitas Academy utilizes curricula with a proven track record and research base (see specific listing below). Using state adopted curricula that are standard-based ensures scholars have access to standards-aligned, research-proven instruction.

Frequent Assessments

Assessment is essential for measuring scholars' academic needs and ensuring that all scholars are mastering the learning standards. At the beginning of every school year, incoming scholars are assessed with age-appropriate, standardized assessment tools giving teachers assistance in the process of designing curriculum, lessons, and pacing, as these formative, benchmark assessments provide a clear understanding of current scholar mastery. These assessments also enable us to identify scholars who may need extra help to reach mastery on learning content standards. At the end of each year, we administer these same assessments in order to measure individual and cohort longitudinal progress and the efficacy of the curriculum and instruction, designing refinements and changes where needed.

Curriculum-aligned, standards-based interim assessments are developed by school leadership and staff, and are administered to scholars every trimester. Teachers use these periodic assessments to measure how well scholars are mastering the standards. Teachers meet with their coach after each assessment to discuss the results and to create an action plan when re-teaching is necessary. Scholar performance data drives whole class instruction, small group work, and one-on-one tutoring. Interim assessments allow teachers to effectively assess scholars' skill needs and target instruction and support to address specific deficiencies. By continuously using data to drive instruction, the academic needs of every scholar are met. A thoughtful, sequential series of frequent assessments (see Elements 2/3 for details on assessments) continuously informs leadership and staff as to the efficacy of the instructional program and scholar supports, and guides all decisions in a time-effective and proactive manner for every scholar.

5. WE ARE A MISSION-DRIVEN SCHOOL COMMUNITY.

²⁶ USB is a successfully instructional practice used by high performing charter schools such as Excel Academy, Boston, Roxbury Preparatory, and Edward Brooke in Boston, MA, and described by Dr. Lorraine Monroe in her book, Nothing's Impossible: Leadership Lessons from the Inside and Outside the Classroom. 1997. Random House, NY. Teachers learn how to implement USB system during the four weeks of summer professional development and as needed during the school year.

We involve all members of the school community in the pursuit of our mission, and to continuously channel our collective energies towards our unrelenting goal of academic achievement and college readiness for every child. Within our achievement-oriented school community, we engage all community stakeholders in the development of school's core values—curiosity, optimism, gratitude, grit, self-control, social intelligence and zest. The Board of Directors brings expertise, time, and commitment to excellence in governing the school and achievement of its mission. School leaders are primarily responsible for implementing the school's mission. School leaders support the work of teachers to ensure the staff is able to successfully deliver the rigorous academic program, monitor, and adjust the program to meet the individual needs of the scholars. Teachers are hired because of their unwavering belief that scholars can learn and achieve at high levels and their demonstrated capacity that they can deliver on this belief. Teachers are committed to the planning and delivery of standards-based lessons daily, as well as providing daily, individualized academic support as needed. Beyond school leaders and staff, we also ensure that the following stakeholders are continuously engaged in realizing our school mission:

Parents/Families

Parent are continuously encouraged to be engaged in their child's education through family orientations, home visits, parent workshops, and frequent communications between school and home. After the school lottery, families attend an orientation meeting in which school leaders explain the school mission, philosophy, code of conduct and family responsibilities. Before the first day of school, Equitas Academy leadership and staff ensure that families are knowledgeable about the school and understand their commitment to their child's education by having families acknowledge and sign a contract.

Families are invited to attend four Family Workshops a year provided and facilitated by the Dean of Support along with teachers. The workshops are held at times conducive to various family schedules. Workshop topics in the primary years include how to help your child read, do math, increase language development, and complete homework. In the upper grades, workshop topics include the transition from elementary to middle school, preparation for college preparatory high schools, and college field trips and informational sessions. Families also have an opportunity to inspire the workshop topics. In helping our scholars reach a high level of rigor, we ensure we are meeting the needs of our families whether they speak a language other than English or have limited educational backgrounds. These workshops are bilingual, optional and not required for families to attend.

Cafecitos (or coffee talks) occur in the morning once a month with parents, school leadership and/or teachers, communicating curriculum, homework supports, and strategies to help each child succeed. Cafecitos are a time for parents and the school to communicate and build relationships all in support of the school's ambitious and critical mission. The School Director facilitates these gatherings in English and Spanish.

Scholars

With supports, scholars embrace the strong school community environment and demonstrate the school mission through their academic performance, internalization of the school's core values and involvement in the community. Our scholars manifest the academic, behavioral and leadership goals of the school. From the first day of school, scholars set academic and personal goals. Teachers communicate with scholars on a daily, weekly, and on a trimester basis regarding their personal goals. In addition, parent-teacher-scholar conferences are held twice annually to ensure that teachers, scholars and parents are communicating about the scholar's progress and any concerns that may arise. This helps to motivate scholars and encourages them to take ownership over their own learning and progress as they both set their own goals and then engage in meaningful discussions about their progress.

We plan to follow our scholars after matriculation by developing an alumni network, exemplifying our college-driven focus. Over time, alumni will be given opportunities to return to Equitas schools to tutor scholars, participate in high school and college chats and mentor members of the current scholar body.

Community

Building strong ties with the local community also is critical. Equitas has partnered with individuals and organizations in the Pico-Union and Los Angeles community through outreach efforts to business, policy makers, community leaders, and key stakeholders that are dedicated to helping scholars obtain academic success. Partnerships include the Rotary Club, Salvation Army, SALEF, Families In Schools, and our public libraries.

As our reputation in the community has grown, the members of our school community exhibit pride in the school, themselves and the broader Pico-Union community. This helps our scholars and their families feel a powerful sense of belonging, which in turn helps to motivate them to work hard and succeed.

THE REQUIREMENTS OF CALIFORNIA EDUCATION CODE § 47605(B)(5)(A)(II)

Equitas Academy will pursue the following school-wide and scholar group outcome goals, based on the state priorities detailed in California Education Code § 52060(d). Scholar performance and achievement of school-wide, scholar group and individual scholar progress is measured by multiple and varied summative and formative assessments that are aligned to state and federal standards (including the CCSS) and reflect proficiency measures required by the new CAASPP, as well as state priorities detailed in California Education Code § 52060(d).

The following chart details the Charter School's goals as of this petition submission, for all pupils (including statistically significant subgroups) pursuant to California Education Code Section 47605(b)(5)(A)(ii), 52052, for each of the eight (8) state priorities identified in California Education Code § 52060(d), including specific annual actions the school will take to achieve each of the identified annual goals. We note that as required under the California Education Code, Equitas Academy stakeholders will engage in a collaborative process each year to update and prepare an annual Local Control and Accountability Plan (LCAP) as a basis for prioritizing allocation of funds. The following is intended to be illustrative of the goals and actions Equitas Academy anticipates at this point in time.

INSTRUCTIONAL DESIGN

CURRICULAR AND INSTRUCTIONAL DESIGN OF THE EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM: KEY EDUCATIONAL THEORIES AND RESEARCH

Equitas’ mission and vision are realized by providing a safe and structured environment in our schools where we were able to support scholars to meet academic standards articulated through California content standards (including the new Common Core) proficiency, develop strong character values, and academic stamina in order to meet scholars’ own personal goals.

We further detail the academic program and the teaching methodologies that inform the development of our educational program, which include:

- Extended Learning Time
- Uniform Instructional System
- Teaching for Mastery
- Strategies and Supports for Scholar Mastery of Instructional Materials
- Intensive Focus on Literacy and Mathematics
- A Rigorous Standards-Based Curriculum: Core content areas of language arts, mathematics, social studies, and science
- Life Skills/Ethics Curriculum

Extended Learning Time

A critical component of the Equitas model is to provide teachers more time to teach and support scholars, and to provide more time for scholars to learn and advance. Increased effective instructional time allows scholars more time to learn and more time used in a constructive manner will result in stronger scholar performance. Equitas scholars attend school from 7:30 am until 3:30 pm. After-school tutoring and homework assistance is provided for scholars who do not adequately complete daily assignments and voluntary for scholars who would like a quiet space to complete their work or need tutoring support after-school. The extended school day is designed to provide more time for learning in addition to opportunities for school day tutoring (provided by teachers), enrichment (provided by enrichment teachers), and other support supports.

The school day schedule allows for more time in school and a substantial amount of time over the California minutes of instruction:

Equitas Academy Yearly Instructional Minutes	75,525
State Required Instructional Minutes	50,400
Increased Minutes Over State Requirement	25,125

We provide more instructional time than required by California Department of Education. Within our extended day and extended year program, EQ provides daily supports to ensure the additional learning time is handled in developmentally appropriate ways. In order to keep scholars focused, teachers will ensure the pacing of lessons is interactive and engaging. The use of chants, kinesthetic movements, and positive reinforcements will encourage scholar engagement.

Uniform Instructional System

To maximize learning, all teachers in all grades follow a Uniform Instructional System (UIS). Working within a model that provides for direct instruction, guided practice, and scholar mastery, teachers use an instructional approach often referred to as “I do,” “We do,” “You do.” Teachers begin by making a connection to the scholar’s prior learning and directing the teaching to the lesson’s objective (“I do”). Scholars then move to practicing content with the teacher’s guidance (“We do”). After the teacher feels confident in the scholars’ understanding as a group, the lesson moves into individual scholar practice (“You do”).

Teachers also implement the use of a Unified Blackboard System (UBS)²⁷ with elements that include: 1) Do Now, or lesson starter, 2) Aim or learning standard written as a measurable objective, 3) Agenda or steps for the lesson, 4) and Homework. Each teacher will begin instruction with a Do Now, a five-minute quiet activity to get scholars engaged in the lesson. On the board, the teacher will write the Aim or learning standard and agenda for the day. The homework assignment will also be posted so scholars know and are able to write down their daily homework assignment.

Scholars receive a weekly syllabus to inform parents about the daily agenda, homework, and learning objectives.

Teaching for Mastery

Assessment is essential for measuring scholars' academic needs and ensuring that all scholars are mastering the learning standards. At the beginning of every school year, incoming scholars are assessed with standardized assessment tools such as NWEA MAPs, giving teachers assistance in the process of designing curriculum, lessons, and pacing, as these formative, benchmark assessments provide a clear understanding of current scholar mastery. These assessments also enable us to identify scholars who may need extra help to reach mastery on learning CCSS. At the mid-point and end of each year, we will administer these same assessments in order to measure individual and cohort longitudinal progress and the efficacy of the curriculum and instruction, designing refinements and changes where needed.

Standards-based interim assessments for each grade are provided by Achievement First's open source curriculum. Assessments are consistent across grade-level and campus. Assessments are administered to scholars every trimester. The interim assessments are standards aligned; Equitas network and school staff run a regression analysis of scholar performance on the SBAC and interims to ensure performance alignment. Teachers use these periodic assessments to measure how well scholars are mastering the standards. Teachers meet individually with their coach and as a grade-level group to discuss the results and to create an action plan when re-teaching is necessary. Scholar performance data drives whole class instruction, small group work, and one-on-one tutoring. Interim assessments allow teachers to effectively assess scholars' skill needs and target instruction and support to address specific deficiencies. By continuously using data to drive instruction, the academic needs of every scholar are met. Parents are partners in ensuring scholars are meeting the rigorous mastery standards, therefore, communication is vital. Equitas Academy provides multiple formats and structures to ensure parents are informed of the results of these assessments, such as weekly progress reports, and thus parents are knowledgeable and able to be proactive in helping their children meet learning standards.

Strategies and Supports for Scholar Mastery of Instructional Material

Scholars learn at varying rates. Schools that expect all scholars to meet high standards must be prepared to support scholars until they reach mastery, regardless of the pace or style by which they learn. We offer:

- Clear, engaging, high-quality lessons in the classroom
- Increased learning time relative to other district schools
- Pull-out and push-in instruction by teachers certified with a special education credential and related services such as counseling, speech, and occupational and physical therapy for scholars who require it
- Teachers tutor scholars who require additional individual and small-group attention occurs during the school day Intentional English Learner curriculum and supports for English Language Development.

All of these strategies and supports ensure that all scholars (high achieving scholars, scholars with disabilities, English Language Learners, and/or scholars not maintaining academic standards) meet and/or exceed the high standards that we set at Equitas Academy.

CURRICULUM AND INSTRUCTION

Equitas selects and implements curriculum that addresses all grade-level appropriate California Common Core State Standards.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE ARTS

Literacy is the key academic skill on which all future skill and knowledge acquisition is based. One of the greatest barriers that hinder scholars' academic success is a weak foundation in literacy. Studies confirm that success or failure in building a foundation of fundamental literacy in the primary grades is a compelling gauge of future academic success. According to the National Research Council, "academic success, as defined by high school graduation, can be predicted with reasonable accuracy by knowing someone's reading skill at the end of 3rd grade. A person who is not at least a modestly skilled reader by that time is unlikely to graduate from high school."²⁸

The language arts program at Equitas is designed to develop critical, compelling, and thoughtful readers, writers, speakers, and listeners. This is accomplished through instruction driven by the three shifts of the Common Core ELA standards: (1) regular practice with complex texts and their academic language, (2) grounding reading, writing, and speaking in evidence using literary and informational texts, and (3) building knowledge through content-rich nonfiction. Equitas believes that literacy is vital in creating an equitable world, and therefore in addition to the core ELA classes (Guided Reading, Close Reading, Read Aloud, Think Read Discuss, Writing, and Reading Mastery), scholars hone their literacy skills in all contents throughout the day. Teachers are supported in this challenging work through targeted feedback and coaching, collaborative facilitated intellectual preparation meetings, and provided daily lesson materials from an aligned curriculum.

In particular, we introduce in TK/Kindergarten the basics of reading, exposing scholars to a range of literature (stories, drama, and poetry) and informational texts (historical, scientific, and technical texts, and literary nonfiction). Scholars learn to ask and answer questions about key details in a text with prompting and support. They also learn to retell familiar stories, demonstrating their ability to identify characters, settings, and major events. They begin to understand the mechanics of reading as well, learning to follow words from left to right and recognize uppercase and lowercase letters along with the corresponding sounds. In terms of writing, kindergarten scholars combine drawing, dictating, and writing to express ideas and narrate events. They begin to show a command of the English language regarding grammar and usage when writing and speaking. They hone their speaking skills by participating in collaborative discussions with different partners about the texts or key topics covered in class.

²⁸ Preventing Reading Difficulties in Young Children, National Research Council, Snow, Burns, and Griffin, 1998.

Each subsequent grade builds upon the reading, writing, speaking, listening and language skills introduced in kindergarten. The instruction at each grade level includes increasingly complex reading materials and as the scholars develop stronger skills, they assume more independence in their work assignments. Scholars will be able to apply grade-level phonics and word analysis in decoding words. By 4th grade, the scholars will have developed their critical thinking skills to the point that they will be able to compare and contrast using quotes and evidence from a text.

To achieve mastery of the Common Core literacy standards, we employ a research-proven,²⁹ balanced-literacy program as outlined by the federal government: (phonemic awareness and phonics, fluency, vocabulary, comprehension and writing), that includes a significant focus on phonics.³⁰ Scholars in kindergarten through third grade receive intensive phonics and phonemic awareness instruction using SRA Reading Mastery to ensure they have a solid foundation in fundamental reading skills. If there still is a need for extensive phonics instruction in reading and writing after the third grade, scholars receive one-on-one or small group tutoring with a teacher to improve their skills. A foundation of strong literacy skills developed in the primary years through the instruction of a balanced literacy program allows literacy instruction in the upper grades to focus powerfully on deep comprehension of a variety of fiction and non-fiction texts. We recognize that reading proficiency is essential to the mastery of all other academic subjects; therefore, scholars must graduate from Equitas Academy reading at or above grade level in order to be successful in college.

The literacy program at Equitas includes the following components:

Literacy Program Components
Think, Read, Discuss (K-1)/ Read Aloud (2-4)	World awareness through texts, evidence-based discussions, fluency, vocabulary, reading comprehension
Guided Reading & English Language Development	Reading comprehension, modeling reading instruction, and developing vocabulary
Phonics	Reinforce phonemic awareness, phonics, vocabulary, and decoding skill mastery
Writing Program	Language mechanics, organization, genre study, grammar
Close Reading	Analysis of author’s craft, articulation of the central idea, oral and written language

Team teaching in literacy is utilized to lower the scholar/teacher instruction ratio and provide for shared teaching experience. Because teachers share instruction for all scholars, teachers are able to plan together and collaborate on how to meet the needs of individual scholars. Teaching is made public as all teachers work together to meet the needs of every scholar. All grade level teachers plan together and deliver the same lesson plans. We divide the scholars into smaller groups based on flexible-ability reading groups, which rotate among the teachers. This enables our teachers to focus their efforts on a specific skill set or strategy with small groups and enables scholars to receive targeted instruction based on their needs. This is particularly critical as we help our significant English Learner population become English-proficient.

Phonemic Awareness and Phonics: The balanced literacy approach begins by teaching phonemic awareness and sound-letter correspondence and progresses to word and passage reading, vocabulary development, comprehension, and building oral reading fluency. After building a foundation, later lessons emphasize accurate and fluent decoding while teaching scholars the skills necessary to comprehend and learn from expository text. Lessons are fast-paced and interactive. Scholar instruction is differentiated as scholars are grouped by similar reading level, based on placement tests.

In upper elementary grades, literacy instruction makes the transition from emphasizing phonics and phonemic awareness to intermediate grammar and novel reading. Scholars begin dissecting sentences and classifying various parts of speech, and diagramming complex sentences, and reading various prose and poetry (novels, plays, sonnets, poetry, speeches) with instructional supports.

Read Alouds: As detailed in the seminal report, Becoming a Nation of Readers, written by a nationally recognized group of experts on the study of how children develop and learn language, “The single most important activity for building the knowledge required for eventual success in reading is reading aloud to children.”³¹ This is true not just of the earliest grades, but throughout all levels of our school: “The commission found conclusive evidence to support reading aloud not only in the home but also in the classroom: It is a practice that should continue throughout the grades.” (p. 51.)

Based on this research, Equitas builds Read Alouds (referred to as Think, Read, Discuss in K-1) into the literacy block explicitly to develop our scholars’ ability to distill the meaning of any longer, grade-level or beyond text and to analyze the choices the author makes to convey the central idea within text. Read alouds also develop the ability to hear, engage with, and mirror the thinking process of an adult reader. In addition, we infuse Read Alouds within curricula areas like Science, Social Studies, and Character Education, and scholars are encouraged to read aloud and be read to daily by parents/teachers to increase their decoding ability and fluency rate.

Vocabulary: Embedded in Reading Mastery are strong vocabulary strands. Equitas teachers build the vocabulary skills of our scholars through a strong compliment of independent reading and structured instruction. Bill Honig,³² a respected early reading expert cites compelling research on the subject:

³¹ Richard C. Anderson, Elfrieda H. Hiebert, Judith A. Scott, Ian A.G. Wilkinson. (1985). Becoming a Nation of Readers: The Report of the Commission on Reading. Champaign-Urbana, IL: Center for the Study of Reading.

³² Honig, Bill. (1995) Teaching Our Children To Read; The Role of Skills in a Comprehension Reading Program. Thousand Oaks, CA: Corwin Press.

- Scholars who score in the top five percent on reading tests read 144 times more than scholars who score in the bottom five percent.
- By the fifth grade, if scholars want to make grade level progress, they should be reading more than 1.1 million words a year of outside-of-school reading (25 to 35 books or the equivalent) which should take 15 to 30 minutes a night; this is in addition to the 1.7 million words of school text. Instead of reading the necessary 2.8 million words, the average fifth grader reads only about 900,000.
- Although teaching vocabulary strategies (e.g. word families, scaffolding, etc.) helps retention rates, the vast majority of new words can be learned only through reading. To reach these levels, scholars need to read the recommended 25 to 35 books a year after the first grade.

Independent Reading Time (IRT): Each day, scholars have an independent reading time (IRT). This time expands upon the more typically used “Silent Sustained Reading” (SSR) or “Drop Everything and Read” (DEAR) programs. The job of the teacher during IRT is to get all of his or her scholars to be avid, active readers by finding appropriate books, inspiring scholars to read, and monitoring their independent reading. During this time, teachers utilize standards-based lesson planning to implement mini-lessons to strengthen scholar learning. In addition, we utilize a leveled library system to ensure scholars are reading books at their appropriate reading levels. A leveled library is a system for coding books by reading level, e.g., levels A, B, or C is a kindergarten reading book. The leveling system is based on text analysis and language characteristics. Using this system, teachers assess scholars’ reading ability and help scholars choose appropriate books at “their just right reading level.”³³ Teachers model comprehension strategies at the start of IRT in a mini-lesson and scholars utilize these strategies during their independent reading time. For example, the teacher may ask the scholars to further their understanding of their IRT book by making a text to text connection to the class Read Aloud book earlier that day. At the end of IRT, scholars volunteer the connection made during their reading. Teachers also actively coach scholars to ensure scholars are utilizing comprehension strategies, choosing appropriate books, and constructing meaning during their independent learning time.

Close Reading: At Equitas, we believe that “one of the end goals of teaching is to instill in students the ability to wrestle with the most demanding texts, interpret them independently, and understand how and why they mean what they do. Close Reading does this, and that makes it critically important.”³⁴ We teach scholars to distill the meaning of any short text and to articulate the central idea in both oral and written language. Our scholars learn to analyze the choices each author makes to convey the central idea and to articulate this connection to the central idea of text in oral and written language. As scholars progress through the elementary grades they read books with increasingly higher-level vocabulary and complex novel plots. In upper elementary grades, scholars read classical texts from a wide-range of authors in fiction, non-fiction, and poetry. Scholars also develop their literacy skills through the reading and analysis. In addition to building comprehension through literature, scholars learn to deeply analyze text. Using shorter pieces of primarily poetry and non-fiction, scholars learn to identify question types and go back to the text to find the answers to those questions. Scholars are asked to prove their answers, and rich discussions about question types and text proofs build the analysis skills of scholars. Scholars present both written and oral presentations to demonstrate comprehension.

Writing: We offer a rigorous writing curriculum that is designed to have scholars learn to express themselves through writing in a variety of genres and to produce writing with excellent organization, elaboration, and flow. The curriculum has a heavy focus on sentence structure, basic grammar, and paragraph formation. Scholars complete daily oral language activities that support the development of grammar skills. Teachers use a variety of grammar materials in daily mini-lessons. Scholars also learn step-by-step how to develop excellent sentence structures, paragraphs, and essays. Extensive prewriting, drafting, revising, and editing take place on all pieces of writing. Equitas Academy scholars are able to produce top-quality narratives, expository and persuasive essays, research papers, and literary analysis essays. A strong foundation in phonics ensures scholars are fluent readers able to analyze text using explicit comprehension strategies. Our Common Core-aligned writing program prepares scholars to think critically and communicate clearly with regards to their ideas, both a fundamental skill for life and success in higher education.

Literacy Across the Curriculum: As envisioned by the Common Core standards, Equitas Academy has, from the beginning, included a focus on literacy in all subjects for all grades. Classes in social studies and science are able to serve both as an opportunity to develop scholars' core reading skills to a greater degree, as well as to increase their content knowledge in these subjects. For example, 2nd grade scholars may be reading the book From Seed to Plant (Gibbons, 1991) in literacy classes to reinforce the 2nd-grade science standards on ecosystems and plants. Journal entries may be used in science lessons to document scholars' observations, aligned to grade level writing standards. Historical fiction is used in literacy to reinforce social science lessons. Character education in the younger grades and ethics courses in the upper grades all utilize literature-based lessons. Increasing reading fluency across subject areas allows scholars to access content in all of their classes to a greater degree.

English Language Development for English Learners: We meet the needs of our significant English Learner population via specific supports and strategies across the curriculum and instructional day designed to foster their English Language proficiency. In addition to integrated ELD throughout core learning, during Guided Reading, scholars work in small groups based on their literacy levels; this time is used for designated ELD instruction for all English Learners, grouped by ability/proficiency level, e.g., ELD levels 1 and 2 are in the same group, Level 3 and 4 scholars are in the same group, and English proficient scholars (EOs) are grouped together. This targeted ELD instruction for 65-70 minutes each day enables targeted English Language instruction in the context of grade-level literacy development. See the section below on English Learners for extensive details about our ELD program.

MATHEMATICS

Similar to our ELA program, our math program is entirely aligned with the Common Core State Standards, and is designed to address the three key components of the common core standards for mathematics: conceptual understanding, application, and fluency. The math program involves four key scheduled blocks to address these components: math lessons, math stories, math fluency, and math intervention, each described in more detail below.

Math Lessons: Math lessons focus on building conceptual understanding with some application and fluency work woven in as well. In Kindergarten and 1st grade, scholars engage in game-based lessons to explore and practice a key mathematical idea. In 2nd through 4th grade, scholars engage in exercise-based lessons that begin with a problem of the day, which leads into a discussion that illuminates the key mathematical idea. All grades then have time to work with partners and individually to strengthen their understanding of the key idea of the lesson, which is concluded with an exit ticket in order to provide the teacher daily feedback to adjust instruction.

Math Stories: Math stories focus mostly on application. Scholars are presented with a challenging word problem, discuss how they can represent the math, and then solve. The block is focused on scholars sharing their strategies with one another and owning their learning.

Math Fluency: Math fluency comes in the form of math meeting in kindergarten and first grade and math routines in 2nd through 4th grade. Math meeting is a community time focused on calendar, counting, shapes, and pattern skills that encourage fluency. Math routines provides time for scholars to practice skip counting, operation fluency, and mental math that they will apply to all other math blocks. Math fluency also lives in computer time when scholars use individualized, self-paced programs to revisit mastered skills and become more fluid with them.

Math Intervention: In addition to the 25-minute RTI block Monday through Thursday that teachers will use to respond to data in either ELA or math, there is time set aside each Friday for cumulative review (2nd-4th) and math intervention (Kindergarten - 1st), in which teachers respond to data from the weekly quiz that is analyzed during the data meeting each Friday. This block allows for a thoughtful revisiting of cumulative standards to ensure continued mastery, as well as reteach based on error analysis from quizzes and exit tickets. Scholars not needing reteach will use individualized, self-paced math programs to revisit skills and build fluency.

SOCIAL STUDIES

Research has shown that one major reason that urban scholars score lower on reading tests is that they lack sufficient background knowledge to comprehend more complex text.³⁵ When one reads a text, he or she must know how to decode the words and how to analyze the text. To truly understand the text, however, one must also know the basic vocabulary and contextual information the author assumes his or her readers understand. For this reason – and the importance of our scholars understanding the world around them – it is essential that scholars receive a rich and rigorous education in social studies.

³⁵ Strangman, N. and Hall, T. (2009). Background Knowledge. National Center on Accessing the General Curriculum. http://aim.cast.org/sites/aim.cast.org/files/ncac_BKNov3.pdf

Our social studies curriculum follows the comprehensive and challenging California State Standards and now incorporate the Common Core as well and new History/Social Science Frameworks. Teachers expect scholars to master the key concepts and vocabulary, and they also teach them to analyze primary sources, debate different points of view, and make cause-and-effect connections. Social studies classes are fast-paced and teachers work with scholars to hone their non-fiction reading skills, learn important content, and apply and retain it in written essays and oral presentations.

SCIENCE

Science instruction combines scholar mastery of core vocabulary and conceptual knowledge with the application of scientific principles in laboratory settings. The science program is designed to address California’s Next Generation Science Standards. We agree with current thought leaders in the science community that “learning about science and engineering involves integration of the knowledge of scientific explanations (i.e., content knowledge) and the practices needed to engage scientific inquiry and engineering design.”³⁶

As such, our science program is an inquiry-based discipline founded on determining scientific claims through patterns in repeated evidence and data. There are four tenets of our science program that are derived from and connected to the conceptual shifts in the next generation Science Standards, which include: curiosity through inquiry, depth and coherence, rigor and STEM literacy. The 5E cycle is used to build scholar interest and curiosity at the beginning of each unit, followed by gathering and interpreting data and evidence to answer the driving questions in the unit. Through the inquiry process and engagement in the 5E cycle, scholars uncover data and evidence that allows them to construct accurate meaning and address their own misconceptions over time.

In kindergarten, scholars acquire basic knowledge about energy flow, understanding that animals need food to survive, while plants need water and light. They are introduced to weather and climate concepts, and grasp the meaning of natural resources and natural hazards. Teachers organize activities that help scholars understand humans’ impact on our environment. Scholars also learn about motion and stability, connecting the push-pull dynamic. Many of the science standards covered in kindergarten simultaneously help them to comprehend “cause” and “effect.”

For each subsequent grade, our teachers employ scaffolding techniques to build scholars’ science knowledge and to foster their sense of curiosity about the physical world they live in and the energy forces they observe. At culmination of our program, scholars’ understanding about energy flow, a topic first introduced in kindergarten, deepens to the point that they realize that energy from food was once energy from the sun, which was captured through photosynthesis by plants. They appreciate the interdependence of ecosystems. Scholars comprehend gravity and the effect of the sun on earth given its proximity compared to other stars. Scholars learn that matter can be subdivided into particles and understand that chemical reactions can occur when different substances combine. As a highly valuable long-term skill, they learn the principles of engineering design and are able to identify problems and strategies to test for solutions.

Science assessments, for example, include sections that focus on the key terms and ideas of a unit as well as a performance task component that requires scholars to synthesize and analyze data from laboratory experiments. Teachers also actively work to reinforce key mathematical concepts, especially graphing and measurement skills.

CHARACTER EDUCATION/ETHICS

The Equitas curriculum incorporates a rigorous and developmentally appropriate program of values and character education to prepare scholars to thrive in school, college, and the world. This curriculum guides all scholars with the life skills necessary to create self-motivated, competent, and lifelong learners. Established curriculum such as Second Step³⁷ and Morning Meetings³⁸ are used along with developmentally appropriate texts that highlight and teach our school's core values of curiosity, optimism, gratitude, grit, self-control, social intelligence and zest. These values are the basis of a school culture that provides a safe and productive environment necessary for the academic, social, and emotional growth of every scholar. We believe that ethics are important in creating civic individuals. Ethics combined with perseverance help scholars to successfully confront the challenges they will face as they grow and mature and to avoid self-destructive behaviors and situations they may face as adolescents and young adults.

The development of perseverance and/or grit is particularly key to our scholars' success. Therefore, we focus on this value and drill the mantra that you must work hard. We are charged with helping scholars develop the capacity, when faced with difficult decisions and situations, to make educated decisions and not run from difficult situations but rather have learned to deal with challenges with a strategy to mitigate the challenges they face. Teacher professional development includes significant time devoted to common practices for positively dealing with academic errors on tests or mistakes made in homework, helping scholars build confidence, and fostering and modeling integrity, perseverance, dignity, pride, respect, and compassion. We create learners that feel confident about learning and have the skill sets to understand how to sit still, focus, be quiet, listen well, and organize themselves for successful learning.

Much of the emphasis in the primary years on character education is furthered with the ethics curriculum in the upper elementary grades as scholars become more self-aware and autonomous. Scholars in the upper elementary grades have an opportunity to explore multicultural literature in the pursuit of ethics, or the study of what it means to be a good person. Scholars read a collection of materials to explore the philosophy of what is right and what is wrong and engage in debates, written analysis and deeper level thinking on ethical issues.

Morning Meetings: Each day it is important for the Charter School’s staff to convey the urgency and excitement of learning. The tone of the day is set with the first interaction. Every morning, the leadership team, along with teachers, greets scholars with a morning handshake. Once scholars pass through the school threshold, a professional, considerate and scholarly environment is maintained. Building on the morning handshake, each scholar begins their day with an emphasis on the Equitas core values. The primary teachers implement Morning Meetings as this sets the tone for a respectful learning environment. Morning Meetings motivate scholars and create an environment of trust, community, respect, and scholarship. The meeting format includes the teacher beginning with a class greeting using class chants or a group motto, group activities, and closing.³⁹ In addition, morning meetings provide opportunities for developing scholar vocabulary, oral language and team building skills. While a short period of the day, it sets the tone for the learning community and extends beyond the meeting.

Community Circle: Justice, fairness, and equity also are important values infused throughout the school culture and rituals. Through studying nonviolent social movements for justice, learning strategies for problem solving and conflict resolution, and our emphasis on respect for self, perseverance, and respect for others, our scholars learn to navigate challenges and conflicts in a peaceful way.

To create this school culture and infuse the ethics curriculum on a school-wide level, every Friday all scholars come together to participate in a Community Circle, where teachers and school leaders exemplify and celebrate the school’s core values. Explicitly teaching values helps scholars achieve and succeed in our rigorous, college preparatory academic program, and grows scholars into young adults that embody the values that build self and community beyond the schoolhouse doors. The school leadership and teachers celebrate scholar progress, prepare lessons to illustrate the core values and bring a global perspective of justice, equity and fairness through presentations and activities.

Structured Break Time: In addition to the morning and weekly rituals to build community, each break time for the primary scholars is organized to allow scholars authentic experiences for practicing the school’s core values. Teachers role-play and lead lessons on teamwork, cooperation, and compassion during morning meeting and throughout the character education lessons. Break times are a period when teachers monitor and support the scholars’ development in these areas. It is a time when teachers scaffold supports for scholars and help build language and confidence in working together.

MISSION-DRIVEN ENRICHMENT PROGRAM

For scholars to become competitive and college bound, they must be well rounded and have access to as many enrichment opportunities as possible. Therefore, we develop scholars' talents and interests in an enrichment curriculum that is an integral part of our daily educational program. Scholars attend enrichment classes that may include such courses as movement, yoga, foreign language, technology, drama, art, public speaking, music, or dance with a rotating curriculum each trimester. Each year the enrichment program offered varies so scholars rotate access to the enrichment courses. The enrichment curriculum is implemented by teachers devoted to enrichment as well as part-time instructors (if necessary) to implement the program; content-area credentialing is not a requirement of these non-core subject areas:

Physical Education: Equitas' physical education curriculum reflects California State Standards and teaches scholars about a fit and healthy lifestyle. American children are becoming more and more obese and fitness levels are decreasing.⁴⁰ All children at Equitas have physical education classes each day with planned instruction to develop motor skills, and an understanding of common sports like baseball, basketball, soccer, and volleyball. The curriculum prepares scholars for the California FitnessGram Physical Education test, and also teaches scholars how to play different sports and games as well as reinforce messages about nutrition, teamwork, and fair play. The curriculum will be taught either by Instructional Aides or contracted service providers.

Music: This course serves to educate scholars about the spectacular world of music! Scholars focus on basic processing, analyzing music, cultural dimension of music, tempo and rhythm, memorization of songs, learning how to perform, and showcasing their work.

Creative Writing: Creative writing gives scholars the opportunity to express their feelings, develop their own ideas and beliefs, and discover what they know or think about a topic. Through this course scholars develop and appreciation for and love of writing.

Yoga: In yoga scholars learn the important skill of focusing and centering themselves with various breathing and visualization techniques. They also learn self-respect, build self-awareness skills, and connect to school values through their yoga practice.

Visual Arts: Scholars begin the school year learning art methods, how to use different materials, and the many artistic techniques. They get exposed to the elements, principles of designs, and learn to express themselves and take risks in creating art. As the year progresses, scholars focus on how art has the power to build a positive social climate, scholars begin to use art as a form of social-justice, and learn about cultures around the world through art.

Technology: Scholars in the 21st century need to be technologically literate; that is, they need to know how to use the computer in the ways that professionals use it daily. All scholars receive explicit instruction in basic typing skills, Word, Excel, PowerPoint, and email by both classroom teachers and enrichment teachers. In the lower grades, scholars use computer-based learning programs to master foundational literacy skills. Primary scholars use the computer for literacy programs, research and fact-finding to complete assigned projects and homework. We provide one computer for every scholar, utilizing computer carts with Chromebooks. With the switch to Smarter Balanced computer assessments, our focus on technology has been important to the success of our scholars. Scholars access technology on a daily basis. Technology instruction is integrated into the core curriculum and used for testing. With the roll out of Common Core and Smarter Balanced testing over the last charter term, we have invested substantially in technology, training and infrastructure.

Public Speaking: In this course scholars will learn to speak confidently in front of a group and share their ideas in public. Public speaking provides exposure to different types of speeches, practice speaking clearly and loudly, memorization techniques, as well as posture and gestures while communicating. Throughout the course scholars will write and deliver speeches, memorize speeches, and practice using a microphone.

Readers Theater: Readers Theater provides another opportunity outside of core content classes for scholars to practice their literacy skills and explore literature. Throughout the courses scholars will read and analyze scripts, write their own scripts, perform skits, and read with expression and fluency.

Art History: Art history provides an opportunity for scholars to both engage in creating art, as well as analyzing art from history and their community. In this course, scholars explore art and their identity and the identity of their peers to understand community. In doing so, they learn about artwork from a variety of diverse artists, including Chicano, Asian, and African, and investigate graffiti art and muralism. To culminate their study, scholars create a classroom mural with their community that communicates their collective identity through art.

American Sign Language: American Sign Language provides exposure to a different culture as well as practice with expressing ideas and emotions in a unique way. In American Sign Language class, scholars explore basic American Sign Language and dramatizing facial expressions that correspond to emotions and feelings. They also focus on integrating vocabulary and concepts to enhance meaningful communication in ASL. Scholars will learn cultural practices and perspectives of American Deaf culture.

Dance: Dance provides exposure to performing arts, music, and expressing emotions and stories through movement. In dance class, scholars explore the basics of a variety of dance types (including hip hop, jazz, and ballet), as well as practice performing for an audience.

INNOVATIVE COMPONENTS OF THE INSTRUCTIONAL MODEL

As detailed throughout this petition, our most innovative elements, based originally on successful “best practices” at schools across the country founded by Building Excellent Schools fellows and customized to meet the needs of our scholars in Pico-Union, include:

- college preparatory curriculum;
- slow growth model of growing one grade level each year based on the model of the highest achieving urban charter schools serving a similar population;
- laser focus on the core content areas of literacy, mathematics, science, social studies, and character education/ethics;
- intentional use of data to drive instructional decisions.

INTERVENTION AND ENRICHMENT PROGRAMS

As detailed in the section on Students with Special Needs, below, EQ provides a number of coordinated and varying interventions and supports for our scholars. Enrichment programs are detailed above and include Visual and Performing Arts, Physical Education and Health, and experiences with technology.

INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS AND STRATEGIES

The instructional methods and strategies used in the Equitas model are based on proven models in schools serving similar populations of scholars (e.g., other Building Excellent Schools fellows’ charter schools across California and the nation) as well as success at our own schools. These schools share the following key characteristics:

Shared Characteristics of High Performing Charter Schools

HOW THE SCHOOL’S INSTRUCTIONAL METHODOLOGIES AND CURRICULUM WILL ENSURE STUDENT MASTERY OF THE CALIFORNIA CCSS AND OTHER STATE CONTENT STANDARDS

The entire content of Equitas’ curriculum has the California state standards, including CCSS, Next Generation Science Standards, and English Language Development as its foundation. Units are explicitly designed to ensure all grade-level standards are met. Equitas recognizes the importance of regular, ongoing professional development in the continued implementation of the CCSS and realizes the importance of keeping abreast of CCSS developments, new publications and requirements.

EVIDENCE THAT THE PROPOSED MODEL WILL BE SUCCESSFUL WITH OUR TARGETED STUDENT POPULATION

As evidenced by the extensive data detailed at the start of Element 1, Equitas is demonstrating that our model resoundingly works without our target population.

HOW THE INSTRUCTIONAL PROGRAM WILL SUPPORT STUDENT DEVELOPMENT OF TECHNOLOGY-RELATED SKILLS AND STUDENT USE OF TECHNOLOGY

As detailed under “Mission Driven Enrichments,” two pages prior, Equitas is committed to ensuring that all scholars have the technological skills to compete in the 21st century and are prepared to take online assessments. As detailed above, all scholars will receive explicit instruction in basic typing skills, Word, Excel, PowerPoint, and email. By the time they matriculate from EQ and go on to middle school, scholars will be proficient with these programs, and have the necessary technological literacy to further their education and interests. Scholars will use computer-based learning programs to master foundational literacy skills. In addition, scholars will use computers for research and fact-finding to complete assigned projects and homework. Technology instruction is integrated into the core curriculum.

Technology is aimed at the target student population by supporting the skills needed to thrive in college and career, as global citizens and for other real-world purposes. The strategies listed below align with a growing body of research showing the instructional benefits of technology integration, including higher student engagement, greater real-world relevance and increased learning.

Technology will serve multiple purposes at the Charter School:

- Developing technological proficiencies
- Incorporating real world curricula
- Providing additional supports for students performing below grade level

TRANSITIONAL KINDERGARTEN

Equitas offers a transitional kindergarten (TK) program for any scholar whose fifth birthday falls between September 1st and December 1st, with curriculum aligned to the California Preschool Learning Foundations (Foundations) developed by the California Department of Education, (Senate Bill (SB) 858 (Chapter 32, Statutes of 2014)). Scholars in TK are integrated in Kindergarten classrooms. The TK program thus uses the same curriculum as the kindergarten program, but pacing and instructional delivery will be monitored through data-driven differentiation based on scholar needs, including slower pacing than the Kindergarten scholars and incorporation of Foundations curriculum goals. Teachers are trained by School Directors, to employ strong practices in early childhood development like language development, fine and gross motor development, and a foundational background in mathematics, science and social studies.

Equitas will comply with teacher credential requirements for TK classrooms, specifically, teachers assigned to a TK classroom after July 1, 2015, must have been issued at least one credential by the Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CTC), and shall, by August 1, 2020, have one of the following:

- At least 24 units in early childhood education, or childhood development, or both; or
- As determined by the LEA [Charter School] employing the teacher, professional experience in a classroom setting with preschool age children that is comparable to the 24 units of education described above
- A child development permit issued by the CTC.

Teachers must have one of the following credentials:

General:

Kindergarten-Primary (grades K-3)
Elementary (grades K-8)

Standard:

Early Childhood (grades preschool-3)
Elementary (grades K-9)

Ryan/Senate Bill (SB) 2042:

Multiple Subject (grades preschool, K-12 and adults)
Multiple Subject University Intern (grades preschool, K-12 and adults)
Multiple Subject District Intern (grades K-8)
Specialist Instruction Credential in Early Childhood Education

A Multiple Subject General Education Limited Assignment Permit (GELAP), Multiple Subject Short-Term Staff Permit (STSP) or Multiple Subject Provisional Internship Permit (PIP) authorizes the same service as a Multiple Subject Teaching Credential.

ACADEMIC CALENDAR AND SCHEDULES

The school calendar shares nearly all vacations and holidays with the Los Angeles Unified School District (except for Winter Break) and includes 180 days of school instruction, though we start after Labor Day. The school begins at 7:30 am and ends at 3:30 pm. The design of the academic year supports the mission of the school. To begin planning for the year, teachers report in August for professional development. In total, we provide 24 paid professional development days for new teachers, and 19 paid professional days for returning teacher. PD days occur before, during, and after the school year to ensure our teachers receive training and development necessary to create the excellent instructional practice on which our success depends. In addition, our year is divided into three trimesters. Report cards will be sent out at the conclusion of each trimester, to ensure effective communication regarding each scholar's progress. See sample school calendar for more details. The instructional days are listed each month with a total of 180 days.

The morning begins with Bright Work folders that will be used consistently in each classroom as scholars enter the classroom each morning, containing practice exercises that support remediation or acceleration of learning, based on individual scholar needs and have an instructional component.

Bright work also includes Do Nows and reviews whole group instruction of standards that need remediation or acceleration.

English Language instruction includes three hours or 160 instructional minutes daily. The Core Teaching includes 40 minutes of alternating Social Studies and Science instruction. In addition, scholars attend a 40-minute Enrichment class taught by an enrichment teacher, which includes alternating classes of movement, yoga, art, foreign language, drama, and/or music. There is a 30-minute duty-free lunch break for teachers.

Because we believe this daily reinforcement of skills and content taught during the school day is critical to scholars’ academic growth, we have structured supports within the day to aid its completion. For example, if scholars do not complete homework they miss “choice time” at the end of the day. “Choice time” provides scholars opportunities to choose center learning opportunities (i.e., alphabet learning, manipulatives, poetry, writing, puzzles, computer, art, etc.).

Beyond providing a longer school day, Choice Time is provided for scholars who do not adequately complete daily assignments and voluntarily for scholars who would like a quiet space to complete their work or need tutoring support and as a daily block for RTI (response to intervention). Scholars with Special Education and English Learning Needs receive those services inclusive to the school-day, and tiered supports during RTI or as scheduled pull-out supports.

On Friday, the schedule is shortened for teacher professional development. The Friday Early Dismissal schedule, which releases scholars at 1:45 pm, is provided below.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

TEACHER RECRUITMENT PROGRAM

In order to deliver on our rigorous academic program, Equitas recruits and selects outstanding educators with passion, subject mastery, extensive experience with urban youth, and the commitment to do whatever is necessary to ensure the uncompromising academic performance of our scholars. Equitas has existing partnerships with Teach For America, Building Excellent Schools, and Schools of Education (USC, UCLA, Cal State University System, Stanford University, Loyola Marymount, etc) as sources of teacher recruitment. In addition to outreach efforts, teacher retention is essential and best practices are drawn from our existing partnerships with charter schools (such as those founded by other BES Fellows) with proven success in attracting and supporting the best educators.

Equitas attracts applications from exceptional teachers who reflect the background and experience of its scholars and have the subject mastery and teaching skill to achieve outstanding academic outcomes. Led by Equitas' Vice President of Talent and Strategy, the Charter School implements a comprehensive hiring process to select teachers ready to commit to the demands of educating all scholars at the highest level without excuse.

Teachers are closely supervised through frequent observation and assessment in the areas of content delivery, effective classroom management, and appropriate use of scholar achievement data to individualize or modify instruction. Teachers are regarded as respected professionals. Teachers benefit from planning periods (held during enrichment blocks) to ensure ongoing collaboration. Teachers plan to link instruction to common core and use scholar achievement data to constantly adapt curriculum. Teachers who teach the same scholars meet together to review each scholar's academic progress individually and collaborate with parents to provide scholars with the most appropriate, rigorous, and data-driven individualized attention during our regular Friday professional development.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Professional Development is initiated based on the following:

- Findings from scholar data, based on scholar needs and school culture
- Feedback and request made from our faculty (teachers)^[SEP]
- Grade level PD - Observations from our Leadership Team on the use of effective research-based pedagogy
- School Director PD – focuses on what the school needs
- Targeted PD – What are the trends and goals?

School wide goals are developed in the summer with a scope and sequence in collaboration with other Equitas schools. Equitas sets the following 3 types of goals:

1. Culture - what are indicators that support a strong scholar culture of scholar engagement?
2. Leadership -open to feedback, trying new methods, professional, demonstrate leadership
3. Instructional Goal – set by each teacher to class wide and subgroup proficiencies

These three types of goals are revisited during every coaching session or meeting. Teachers who are new to the profession meet with their Instructional Coach (a more experienced teacher or administrator) on a weekly basis; while experienced teachers meet biweekly or more often as needed.

With the implementation of the Common Core State Standards, our academic leadership team has focused on implementing a 'workshop model' throughout every classroom across all Equitas schools, informed through the Achievement First Open Source curriculum and the Lucy Calkins model for teaching literacy skills (reading and writing). Calkins has written over 10 books on strategies for teaching reading and writing, and is a Professor of Curriculum and Teaching and the Founding Director of the Teachers College Reading and Writing Project, at Columbia University.

Network staff have received extensive training on Calkins model, and collaborate with our teachers to ensure vertical alignment across all Equitas campuses (TK-8), with specifically designed templates through an in-house professional development program.

Equitas provides all teachers with three weeks (120 hours) of Summer Professional Development for returning teachers and four weeks (160 hours) for new teachers, in addition to 9 non-instructional days throughout the school year (1 day per month). Teachers also participate in weekly professional development each Friday afternoon with early dismissal. Prior to each professional development meeting, teachers have data conversations based on weekly data with grade level colleagues. Professional Development needs are identified through observations and staff surveys. Our teachers also are provided sufficient planning time daily to meet with their Instructional Coach (a more experienced teacher or administrator).

Professional development training includes the following:

- Common Core Standards
- Health and Safety policies and procedures (including mandated trainings re: Child Abuse, etc.)
- Administrative policies and procedures (attendance reporting, expense requests, etc.)
- Research-based Instructional Strategies: Inquiry, academic discourse, differentiation, use of technology to enhance, engage scholar learning, increasing scholar talk, English Learner Strategies
- Data Driven Instruction
- Doug Lemov's Teach Like a Champion for Classroom Management Skills
- Building a College Going Culture
- Achievement First Curriculum and Content Training
- Unit Unpacking
- Intellectual Preparation Protocol
- Paul Tough's Whatever It Takes (based on Harlem Children Zone) to reinforce core values
- Carol Dweck's Growth Mindset
- Fountas & Pinnell Reading Assessments
- Whetstone Education – teacher coaching model
- Workshops through Building Excellent Schools
- Workshops from Uncommon Schools

All new to Equitas Academy engage in book study to read Doug Lemov's Teach Like a Champion, a 2-part book where the first part focuses on effective pedagogical strategies and part 2 focuses on Literacy Skills, including:

- Setting High Academic Expectations
- Planning that Ensures Academic Achievement
- Structuring & Delivering Your Lessons
- Engaging Scholars in Your Lessons
- Creating a Strong Classroom Culture
- Setting & Maintaining High Behavioral Expectations

- Building Character & Trust
- Improving Your Pacing
- Challenging Scholars to Think Critically
- How All Teachers Can (and Must) be Reading Teachers
- The Fundamentals: Teaching Decoding, Vocabulary Development & Fluency
- Comprehension: Teaching Scholars to Understand What they Read

During non-instructional professional development days, our teachers collaboratively review scholar data, samples of scholar work, learn about effective pedagogical strategies, plan the curriculum, conduct parent conferences, attend educational conferences and trainings, as part of our partnership with Achievement First and Building Excellent Schools. We solicit teacher feedback when reflection upon and developing Professional Development schedules that we are constantly asking ourselves: Are we learning? Are we growing? What best practices can we learn from these schools?

Equitas also has purchased for all of its schools Whetstone Education, an instructional online platform to support efficient and collaborative teacher development, tailored to meet the needs of our teachers and coaches. Whetstone provides an observation framework for teacher evaluations with rubrics that can be accessed with a tablet or laptop. It serves as an additional teacher coach with tools to set, track and drive development against a personalized growth plan developed by each teacher. For Instructional coaches, Whetstone provides a flexible tool to support, streamline and enhance their approach to coaching and collaboration, with a walk sheet to organize the most actionable teacher coaching information. For administrators, it serves as a one-stop shop to view both the organization as a whole, or disaggregate specific-teacher performance against a set of various criteria; view group or individual performance, set organization-wide areas to focus on; and organizes a comprehensive data set specific to what is actionable for administrators, instructional coaches and teacher with illustrative graphs for visual understanding.

Equitas uses the Danielson’s Framework as its evaluation rubric that focuses on: Planning and Curriculum; Implementation and Instructional Delivery; Scholar Learning; Behavior Management; Professionalism; Interpersonal Skills; and Professional Development. All coaching sessions and observations are documented for both parties to ensure clarity and transparency. Teachers receive weekly feedback and coaching sessions from their Instructional Coach.

EQUITAS’ PLAN TO MEET THE NEEDS OF SPECIFIC STUDENTS

In order for our scholars to meet the high expectations of preparedness for entrance into college preparatory, prestigious, top performing and competitive schools, there must be supportive services in place throughout the Charter School. Content mastery is crucial to academic success; therefore intentional supports are organized to ensure all scholars meet academic expectations. Scholar supports are designed to meet individual scholars’ needs and in addition specifically address the needs of English Learners (ELs), socio-economically disadvantaged scholars, high achieving scholars, scholars achieving below grade level, and special education scholars. Scholar supports are also designed as a means for prevention, intervention, and acceleration of learning.

The teaching methodologies as well as components of our instructional program outlined have all been shown to be highly successful with our target scholar population. As a charter school, we have the ability to use innovative ways to meet scholars' academic needs., as outlined in the key elements mentioned below. English language acquisition, the development of a college preparatory focus, more time to learn, and daily scholar supports are all key to our scholars' success in the earliest grades.

Extending the learning day to 3:30pm helps advance the learning of all scholars, including scholars who need academic supports or opportunities for accelerated learning. For example, scholars who need additional literacy development get specific time during the extended day for support as longer periods of time are devoted to core subjects in our longer bell schedule. For high-achieving scholars, acceleration can also occur during this time.

Within the Equitas educational model in place at all of our schools, scholars are further supported through the following key elements:

Differentiated Instruction and Flexible Ability Reading Groups

As part of our literacy program, and to meet the needs of individual scholars, flexible ability reading groups allow focused instruction at the appropriate skill level. In order to differentiate instruction for scholars at different academic levels, classes present the same content but the instruction varies according to the ability levels of the group. All scholars are placed into a flexible ability reading group based on the baseline data generated from testing during the first few weeks of school. As scholars' reading ability develops, they are able to transfer to different ability level reading groups throughout the year in the same class but different groupings.

Highly-Structured Learning Environment

Effective learning cannot occur in an atmosphere of chaos and disorder. Creating a structured environment allows teachers to focus on teaching and allows scholars to learn. This is essential to the delivery of the school mission. Expectations are outlined in the scholar Code of Conduct which are presented to families during Orientation.

Common School-Wide Procedures

Specific behaviors are taught through common school-wide procedures which infuse our daily rituals and routines. The school's Code of Conduct is clear and detailed and includes both positive and negative consequences for behavioral choices. Scholars who exemplify school values and positive behavioral choices earn rewards such as the opportunity to go on extra field trips while scholars who violate the Code lose privileges such as Choice Time (where scholars self-select from various educational games and activities the teacher has placed out, typically at the end of the week as a class reward for good behavior and hard work), field trips, and other fun activities. Families are notified of their child's behavior on a daily basis and on a weekly basis (or more frequently as needed), so that parents can be involved in helping scholars to reach all academic and behavioral expectations. Significant and repeated violations of the Code of Conduct result in families being called into school to create a solution and, if sufficiently disruptive can eventually result in more serious disciplinary action. By focusing seriously and in developmentally appropriate ways on rules and behavioral standards, an environment conducive to effective learning is maintained.

Emphasis on our daily, weekly, and annual rituals, in addition to uniformity in practice across classrooms allows scholars to understand and live up to school expectations. We provide professional development time before school begins to ensure all teachers use similar behavioral systems (i.e., school wide systems for distribution of papers, materials, behavioral systems, and homework distribution/collection).

Individual Work Folders

As scholars enter in the morning, they have morning work that contains academic assignments to practice learning. The morning work includes practice for scholars which can be remediation or acceleration depending on the needs of the scholars.

Homework Systems

Homework is a review of instruction and helps scholars' master skills and content learning. This helps scholars develop study skills and habits necessary for academic success. Homework, including nightly reading, ranges from 30-60 minutes each night. Parents are notified and coached regarding the importance of daily homework completion if scholars do not complete their homework.

Tutoring

Tutoring is a key component of the Equitas model. Tutoring takes place during and after school. During enrichment/choice time in the school day and after school time, scholars will be able to access additional tutoring with teachers. Scholars who demonstrate weakness in a core content area will be recommended to attend tutoring for a six-week period (i.e. "Academic Warriors") during the school day, until those scholars demonstrate on an interim assessment that they are now successfully mastering the class material. During the six-week tutoring sessions, teachers will review the content from the previous six weeks. At the end of the six- week tutoring session, scholars will be re-tested. If a scholar again scores 70 or below, he/she will attend tutoring for an additional six weeks.

Parent Communication

Communication is integral to parent participation and scholar success. We will inform parents of scholar progress through daily, weekly and monthly systems in the families' home language. These systems include immediate phone calls, regular correspondence, trimester report cards and meetings, and three formal parent-teacher conferences. Weekly homework syllabi, behavior and reading logs, and quarterly newsletters will keep parents informed about their child's progress at school. Parents can also access teachers through voicemail and email to get immediate daily concerns addressed. All communications will be accessible to families who speak a language other than English. Equitas Academy will utilize technologies such as Parent Square -a voicemail system able to call parents to notify them their scholar is absent, communicate the homework and make announcements to entire community if needed.

Parents will be informed of their child's academic and behavioral progress at regular intervals. The assessment system is set up as three trimesters with progress reports and benchmark assessments every six weeks. Parents will receive progress reports to inform them of their child's grades, academic strengths and weaknesses and any concerns about promotion to the next grade. Also, a weekly syllabus will inform parents about key learning, homework, and standards to be met that week. Parents will also sign homework and quizzes to acknowledge receipt of information. Homework and quizzes are considered incomplete without parent signature. We address this proactively at the onset at the initial parent orientation. Parents also receive a written communication on the scholars' weekly report notifying them of any missing signature. Teachers also follow up directly by making a phone call to the parents for the signature. In our eight years of operations, we have never had a parent refuse to sign homework, but if that occurred, we would acknowledge the parent choice to not sign homework.

Scholars at Equitas are held to rigorous standards and expected and supported to meet grade level standards mastery. Scholars at risk for retention will be identified in conjunction with the scholar, his/her family, teacher, and school site personnel. If scholars are unable to meet grade level standards as documented by grades, assessments, or comprehensive exams, supports will be put into place to assist scholars to meet grade level standards.

Scholar Supports: Prevention, Intervention and Acceleration

In addition to the highly effective structures offered in the Equitas model to support and challenge scholars, additional strategies will target scholars who may have additional needs—scholars performing far below or above grade level, scholars with low socioeconomic status, English Language Learners, Special Education scholars and scholars in Foster Care or experiencing Homelessness.

School-wide structures are the first step in meeting the needs of scholars performing below or above grade level, but additional supports will be introduced for any scholar who:

- is performing more than one level below or more than one level above his/her actual grade level
- is not on track to make at least one grade level of growth in reading, writing, and math
- does meet the two criteria above but has persistent challenges with the school's academic or behavioral expectations

A Scholar Success Team (SST) is the process by which scholars are identified for additional supports and individualized plans are created for each scholar based on their educational needs. The SST process includes identifying additional instructional supports, a timeline for implementation, goals for the scholar, and means for assessment. All SST plans will be communicated with parents, scholars, teacher(s) and the School Director as all parties attend the SST.

The SST is a systematic, individual, solution-oriented approach to assist scholars with factors that are interfering with academic success. The SST clarifies problems and concerns, develops strategies and organizes resources, provides a system for school accountability, and serves to assist and counsel the parent, teacher and scholar. All scholars can benefit from an SST, including but not limited to those scholars achieving below or above grade level, English Language Learners, scholars with special educational needs, and scholars who have experienced issues that might hinder their academic success at school.

Identification

Anyone who has a concern for a scholar can refer that scholar for an SST for consideration. Scholars are referred to an SST by teachers, parents, counselors, doctors, administration, social workers and law enforcement representatives. The meeting typically includes the teacher, School Director, parents, and scholars, if the scholar is in 1st Grade or above. The meeting is designed to bring out the best in the scholar involved and define a specific intervention plan that will be implemented.

SST Form

The typical SST timeline is twelve weeks of intervention. At the six-week mark, the SST checks in to assess progress. Scholar information, such as scholar strengths, parental/teacher concerns, assessment and evaluation results and any other information pertinent to service needs and provisions are recorded on the SST. A description of the individualized instructional program which will meet the needs of the scholar, including specific strategies that will be used with the scholar are documented. The current performance level is documented using assessments and/or other measurable data. Goals are articulated with a method of measurement. At least an 80% mastery rate is required on each objective for the goal to be met. Goals for high achieving scholars would include additional work/projects the teacher would prepare to expose and challenge the scholar. For instance, a goal for a high achieving scholar might be to increase performance on national normed assessment for growth at 150% above normed growth. A projected completion timeline for each goal is articulated with an objective, evaluation criteria and projected completion date.

SST Meeting

The SST meetings include the following steps:

- 1) Team members introduce themselves and their roles, the lead is designated
- 2) Purpose and process of the meeting are stated
- 3) Timekeeper is appointed
- 4) Strengths are identified
- 5) Concerns are discussed, clarified and listed
- 6) Pertinent information and modifications are listed
- 7) Concerns are synthesized with one or two chosen for focus
- 8) Strategies to deal with are chosen; concerns are brainstormed
- 9) Team chooses best strategies to carry into actions
- 10) Individuals make commitments to actions
- 11) Person responsible and timelines for actions are recorded
- 12) Follow-up date is set

ENGLISH LEARNERS

Equitas has structured its curriculum and instructional program to meet the needs of a significant EL population with respect to language development. EL scholars respond well to a plan of instruction in which each aspect of the language builds on another, with plenty of opportunities for practice. The goal is for EL scholars to gain fluency in English as quickly as possible in a non-threatening setting. Our EL program addresses the process for scholar identification, curriculum, assessments, reporting, and redesignation as well as professional development and teacher qualifications for working with our EL scholars.

Supporting our EL scholars, almost all of whom are Spanish speaking, requires that we take an approach that ensures the quickest acquisition of English. It also requires that we respect the culture and home language of our scholars. In order to reach the goal of strong English fluency and respect for the mother language of our native speakers, we provide a developmentally appropriate and highly structured approach to teaching English in our core academic classes. Equitas helps scholars identify that their bilingual capacity is an asset, an admirable and necessary skill. Equitas teachers and leadership communicate to parents in Spanish as needed—but use English instruction for the content areas in the classroom.

Based on research, we believe that the best approach to provide a comprehensive designated and integrated ELD instructional program for every EL scholar to meet the linguistic and academic goals at their grade level is through an inclusive Structured English immersion (SEI) program. In an inclusive SEI program, EL scholars are fully included with their English-speaking peers. The program provides the extra support scholars need, while immersing them in the English language. The results from SEI have proven most successful in the elementary and middle school grades. In large-scale studies in California, Arizona, and Massachusetts, scholars have “consistently scored higher than those enrolled in traditional bilingual programs.”⁴¹

Within our SEI program, identified EL scholars like all of our scholars, will be provided tiered academic supports. Our EL scholars are taught by teachers who have or are pursuing a Cross-cultural, Language and Academic Development (CLAD) Certificate or a Bilingual, Cross-cultural, Language and Academic Development (BCLAD) Certificate. Teachers will have intimate knowledge of their scholars’ varying abilities through formal test data, regular communication among teachers, and informal weekly assessments. Our teachers will work closely with one another across all content areas to ensure the needs of EL scholars are met. ELD content is taught in classrooms.

Both integrated and designated ELD take place each day during our ELA block and other core learning, and through the additional tutoring sessions during RTI time in the bell schedule. The program(s)/resources are used in both the core curriculum and ELD. These program(s)/resources were selected and meet the needs of ELs as evidences in the Doing What Works webpage established by the Federal Department of Education lists five specific strategies that have been proven to be highly effective for supporting EL scholars, and we are confident that our school incorporates these strategies during language arts, math, science, and social studies instruction:

1. Screen and monitor progress

⁴¹ Arizona Department of Education, July 2004, “The Effects of Bilingual Education Programs and Structured English Immersion Programs on Student Achievement: A Large –Scale Comparison” found at <http://eps.asu.edu/epru/articles/EPRU-0408-66-OWI.pdf> accessed on 11/6/08.

The federal recommendation is that an effective program for ELs includes well- developed assessments for identifying scholar needs. This corresponds with Equitas’ focus on data-driven instruction. We assess our scholars’ progress several times per week using Achievement First and teacher-created assessments and use the results of the assessments to drive overall instruction as well as identify scholars in need of individual intervention. The School Director oversees this process while working closely with teaching staff.

2. Provide reading interventions

Recognizing that ELs are often at risk for reading problems, the strongest programs respond quickly to the results of formative assessments by offering small group reading intervention for struggling readers that augments the core- reading program. As outlined previously, a key element to Equitas’ educational program is regular small-group tutoring for scholars who are struggling. The Department of Education recommends that the intervention “utilize fast-paced, engaging instruction.” This aligns with our philosophy that instruction should be delivered at a brisk and deliberate pace.

3. Teach vocabulary

One of the most important components in language acquisition is vocabulary development. In the most effective schools, scholars are taught vocabulary through formal instruction and also learn words through use in language rich settings in and out of the classroom. Research⁴² shows that effective vocabulary instruction:

- Teaches vocabulary in context.
- Gives scholars tools to expand work knowledge independently.
- Reinforces word learning with repeated exposures over time.
- Stimulate scholars’ awareness and interest in words.
- Encourage scholars to read widely.

4. Develop academic English

For ELs to have academic success, it is essential that they develop cognitive academic language proficiency (CALP), and not simply the basic interpersonal communication skills (BICS) of social language. CALP includes not only the content area vocabulary specific to academic subjects, but also the sophisticated use of language necessary to carry out higher-order academic tasks such as comparing, synthesizing, and inferring. At Equitas Academy, vocabulary development will be part of all subjects—not only English Language Arts—and will include explicit scaffolding of higher-order academic tasks. Although language acquisition experts such as Jim Cummins⁴³ predict that it could take ELs five years or longer to become truly proficient in CALP⁴⁴, we expect that the extended school day and training our teachers on the use of academic English will accelerate this process through increased daily exposure to academic English.

5. Schedule peer learning

Scholars improve their mastery of language through use. The Department of Education’s recommendation is that a minimum of 90 minutes a week should be dedicated to activities that allow scholars to work together to provide practice and extension of language skills.

We will implement the practice of “turn and chat” in which the class is given a question or prompt and instructed to discuss the topic with a partner. Although these interactions are brief, lasting from a few seconds to several minutes, when used frequently throughout the day, there is a significant cumulative increase in authentic language practice.

Instruction and Reclassification of ELs

As described above, EL scholars will have a tutorial course and will be monitored closely to gauge the progression of language acquisition skills. In accordance with the California English Language Development Standards, scholars will be assessed and monitored on the following domains: listening, speaking, reading, and writing. ELs will be reclassified based on ELPAC Assessments, SBAC/ELA scores and teacher judgment. The teacher assessment will be based on a culmination of evidence, indicating mastery of a given ELD level, which may include classroom-based informal and formal assessments, as well as interim and trimester exams, given over a school year.

Scholar Identification

Equitas will adhere to all applicable state and federal laws and regulations with regard to serving EL scholars. The staff of Equitas will adhere to the following plan with EL scholars:

- Families will complete a home-language survey upon enrollment in the school.
- Scholars whose primary language is not English and are entering a California school for the first time will be assessed over the summer and/or within the first 30 days of school using the Initial English Language Proficiency Assessment for California (ELPAC). We will notify all parents of the ELPAC results within 30 days of enrolling. The ELPAC will be used to fulfill the requirements for initial and annual English proficiency testing.
- As with all incoming scholars, additional assessments will be administered to determine the specific language learning needs of the scholar (i.e., phonemic awareness, phonics, fluency, vocabulary) in order to create a plan to best meet the scholar’s needs during both core classes and additional instructional times.
- EL scholars will be placed in mainstream classes for core academics and will receive additional English Language instruction as necessary, using the English-Language

Development Standards for California Public Schools as a guide. Based on assessment results, the School Director will work with teachers to create a plan to meet the additional instructional needs of each scholar identified as an English Learner. This instruction may occur during specially-designed guided reading classes and/or RTI decoding and fluency groups and may also occur as specialized pull-out instruction during other classes during the day, as appropriate.

- EL scholars will be re-evaluated each spring until re-designated as English Language proficient. We will notify parents of the results within 30 days of receiving the Summative ELPAC results or within two weeks of the start of the next school year if the results are received after our last day of instruction.
- Scholars who have been identified as EL will be reclassified to fluent English proficient (RFEP) according to the following guidelines, based on the California Department of Education’s redesignation criteria:

Reclassification Criteria
Annual ELPAC Scores Overall performance level of 3 or 4 in all skill areas: listening, speaking, reading, and writing
CAASPP Results (3rd-4th Grade) CAASPP results in ELA at Standard Nearly Met, Standard Met, or Standard Exceeded
Grades (K-2nd Grade) Marks of 3s and 4s in English Language Arts on report card
Teacher Recommendation Teacher judges the student sufficiently proficient in English to participate effectively in a curriculum designed for pupils of the same age whose native language is English through at least two formative or summative assessments.
Parent Opinion and Consultation Parents and teachers meet to discuss in a parent/teacher conference.

Scholars who are reclassified to RFEP will continue to be monitored for four years after their reclassification. During this monitoring period, ELPAC testing will not be required. Teachers will meet weekly for professional development, with many of the professional development topics helping teachers to meet the needs of scholars learning English.

Educational Program for English Language Acquisition

The Equitas model seeks to create a school where all scholars achieve academic success, including English Learners.

In accordance with CA ELD Standards adopted in 2012 and 2014 ELA/ELD Frameworks, our instructional staff implement both integrated and designated ELD throughout each EL scholar's school day. Achievement First curriculum is the basis for instruction, supplemented with teacher-created materials. Based on strategies proven effective at high-performing schools with similar scholar populations, the supports Equitas offers include:

- Effective Classroom Management and Effective Teaching Techniques

Teachers are experienced professionals, dedicated to minimizing scholar misbehavior and maximizing each scholar's involvement in class. Scholars are engaged in a meaningful way 100% of the time, whether by working independently or in a group, participating in a class discussion, or actively listening to a class lecture. Teachers provide constant opportunities for scholars to interact with the material and use frequent checks for understanding to ensure that no scholars fail to master the content. It is expected that scholars are actively involved, from listening attentively to a speaker, to taking notes, to using work time efficiently from the start to end of class.

- Differentiated Instruction

While our goal is mastery of the state common core content standards for all children in every subject, we recognize that not all children learn in exactly the same way and it is our responsibility to teach so that all children learn. The use of differentiated instructional strategies allows teachers to efficiently and effectively use class time to meet the varied learning styles and needs of scholars within a single class period.⁴⁵

Teachers use assessment data, classroom observation, interest inventories, learning style surveys, and other tools to identify scholar's unique needs, strengths, and weaknesses. They meet the widespread learning needs of their scholars using such differentiation strategies⁴⁶ as:

- tiered activities
- flexible ability groups
- leveled readings
- choice of tasks or topics
- learning centers
- problem-based learning
- varied time allotments or staggered due dates
- group or partner work

⁴⁵ Teachers will be trained to differentiate effectively during on-going professional development based on the research done by educational experts Carol Ann Tomlinson, author of The Differentiated Classroom: Responding to the Needs of All Learners, and Rick Wormeli, author of Fair Isn't Always Equal.

⁴⁶ These strategies are representative of the differentiation techniques teachers will use. Additional detail on these strategies may be found in The Differentiated Classroom: Meeting the Needs of All Learners by Carol Ann Tomlinson.

- learning logs or journals
- individualized practice sets While the exact process or product that evidences mastery may vary from scholar to scholar, differentiated instruction allows for all scholars to achieve success with the same content standards.

- Leveled Guided Reading Groups

Our daily guided reading groups are the only classes where scholars are grouped by ability, and provide natural facilitation for daily designated ELD instruction, grouping ELs together. These groupings allow the most struggling readers, including ELs, the opportunity to work in the smallest possible groups. Teachers focus on remediating specific skill deficits in order to effectively and efficiently accelerate the fluency, decoding, vocabulary, and comprehension skills of all scholars. These groups also allow the most advanced readers to continue to excel, as they may reach beyond grade-level content into material that best meets their advanced needs. Scholars’ reading achievement is assessed frequently, and scholars may be moved at six-week intervals in order to ensure they are being instructed with books at the appropriate level.

- Homework Support

Teachers assign 30-60 minutes of total homework each night, including reading and math. Homework assignments are always practice of skills the scholars have already learned but are continuing to work with in order to achieve true mastery. This means that scholars are prepared to complete each assignment successfully, using their knowledge from lessons, notes from class, and determination. Scholars are supported in their efforts to complete homework by having an agenda of daily assignments and an after-school Homework Center (for scholars who volunteer to attend or who are assigned by teachers to receive additional help).

- Frequent Assessment, Feedback, and Communication

We believe that honest, systematic, and frequent feedback about scholar progress is critical to scholar success. As a result of this belief, scholars receive daily homework grades and behavior scores. Teachers quickly score assessments and return these tools in a timely manner so that scholars can immediately correct and learn from their mistakes. Progress is communicated to families each week through completed work packets (including scored homework, class assignments, tests and quizzes) and through formal progress reports or report cards.

- Interventions

We believe in providing support structures to ensure all scholars meet mastery. We provide a support structure to facilitate scholar learning and include the following:

1. Fluency and Decoding Groups—These groups offer a systematic phonemic awareness and phonics instruction necessary to accelerate scholars to grade-level appropriate fluency and decoding skills. Scholars initially are assigned to these groups based on assessment data and frequently are assessed to monitor progress and make changes as appropriate.
2. RTI—In addition to the fluency and decoding groups, scholars needing additional assistance in other areas may be assigned to RTI sessions based on a specific need and remain in the group until the deficiency is remediated. These groups may focus on a variety of specific skills/standards and will vary throughout the year and may also be offered before, during, or after the school day.

3. Homework Center—This group provides scholars struggling to complete homework assignments with a quiet, supportive place to do their work. Scholars may be assigned to this group based on teacher recommendation, or scholars and their families may request attendance.

4. Enrichment—Additional enrichment opportunities are offered after school throughout the year and made available to scholars.

- Intense, Targeted Remediation and Acceleration

Teachers spend extra time working with the most struggling scholars, regardless of EL or Special Education status, in small group settings in order to best accelerate their learning and catch them up to grade-level standards of performance. While the curricula used for this targeted intervention will vary based on scholars’ needs, teachers use an even more frequent assessment regimen to ensure that scholar progress is monitored accurately and teaching methods are frequently adjusted to produce maximum results.

How The Program Will Meet The New State ELD Standards And Use The Results Of The ELPAC

Our programs to support English Learners are based on the 2012 California ELD Standards. Equitas will administer the English Language Proficiency Assessments for California (ELPAC) system as the state’s measure of ELP and for federal accountability under Title III of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA).

The English language proficiency of all currently enrolled English Learners is assessed in accordance with the ELPAC test contractor’s directions and California Education Code guidelines. Scholars with disabilities are permitted to take the test with the accommodations listed in the Education Code if they are specified in the scholar’s IEP or Section 504 plan. An alternate assessment for English language proficiency is administered to scholars who are unable to participate in the ELPAC test, according to the guidelines set forth in the scholar’s IEP. Equitas Academy notifies parents of the school’s responsibility to conduct ELPAC testing and will inform parents of ELPAC testing results within 30 calendar days following receipt of test results from the test contractor. Scholars are monitored in conjunction with the California English Language Development Standards levels described below:

Level	Description
4	English learners at this level have well developed oral (listening and speaking) and written (reading and writing) skills. They can use English to learn and communicate in meaningful ways that are appropriate to different tasks, purposes, and audiences in a variety of social and academic contexts. They may need occasional linguistic support to engage in familiar social and academic contexts; they may need light support to communicate on less familiar tasks and topics. This test performance level corresponds to the upper range of the “Bridging” proficiency level as described in the 2012 California English Language Development Standards, Kindergarten Through Grade 12 (CA ELD Standards).

3	English learners at this level have moderately developed oral (listening and speaking) and written (reading and writing) skills. They can sometimes use English to learn and communicate in meaningful ways in a range of topics and content areas. They need light-to-minimal linguistic support to engage in familiar social and academic contexts; they need moderate support to communicate on less familiar tasks and topics. This test performance level corresponds to the upper range of the “Expanding” proficiency level through the lower range of the “Bridging” proficiency level as described in the CA ELD Standards.
2	English learners at this level have somewhat developed oral (listening and speaking) and written (reading and writing) skills. They can use English to meet immediate communication needs but often are not able to use English to learn and communicate on topics and content areas. They need moderate-to-light linguistic support to engage in familiar social and academic contexts; they need substantial-to-moderate support to communicate on less familiar tasks and topics. This test performance level corresponds to the low- to mid-range of the “Expanding” proficiency level as described in the CA ELD Standards.
1	English learners at this level have minimally developed oral (listening and speaking) and written (reading and writing) English skills. They tend to rely on learned words and phrases to communicate meaning at a basic level. They need substantial-to-moderate linguistic support to communicate in familiar social and academic contexts; they need substantial linguistic support to communicate on less familiar tasks and topics. This test performance level corresponds to the “Emerging” proficiency level as described in the CA ELD Standards.

EL instruction will be grounded in the best available research on supporting ELs in an English Immersion environment and guided by the CA ELD Standards. Scholars will be expected to advance at least 1 ELD level, or the equivalent ELPAC Proficiency Level Descriptor, annually as measured by the ELPAC.

If scholars are not making sufficient academic progress as indicated through ELPAC data, we will modify our EL program as needed.

Equitas will ensure that teachers are qualified and supported to meet the needs of ELs. We will hire teachers that are CLAD/BLAD certified, and will place a priority on hiring teacher(s) that speak Spanish and English and can provide strong instruction within a structured immersion classroom. We also support teachers by providing professional development on structured immersion instruction, Specially Designed Academic Instruction in English (SDAIE) teaching strategies, language development, monitoring, and assessment of ELs. We commit to monthly professional development specifically addressing the instructional effectiveness, reviewing assessment data and revising curriculum to meet our EL scholars' needs.

Parents will be notified regarding their child's English Language Development along with ELPAC scores every progress report or every trimester and/or as often as needed.

Services And Supports For English Learners, Including Instructional Strategies And Intervention

Equitas will ensure all teachers receive comprehensive professional development in meeting the levels of rigor and depth required by the CA ELD Standards. Teacher professional development will focus developing reading and writing skills of EL scholars. Strategies to assist EL scholars in each classroom will include front loading content area vocabulary, using graphic organizers, pairing scholars with an English proficient scholar partner, and allowing for small group and 1:1 support with Instructional Aides.

Process For Annual Evaluation Of The School's English Learner Program

Teachers regularly evaluate scholar progress by reviewing EL data from formative and summative assessments. Teachers use the results of this data to change their instructional practices to better serve each scholar. The goal is for each scholar to progress by at least one level per year on the ELPAC until they are able to be reclassified. Every year, the teacher leaders, administration, and Board reviews the school's EL program, surveying teachers, scholars, and parents, analyzing reclassification rates, and examining assessment data to evaluate whether the Equitas Academy EL program is effectively meeting the needs of our scholars.

Process For Monitoring Progress Of English Learners And Reclassified (RFEP) Students

Equitas uses a systematic process to monitor ELs' progress toward English proficiency. Teachers assess scholar progress, both formally and informally, throughout the year. Assessment data is used to determine individual proficiency levels and to modify instruction to meet scholars' needs.

The school will also monitor the progress of scholars reclassified as RFEP four years following redesignation to ensure that they maintain English proficiency, will retest any scholars who appear to not maintain proficiency, and may reclassify these scholars as ELs once again if indicated by the school's criteria.

Process for monitoring progress and supports for Long Term English Learners (LTELs)

As an elementary school serving grades TK-4, Equitas Academy will not serve any LTELs. That said, we work diligently to identify any barriers to reclassification for scholars who are not meeting our growth expectations.

GIFTED AND TALENTED (GATE) STUDENTS AND STUDENTS ACHIEVING ABOVE GRADE LEVEL

While we anticipate that most scholars' needs will be met by the wide variety of school-wide supports already in place, Equitas is committed to working with scholars who are performing above grade level to help them achieve at expected levels. For scholars achieving above grade level or demonstrating aptitude in the arts, a meeting that includes parents, scholars, teachers, the School Director and/or Dean will be held to document goals and objectives to accelerate our gifted and high achieving scholars. The Charter School monitors the progress of scholars achieving above grade level through implementation of its data driven systems. Weekly, interim and yearly assessments are provided to all scholars and the data is further disaggregated by sub groups. The School Leader and teachers examine scholar's performance and supports to help advance this group. While high-achieving scholars are not identified as "Gifted and Talented," each scholar is afforded differentiated instruction or appropriate flexible ability group which accelerates the pace of instruction and individualizes the content the scholar receives. In addition, we customize a scholar's individual work folder with assignments and materials that accelerate their learning and address the goals and objectives. During, before and after school, and on Saturdays, an individual program is assembled for high achieving scholars and is not mandatory to accelerate their learning, as well as customizing homework to meet scholar's objectives, and communicating progress with scholars, teachers, and parents.

STUDENTS ACHIEVING BELOW GRADE LEVEL

While we anticipate that most scholars' needs will be met by the wide variety of school-wide supports already in place, Equitas implements numerous strategies to support low-achieving and/or at-risk scholars through the following:

- Implementation of the Lucy Calkins Reader and Writers Workshop Model – to support scholars with the rigors and expectations of the Common Core State Standards
- Co-Teaching model – where teachers are strategically placed in classrooms to work in small group or individualized instruction during literacy and math blocks
- Implementation of English Language Arts Block
- Implementation of Two Math Blocks
- Science Block
- Social Studies
- Music
- Physical Education
- Differentiation and scaffolding of instruction
- Homogenous reading groups
- Heterogeneous small group instruction
- Anchor charts

Low-achieving scholars are referred for an SST and defined as low-achieving, if they meet the following criteria:

- performing more than one level below reading level
- earning below 70% on core content interim assessments
- demonstrating little growth on interim and MAP assessments despite classroom interventions

The SST meeting process identifies strengths, areas of concern, goals, objectives, evaluation and timeline for addressing the needs of low-achieving scholars. Scholar progress is monitored and documented by the SST team every three weeks. The SST meeting is held before, during and/or after school depending on the needs and schedules of members of the SST team. Strategies include utilizing our comprehensive support services such as placing the scholar in differentiated instruction or appropriate flexible ability group, customizing scholar's individual work folder with assignments and materials particular to the goals and objectives in the SST, providing additional tutoring during, before and after school, pulling scholars in for additional tutoring during enrichment periods, customizing homework to meet scholar SST objectives, and communicating progress with scholars, teachers, and parents. After implementation of an SST and follow up, if the problem continues, revisions to the plan may be discussed, or if necessary, a referral for special education or Section 504 assessment might be deemed necessary by the SST.

SOCIOECONOMICALLY DISADVANTAGED/LOW INCOME STUDENTS

The design of Equitas is geared specifically towards the needs of socioeconomically disadvantaged scholars. We provide the structural, programmatic, and curricular elements that enable teachers to bridge their scholars' academic gaps and demonstrate strong academic achievement at all grade levels - regardless of socio-economic status. Instructional methods and educational components at Equitas are designed to address the needs of this population.

Socio-economically disadvantaged scholars are identified through their participation in the Free and Reduced Lunch program. The School Director is primarily responsible for maintaining and analyzing assessments records to ensure we are meeting the needs of this targeted population. For individual scholars needing additional support, we conduct an Individual Learning Plan following the procedures documented above. If we are not meeting the instructional needs of the group as a whole, as indicated by cohort analysis of assessment data, we will revise our curriculum as necessary to address our scholars' needs.

In addition to ensuring socioeconomically disadvantaged scholars are academically prepared, we also assist with families in need of additional uniforms or school supplies. We fundraise money to provide families that need assistance with purchasing uniforms or other school supplies like paper, pencils, backpacks, etc. In addition, we connect with local non-profit agencies for referrals for social services if needed by our families.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Please see District Required Language at the start of Element 1.

STUDENTS IN OTHER SUBGROUPS

As noted throughout this petition, the Equitas model is designed to offer an engaging, welcoming and compassionate instructional environment for diverse scholars, including those who may be in foster care, homeless, experiencing housing instability, experiencing personal/family crisis or have other special needs. These scholars are identified through teacher/family/staff referral. Equitas provides extensive support for these scholars in the context of our entire caring, supportive school community. As detailed above, our SST process and teacher training ensure that all scholars with special needs are promptly identified and provided the supports they need, including referrals for scholars and their families to outside support organizations such as The Salvation Army. While we do not expect that enrollment of homeless, foster care or other scholars will be “statistically significant” we track these scholars’ progress both individually and as a group(s) within our data system and analysis process, as we do all other scholars.

“A TYPICAL DAY”

A school visitor to Equitas Academy would have the benefit of following a typical scholar. Malena is a six-year old scholar who walks to school with her mother, wearing her favorite navy-blue jumper uniform. She arrives at the school door at 7:25am she says goodbye to her mother. She walks confidently up to the School’s Director,⁴⁷ makes eye contact and firmly shakes her hand, proudly saying, “Good morning, Mrs. Kochmann.” Mrs. Kochmann greets Malena by firmly shaking her hand. Mrs. Din asks Malena if she is ready to learn. Malena answers by telling Mrs. Din about her math learning goals for the day. Malena turns around, enters the building and heads to her classroom as she eats breakfast in the classroom and where she greets her teacher Ms. Garcia with a handshake and is in turn welcomed with a warm, "Good morning, scholar." As Malena walks to her desk at 7:30am which is the start of the instructional day, she begins to hum with the music playing, Here Comes the Sun, by the Beatles. She sits and gets herself situated by taking out her Bright Work folder and turns in her homework. As Ms. Garcia passes out breakfast, Malena completes her addition facts sheet because she is working toward completing a hundred math facts in one minute.

After working on math facts and eating her breakfast, Malena has time to read a few pages of her favorite book, Where the Wild Things Are, by Maurice Sendak. Reading this book inspires Malena to get ready for a productive day at school.

At 7:50am, morning meeting begins. The morning meeting is an instructional component of the day. Each day begins with an emphasis on the Equitas Academy core values. Malena’s teacher implements Morning Meetings to set the tone for a respectful learning environment. Morning Meetings motivates Malena to create an environment of trust, community, respect, and scholarship. The meeting format includes the teacher beginning with a class greeting using class chants or a group motto, group activities, and closing.⁴⁸ In addition, morning meetings provide opportunities for developing scholar vocabulary, oral language, read alouds and team building skills. While a short period of the day, it sets the tone for the learning community and extends beyond the meeting. On this morning, the teacher has the scholars sing Malena’s favorite morning chant:

Read, Baby, Read
(Stomps and Claps – 4X)
You’ve got to Read, Baby, Read

⁴⁷ All scholars shake a school leaders’ hand each morning before entering the school.

You've got to Read, Baby, Read.

The visitor notices the morning song really inspires Malena and she is excited and wanting to do her best. Ms. Garcia has been talking about friendship, and has been reading Amos and Boris by William Steig. Ms. Garcia reads to the class, dramatically and enthusiastically, emphasizing the sounds of vocabulary words like phosphorescent, luminous, and abounding. After reading, Ms. Garcia asks the scholars a few questions; "Amos and Boris each had a big problem. How were their problems alike? How were they different? What did each use to solve the other's problem?" The scholars complete a Venn diagram to help with the discussion of the story's problem.

After concluding their discussion of Amos and Boris, scholars line up for math meeting followed by math stories. Malena goes to Math Meeting with her regular teacher, Ms. Garcia, where she is the class leader for the day. She reports on the weather, helps count how many days she has been in school, counts by twos and fives, and writes the date on the classroom calendar. Malena helps the class solve the daily algorithm. Malena enjoys leading the math meeting block and is working hard in her math class.

While scholars line up, Ms. Garcia turns on music, which gives Malena a chance to dance and move her body while she gets in line. Malena goes to her literacy group in Mr. Marcos' classroom, where she enjoys seeing her friends from the other kindergarten classrooms that are in her reading group.

For Malena's first literacy group, she sits in a semi-circle with six chairs in each row. The teacher, Mr. Marcos begins the instruction by teaching the Reading Mastery: Direct Instruction group. Malena is watching Mr. Marcos point to a letter and she is repeating the sound the letter makes. She then blends the sounds together to read a word. Malena takes out her clip board from under her chair and completes her workbook pages. The reading group ends with a transition chant.

Direct Instruction Group Transition
(To the tune of Semisonic's "Closing Time")

*Reading Time,
Time to get knowledge,
And to be the best scholar I can.*

*Reading Time,
Time to get knowledge,
And make sure that I understand.*

The second literacy group begins as Malena enters Ms. Alvaro's room where she is teaching guided reading. Scholars are reading from a big book and Malena is listening for the rhyming words in the story. After the group works on rhyming, the scholars sequence the story. The timer goes off and music begins playing. This is the signal for scholars to get ready for their snack break.

After the snack break, Malena moves into her guided reading and TRD groups. She completes her time on the computers, with literacy activities and she smiles each time she gets an answer right. She then moves into her fourth and last literacy group—writing. Malena is an accomplished writer and enjoys publishing her work. The writing block begins with Ms. Gerz modeling the writing topic for the day and Malena brainstorming what she is going to write. Malena enjoys bringing home her published writing to her family which motivates her to get started on the topic for the day, describing her best friend.

Next, Malena goes with her class to physical education and lunch. She enjoys when she is able to have lunch with her teacher. She wrote out some questions for her teacher, so she can have an interesting conversation with everyone at her table. When Malena first began having lunch, she would just shout out things. She now understands how to be polite and is working toward becoming a great conversationalist.

After lunch and physical education, Malena moves on to close reading, where she pays attention to character actions and words in order to determine character feelings in A Tale of Three Robins. In writing, she writes multiple details about herself where she works on her personal narrative.

In social studies, the class is working on the California social studies content standard: scholars recognize national and state symbols and icons such as the national and state flags, the bald eagle, and the Statue of Liberty. Malena is excited she has learned the CA state symbols and is eager to share her knowledge with her family at the end of the day.

In her RTI block, she would work in a small group with her teacher based on her exit ticket from yesterday's close reading or math class.

In music class, Malena is happy to see Ms. Julia, the music teacher. They are working on learning new songs using their core values. Today, they are learning the justice song. The day ends with math and Malena is focused on meeting her goal of completing 100 math addition facts in one minute.

The visitor realizes that Malena has had a productive day and followed the rules—and that she has been fully engaged and excited by a demanding day of study. Malena ends the day at choice time by choosing the poetry center. She really enjoys the Mother Goose rhymes and wants to learn a new rhyme to teach her parents.

The end of the day comes and school is dismissed. Before scholars leave choice time, the class comes together to share compliments. Malena compliments her classmate Arturo for helping her with her math facts. The class joins in to give Arturo a Hip, Hip, Hooray cheer, where they put their hands on each hip and shout “Hip, Hip, Hooray.” Malena once again shakes Mrs. Din and Ms. Garcia’s hand and says good bye.

Pupil outcomes shall include outcomes that address increases in pupil academic achievement both schoolwide and for all groups of pupils served by the charter school, as that term is defined in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 47607. The pupil outcomes shall align with the state priorities, as described in subdivision (d) of Section 52060, that apply for the grade levels served, or the nature of the program operated, by the charter school.” (Ed. Code § 47605(b)(5)(B).)

“The method by which pupil progress in meeting those pupil outcomes is to be measured. To the extent practicable, the method for measuring pupil outcomes for state priorities shall be consistent with the way information is reported on a school accountability report card.” (Ed. Code § 47605(b)(5)(C).)

METHOD FOR MEASURING PUPIL PROGRESS TOWARD OUTCOMES: FORMATIVE ASSESSMENT

At all times, our goal is to ensure that every scholar meets or exceeds grade level standards in all subjects, as further detailed in the LCFF Table in Element 1. Equitas has developed and implemented a data- driven culture that includes administering, collecting, disaggregating and analyzing school wide assessments on an ongoing basis and discussing results during weekly professional development. Scholar achievement data is used to assess scholar progress; address whether a scholar requires additional academic intervention, small group instruction, or additional scaffolding and/or academic tutoring. Assessment data is also used to assess scholar mastery, adjustments to the master schedule, the efficacy of the delivery of instruction, whether to re-teach content or concepts, or whether the purchase of additional supplemental materials is necessary. With the current implementation of the Common Core State Standards, Equitas has shifted from using standards-based benchmark assessments to Common Core aligned benchmark assessments.

Measures of Academic Progress (MAP) are administered three times per year and serve as a nationally normed assessment.

The following chart illustrates the types of assessments administered by subject, grade level, and frequency.

DATA ANALYSIS AND REPORTING

Equitas understands the importance of data collection and analysis in measuring and improving scholar learning. We use both external and internal standards-based assessments to measure scholar performance, analyze data closely, and convert results into specific measurable action plans that support strong academic achievement for every scholar. All core components, language arts, mathematics, science, and social science along with English language development are assessed in a comprehensive and dynamic system.

This comprehensive approach to data analysis allows: teachers to know which standards need to be effectively re-taught or reinforced; school leaders to know the most appropriate professional development supports needed for teachers as a whole and teachers as individuals; and most importantly, the entire staff to develop and execute a data-driven action plan to ensure that every child learns. These action plans identify:

- Skills/concepts to be retaught to the entire class
- Skills/concepts to be retaught to small groups during class
- Skills/concepts to be retaught to individual scholars with one-on-one teacher instruction or with the assistance of a peer or volunteer tutor Scholars in need of intense remediation and/or tutoring
- Adjustments to existing small groups
- Weaknesses in the curriculum to be revised for subsequent years
- Support and professional development for the teacher to strengthen areas of instructional weakness

Action plans are revisited frequently in weekly professional development meetings, grade-level and content-area team meetings to ensure that scholars are making adequate progress toward mastery.

Equitas uses data analysis to inform and improve teaching and scholar learning. In order to ensure scholars meet statewide performance standards, the School Director oversees the collection and analysis of state data using Kickboard. Scholars are assessed at the beginning of the school year in ELA and math. Teacher analysis of Interim Assessments consist of three parts:

1. Teacher reflection on scholar performance expectations, teaching priorities, scholar strengths and weaknesses;
2. Detailed analysis of standards mastery through analysis of whole class mastery, small group, and individual mastery and analysis of errors and with instructional plan to address areas of concern; and
3. Details for six-week instructional plan for re-teaching.

Communication with Scholars and Families

Equitas involves scholars and their parents in the analysis of scholar work, scholar progress, areas of strength, and plans to address areas that need growth. After each round of interim assessments, teachers will share results with scholars and parents in progress reports and conference meetings. Teachers work with each scholar to set goals for the upcoming assessment.

Teachers also use interim assessment results to create and maintain records on each scholar that demonstrates progress toward mastery for each content standard. The standards-based assessments are shared with scholars and families after each trimester and reviewed with parents at each report card conference. All assessment works, Interim assessment results, weekly chapter and unit tests, and trimester exams are sent home for parents to review and sign.

State testing results also are sent to families and Equitas Academy hosts an annual parent meeting when schoolwide scores are published to share the school's progress toward school-wide goals and also explain individual score reports to scholars and their families. In addition, Equitas Academy annually will prepare the School Accountability Report Card (SARC) to provide the public with important information about our school's progress toward achieving its goals.

GRADING, PROGRESS REPORTING, AND PROMOTION/RETENTION

Grading Policy is based on demonstration of mastery of the California Common Core Standards. Grades will include scholar performance on in-class work, homework, assessments, and other components as applicable to each content area.

The table below indicates the letter grade, percentage, and rubric score that will be used to define a scholar's level of mastery of the State Content Standards. Scholars will be assessed using a rubric and/or will receive a letter grade.

Grading Policy of Equitas Academy

Grading Scale

- A = 70-100%
- B = 60-70%
- C = 50-60%
- F = 49% and below

There are school-wide standards for grading. Teachers are trained on the school's policy and work with the School Director to ensure that grades are calibrated and assigned in a fair and consistent manner that corresponds with scholar mastery of CCSS.

Despite various interventions and extra supports, if scholars are still far below grade level in math or ELA, another possible intervention will be retention. Parents are informed through SST meetings and in written reports of scholar progress and the possibility of retention by the end of the second trimester (March). Although parents will be informed and will be strong partners throughout the process, the final decision for retention rests with the Equitas Academy administration. Should the parent/guardian wish to appeal the student's retention the school requires a written appeal to be submitted to the School Director within five school days after notice of retention has been supplied to the parent/guardian. A meeting will be held at the school site level with the school director and teacher(s) involved within five school days of receipt of the written notice, escalating to the CEO if necessary with the final decision on the appeal made by the CEO or the CEO's designee. Note that the burden is on the parent as the appealing party to show why the promotion or retention decision should be overruled.

In developing partnership with parents, a key message of the school is to involve families in the academic success of their children. This relationship building is an extension of the work of increased scholar learning. Equitas Academy will find meaningful ways to engage teachers in building relationships with the families of each of their scholars.

Along with our strong committed Board, Equitas believes families play a key role in the education of their children. Equitas utilizes family involvement to forge parent partnerships with the school through the creation of the School Site Council (SSC), which is an advisory council that meets with the School Director. The SSC currently is composed of at least 9 members, selected by their peers, as follows:

- 3 Classroom teachers
- 1 Other school staff member
- 5 Parents or community members

The SSC is informed through key work streams based on the daily, weekly, and monthly needs of the school determined by school leadership, families, and scholars. The key work streams are strategic, dynamic and informed through data. For instance, if key stakeholders notice the art program is suffering because of a lack of funding, the SSC will implement a fundraising work stream to support the school. Other work streams can include areas such as community service, nutrition and field trips. The SSC participants receive leadership training on facilitation, and how to track data and gauge impact of decisions. The SSC is advisory in nature. Decision making authority ultimately remains with the lead staff and Board.

In accordance with the California Education Code, section 52176(b), Equitas Academy has an English Learner Advisory Committee (ELAC) as it has more than 21 EL scholars. All parents with scholars attending the school in which the ELAC is established are eligible and encouraged to participate in the ELAC. The School Director ensures that ELAC members receive appropriate training.

Each year, the School Director also engages scholars, parents, teachers and staff in formulating the school's annual LCAP updates and goal setting through focus groups, surveys and open meetings in which stakeholders are invited to participate in reviewing the school's annual progress and establishing goals – and allocating resources – for the coming years. The Charter School solicits feedback from parents, teachers and staff via annual surveys, meetings regarding the LCAP, SARC and other reports of progress, and a variety of web based applications like parent square and kickboard. The Charter School website is used to house all important documents (LCAP, SARC etc.) providing 24/7 access.

STUDENT HEALTH AND WELLNESS

At Equitas Academy we believe in teaching scholars healthy habits. We partner with Revolution Foods to provide healthy, balanced meals and snacks. There are no artificial colors, flavors, or sweeteners, high fructose corn syrup, artificial trans fats, or hydrogenated oils in these kid-friendly meals. We have a lunch and snack policy for scholars bringing their own food, and share our rationale with families at our parent orientation. We also provide them with suggestions and tips to help with meal planning.

Physical Education is an important component of our instructional program. We believe it is important for scholars to be active and to build healthy habits from a young age. Scholars participate in PE Monday-Thursday, and this program not only involves physical activity, but health instruction to teach scholars how to keep their hearts and minds healthy. Our Enrichment Program also involves movement-based activities, again reinforcing that there are many ways one can stay active, including dance and yoga.

Charter School has set forth below its initial plan for achieving and maintaining the LAUSD’s Racial and Ethnic Balance goal of a 70:30 or 60:40 ratio. (Ratio represents the percentage of Predominantly Hispanic Black Asian Other (PHBAO) compared to Other White (OW)). The written plan lists specific dates and locations of recruitment activities that Charter School will undertake in order to achieve the District’s Racial and Ethnic Balance goal. Charter School may request, at the time of, and as part of, conducting its lottery process, the provision of information necessary to apply specific admissions preferences set forth in this Charter.

Equitas is designed to meet these students’ needs.

LOTTERY PROCEDURES

The open enrollment timeline period commences October 1st of the preceding school year, with interested families notified to submit a Lottery Application form by March 1st. Equitas notifies the public of open enrollment by posting banners on all of its existing school facilities and updating its website. Public notice is posted at the Charter School site and on the website regarding the date and time of the public drawing once the lottery-submission deadline date has passed. Notice includes an explanation that parents/guardians do not need to be present at the lottery, but may attend if they choose to do so.

The lottery is conducted by a non-interested member of the staff who draws the pupil names and verifies lottery procedures are fairly executed. The lottery will be held at the Charter School site and is held at 5:00PM to ensure parent and interested parties are able to attend. The lottery is open to the public. Application Forms, the manual record of all lottery participants and their assigned lottery numbers, and other lottery-related documents will be physically filed on campus, and lottery results and waiting lists (determined in the order names are drawn in the lottery) are readily available in the school's main office for inspection upon request. school database and on his or her lottery application.

Within two weeks following the lottery, scholars who are offered spots are notified via email or text (depending on their choice selected on the lottery application) and are asked by the School Operations Manager or Office Coordinator to complete an Enrollment Packet within two weeks to secure their spot. School staff are available to assist families in completing this paperwork if needed. Scholars who are on the wait list are notified of their status via email or text (depending on their choice selected on the lottery application).

Those who apply after the lottery deadline are added to the end of the lottery waitlist in the order they are received. Openings that occur during the school year are filled according to the wait list order determined during the lottery drawing. When an offer occurs during the school year, families are contacted by the School Operations Manager in the order of the wait list and are given 48 hours to decide whether or not to verbally accept a space at the school. In the event that no such wait list exists where the space is available, the space will be made available on a first come, first served basis to the next interested family at the appropriate grade level.

The waitlist for the current school year remains active until the end of the school year and does not “roll over”; applicants must reapply for the lottery annually if the school is unable to offer them admission for the current year.

OUTCOME DATA

Charter School shall gather and maintain all data related to placement, tracking, and monitoring of student suspensions, expulsions, and reinstatements, and make such outcome data readily available to the District upon request.

REHABILITATION PLANS

Pupils who are expelled from Charter School shall be given a rehabilitation plan upon expulsion as developed by Charter School's governing board at the time of the expulsion order, which may include, but is not limited to, periodic review as well as assessment at the time of review for readmission. Terms of expulsion should be reasonable and fair with the weight of the expelling offense taken into consideration when determining the length of expulsion. Therefore, the rehabilitation plan should include a date not later than one (1) year from the date of expulsion when the pupil may apply to Charter School for readmission. Charter School shall inform parents in writing of its processes for reinstatement and applying for expungement of the expulsion record.

READMISSION

Charter School's governing board shall adopt rules establishing a procedure for the filing and processing of requests for readmission and the process for the required review of all expelled pupils for readmission. Upon completion of the readmission process, Charter School's governing board shall readmit the pupil, unless Charter School's governing board makes a finding that the pupil has not met the conditions of the rehabilitation plan or continues to pose a danger to campus safety. A description of the procedure shall be made available to the pupil and the pupil's parent or guardian at the time the expulsion order is entered and the decision of the governing board, including any related findings, must be provided to the pupil and the pupil's parent/guardian within a reasonable time.

REINSTATEMENT

Charter School's governing board shall adopt rules establishing a procedure for processing reinstatements, including the review of documents regarding the rehabilitation plan. Charter School is responsible for reinstating the student upon the conclusion of the expulsion period in a timely manner.

GUN-FREE SCHOOLS ACT

Charter School shall comply with the federal Gun-Free Schools Act.

DISCIPLINE FOUNDATION POLICY

Equitas Academy adheres to a positive behavior philosophy consistent with the District's discipline policy, with modeling and reinforcement of positive behavior and lifestyle choices. In order to ensure stakeholder "buy-in," the school-wide discipline policies are developed with considerable input from school-site parents, teachers and scholars regarding their opinions on how to create a safe and healthy school environment. Equitas designs each Charter School to focus on a positive school climate consistent with the School Climate Bill of Rights resolution. EQ uses restorative justice alternatives to suspensions to support scholars when behavioral missteps occur. This includes teacher conversations using Love and Logic, a method that promotes healthy teacher/student relationships and positive schoolwide discipline. We also try to redirect behavior to a more positive end. The EQ discipline policy is not discriminatory, arbitrary or capricious, and follows the general principles of due process. The policy may be adapted as needed in regard to the discipline of a scholar with special needs in full compliance and accordance of the provisions of prevailing state and federal laws and regulations.

Upon enrollment and at the beginning of each school year, EQ families each receive a copy of the Parent Handbook in their Enrollment Packets and are asked to review the Handbook and agree in writing to abide by the provisions of the Handbook, including the School's discipline policy. The Parent Handbook is reviewed and approved annually through the Governance Committee of the Board of Directors to comply with any regulatory requirements (including changes to the laws) and the terms of this Charter petition. In addition, school staff members review the discipline policy with new scholars and parents at the commencement of school each year.

Teachers are trained during professional development meetings (in the summer pre-opening three week sessions and in weekly "early release" professional development sessions) to use effective classroom management strategies to maximize instruction and minimize scholar misbehavior, and there are school-wide systems for assigning both positive and negative consequences. Positive consequences include extra recess or privileges such as lunch at the park with teachers and free dress days in which students are exempted from wearing their uniform; negative consequence include completing a reflection during a time out or loss of some recess time. Scholars who do not adhere to stated expectations for behavior and who violate the school's rules may expect consequences for their behavior. These skills are reinforced throughout the year during professional development days.

Per changes to EC 47605 by AB 1360 effective 1/1/18, no pupil shall be involuntarily removed permanently by the Charter School for any reason unless the parent or guardian of the pupil has been provided written notice of intent to remove the pupil no less than five schooldays before the effective date of the action.

Consequences may include, but are not limited to:

- Warning, verbal and/or written
- Individual conference with the teacher
- Loss of privileges
- Individual behavior contract
- Referral to the School Director or other school staff member
- Notices to parents by telephone or letter
- Parent conference, at school or during a home visit
- In-School Suspension
- Suspension
- Expulsion

Staff shall enforce disciplinary rules and procedures fairly and consistently among all scholars. Corporal punishment shall not be used as a disciplinary measure against any scholar. Corporal punishment includes the willful infliction of or willfully causing the infliction of physical pain on a scholar. For purposes of the discipline policy, corporal punishment does not include an employee's use of force that is reasonable and necessary to protect the employee, scholars, staff or other persons or to prevent damage to school property.

Suspended or expelled scholars shall be excluded from all school and school-related activities unless otherwise agreed during the period of suspension or expulsion. Any scholar who engages in repeated violations of the school's behavioral expectations, or a single severe infraction, will be requested to attend a meeting with the School Director or their designee and the scholar's parents. The School Director or their designee will prepare a specific, written agreement outlining future scholar conduct expectations, timelines, and consequences for failure to meet the expectations which may include, but are not limited to, suspension or expulsion. Equitas is exempt from state Education Code requirements and procedures related to scholar suspension and expulsion. Therefore, references in this charter to the Education Code are used as a guideline. A scholar may be suspended or expelled for any of the acts enumerated in Education Code § 48900, except for willful defiance or disruption of school activities, related to school activity or school attendance that occurs at any time including, but not limited to:

- While on school grounds
- While going to or leaving from school
- During lunch periods, whether on or off campus
- During, or traveling to or from, a school-sponsored activity

The Charter School is a productive place of learning. The discipline system is designed to create a culture of learning and the Code of Conduct is created to be preventative. Teachers use a range of lower-level consequences (non-verbal cues, conferencing with scholar, loss of privileges, etc.) before resorting to more serious consequences. However, we have clear policies governing suspension and expulsion. Certain offenses will result in in-school suspension while other more serious violations will result in out- of-school suspensions. Only the most egregious violations will be considered grounds for expulsion. A full list of grounds for mandatory and discretionary expulsion are included below. Suspended scholars will also be responsible for making up all missed work within specified timetable.

In case of severe or repeated violations, the School Director may recommend that a scholar be expelled. The School Director has the right to recommend expulsion of any scholar whom the School Director has cause to believe has engaged in conduct on school grounds or at a school-sponsored activity which endangers persons or property, or violates California Education Code § 48915. The School Director, Deans and Network personnel monitor scholar behavior data via the Illuminate data system.

IN-SCHOOL SUSPENSION

In-school suspensions are given as an alternative to out of school suspensions and are held in the School Director's office. Policies and procedures for in-school suspensions are the same as out-of-school suspensions, except that scholars are at school completing their assignments instead of off campus. During in-school suspensions, in order to stay on pace with their classmates, scholars are provided with all class assignments, books, materials, and a computer to complete all assignments and/or take any assessments. If the scholar has questions about the assignments, the teacher provides support when they check in with the scholar throughout the day, specifically during their prep time when they are able to spend an extended amount of time with the scholar. In addition, during the day of the suspension, the scholars' teachers address behaviors that may have contributed to the scholars' in-school suspension. In addition to completing assigned work, the scholar is required to complete a reflection addressing why the behavior occurred and what can be done in the future to ensure that the offense is not repeated. The grounds for in-school suspension will not exceed the grounds for out-of-school suspension; the determination to permit an in-school suspension as an alternative to out-of-school suspension is solely made by the School Director, and will take into consideration the safety and well-being of the other scholars, teachers and staff at the Charter School. As such, the following offenses are not eligible for in-school suspension

- Caused, attempted to cause, threatened to cause, or participated in an act of hate violence,
- Engaged in harassment, threats, or intimidation against a pupil or group of pupils or school district personnel,
- Made terrorist threats against school officials or school property, or both.

At the time of the in-school suspension, the School Director shall make a reasonable effort to contact the parent/guardian by telephone or in person to be followed up with a written notification. This notice will state the specific offense(s) committed by the scholar. In addition, the notice will contain the date and time the scholar may return to school, and information about the suspension appeals process. If the School Director wishes to ask the parent/guardian to confer regarding matters pertinent to the suspension, the notice shall note that the parents are required to respond to this request without delay.

GROUND FORS SUSPENSION AND EXPULSION

The School Director bears primary responsibility for overseeing all scholar discipline. The School Director has the authority to suspend scholars.

Non Discretionary Suspension/Expulsion: It is a federal mandate that a school expel, for a period of not less than one year (except on a case-by-case basis), any scholar who is determined to have brought a firearm to school.

In accordance with California Education Code § 48915, the following reasons shall constitute mandatory grounds for immediate suspension and recommended expulsion:

- possession, selling or furnishing of a firearm
- brandishing of a knife
- unlawfully selling a controlled substance
- possession of an explosive
- Sexual Assault/Sexual Battery

Any scholar who commits or attempts to commit a sexual assault or who commits a sexual battery must be recommended for expulsion, regardless of grade level. In some instances, sexual harassment, sexual battery or sexual assault may also constitute child abuse. Child abuse reporting procedures, sexual harassment policies and procedures, and disciplinary policies and procedures must be effected in a coordinated manner. If child abuse is suspected or alleged, a suspected child abuse must be reported immediately by first calling the local law enforcement agency that has the jurisdiction.

Discretionary Expulsion/Suspension: In addition to the foregoing mandatory suspension/expulsion infractions, scholars may be immediately suspended and recommended for expulsion upon a determination that the scholar has committed one of the acts listed below:

- Causing, attempting to cause or threatening to cause serious physical injury to another person, except in self-defense
- Hate violence (defined by Section 48900.3)
- Unlawfully possessed, used, or was under the influence of any controlled substance as defined in Health and Safety Code 11053-11058, alcoholic beverage, or intoxicant of any kind.
- Unlawfully possessed or unlawfully offered, arranged, or negotiated to sell any drug paraphernalia, as defined in Health and Safety Code 11014.5.
- Using tobacco or any products containing tobacco or nicotine products, including but not limited to cigars, cigarettes, miniature cigars, clove cigarettes, smokeless tobacco, snuff, chew packets, et al.
- Harassed, threatened or intimidated a scholar who is a complaining witness or witness in a school disciplinary proceeding for the purpose of preventing that scholar from being a witness and/or retaliating against that scholar for being a witness.
- Caused or attempted to cause damage to school property or private property, which includes but is not limited to, electronic files and databases.
- Stole or attempted to steal school property or private property, which includes but is not limited to, electronic files and databases.
- Committed an obscene act or engaged in habitual profanity or vulgarity.
- Knowingly received stolen school property or private property which includes but is not limited to, electronic files and databases.
- Engaged in, or attempted to engage in, hazing as defined in Education Code Section 32050.
- Aided or abetted the infliction or attempted infliction of physical injury to another person.
- Engaged in sexual harassment as defined in Education Code Section 48900.2.
- Engaged in harassment, threats, or intimidation directed against school district personnel or pupils as defined in Education Code Section 48900.4.
- Made terrorist threats against school officials, school property or both as defined in Section 48900.7.
- Engaged in an act of bullying, including, but not limited to, bullying committed by means of an electronic act, as defined in subdivisions (f) and (g) of Section 32261, directed specifically toward a pupil or school personnel.

PROCESS FOR SUSPENSION OR EXPULSION

To protect scholar rights, we have established fair and thorough procedures to ensure a comprehensive and consistent process for suspension and expulsion including clear guidelines for due process. As noted above, the School Director is authorized to suspend scholars.

Family Conference

Suspension shall be preceded by a conference conducted by the School Director with the scholar and his/her parent within two days. The purpose of the conference will be to inform the scholar and his/her parent/guardian of the reason for disciplinary action and any supporting evidence for that action. The scholar will have an opportunity to present evidence in his/her defense, and may waive the conference if they cannot or do not want to participate. There will be no penalties imposed if the scholar's parents are unable to attend.

The conference may be omitted if the School Director determines that an emergency situation exists. An "emergency situation" involves a clear and present danger to the lives, safety or health of scholars or school personnel. If the scholar is suspended without conference, the parent/guardian shall be notified of the suspension and a conference will be requested by the School Director of Equitas Academy as soon as possible.

Notice to Parents/Guardians

At the time of suspension, the School Director shall make a reasonable effort to contact the parent/guardian by telephone or in person to be followed up with a written notification. This notice will state the specific offense(s) committed by the scholar. In addition, the notice will contain the date and time the scholar may return to school, and information about the appeals process. If the School Director wishes to ask the parent/guardian to confer regarding matters pertinent to the suspension, the notice shall note that the parents are required to respond to this request without delay.

Length of Suspension

The length of the out of school and in school suspensions will be determined by the School Director based on the severity of the offense(s), as evidenced by witness statements, physical evidence, and other relevant factors. The length of suspension for scholars may not exceed a period of five consecutive days per incident unless a recommendation has been made by the School Director and agreed to by the scholar's parent/guardian. The total number of days for which a pupil may be suspended from Charter School shall not exceed 20 school days (10 for scholars with disabilities) in any school year, unless a pupil enrolls in or is transferred to another regular school, in which case the total number of schooldays for which the pupil may be suspended shall not exceed 30 days in any school year.

Meaningful Access To Education During Suspension

The School Director will collect and provide the scholar with classroom material and current assignments to be completed at home during the length of the suspension. Written notification listing all required assignments will be sent to the scholar's parents and all needed materials will be left in the front office. Scholars will take all tests missed upon their return to school.

Suspension Pending Outcome Of Expulsion Process

Scholars will be recommended for expulsion if the School Director finds that one of the reasons for expulsion has occurred and at least one of the following findings is substantiated:

- Other means of correction are not feasible or have repeatedly failed to bring about proper conduct.
- Due to the nature of the violation, the presence of the scholar causes a continuing danger to the physical safety of the scholar or others.

Scholars recommended for expulsion will be entitled to a hearing, to determine whether or not the scholar should be expelled. If requested, the hearing will be held within 30 calendar days from the date of the recommended expulsion, during which time the scholar is to remain suspended. Students will be provided with an independent study packet while waiting for the hearing.

Expulsion Procedures

The expulsion hearing will be conducted by an Administrative Panel appointed by the CEO, and presided over by an administrator from another charter school appointed by the CEO.

The Administrative Panel will consist of at least three members who are certificated and neither a teacher of the pupil nor a Board member of the Charter School's governing board in order to ensure impartiality. After the expulsion hearing, a Facts and Findings document that includes dates, times, incidences, people present, and an objective anecdotal record of the events will be prepared by the School Director to summarize the evidence adduced at the hearing by the Administrative Panel to substantiate the expulsion decision. Prior to the Administrative Panel hearing, the School Director will prepare a written notice of the hearing, which will be emailed and mailed, within 48 hours of the request for the hearing, and it will be forwarded to the scholar and the scholar's parents at least 10 calendar days before the date of the hearing. The hearing will be held in closed session unless the parent or guardian of the scholar makes a written request for a public hearing at least five days prior to the hearing. This notice will include:

- The date and place of the hearing
- A statement of the specific facts, charges and offense upon which the proposed expulsion is based
- A copy of the disciplinary rules that relate to the alleged violation
- The opportunity for the scholar or the scholar's parents to appear in person at the hearing
- The opportunity for the scholar to be represented by counsel or other advocate.
- Right of postponement
- Notification of obligation to provide information about the scholar's status at the Charter School to any other school district or school to which the scholar seeks enrollment
- The right to inspect and obtain copies of all documents to be used at the hearing
- Presentation and cross examination of witnessed and other evidence
- Information regarding reasonable accommodations and language support

A written record of the hearing will be taken by a member of the Administrative Panel. The decision of the Administrative Panel shall be in the form of written findings of fact within ten days and a determination regarding the expulsion. If the Administrative Panel decides not to expel, the pupil shall immediately be returned to his/her educational program. Following a decision of the Administrative Panel to expel, the School Director shall send written notice of the decision to expel, including the adopted findings of fact, to the scholar or parent/guardian. A decision to expel must be supported by substantial evidence. While hearsay evidence is admissible, no decision to expel shall be based solely on hearsay. Sworn declarations may be admitted as testimony from a protected witness.

The final notice shall also include the following:

- Notice of the specific offense committed by the scholar
- Notice of the scholar's or parent/guardian's obligation to inform any new district in which the scholar seeks to enroll of the scholar's status with the School
- Terms of expulsion
- Rehabilitation Plan
- Criteria for Rehabilitation plan
- Eligibility date for reinstatement.
- Information regarding appeal rights and procedure for filing an appeal

Special Procedures for Expulsion Hearings Involving Sexual Assault or Battery Offenses

Expulsion hearings involving sexual assault or battery offenses conform to the same administrative procedures as described above, with the inclusion of the following special procedures. The complaining witness in any sexual assault or battery case must be provided with a copy of the applicable disciplinary rules and advised of his/her right to (a) receive five days' notice of his/her scheduled testimony, (b) have up to two (2) adult support persons of his/her choosing present in the hearing at the time he/she testifies, which may include a parent, guardian, or legal counsel, and (c) elect to have the hearing closed while testifying. The School must also provide the complaining witness a room separate from the hearing room for the complaining witness' use prior to and during breaks in testimony. At the discretion of the person conducting the expulsion hearing, the complaining witness shall be allowed periods of relief from examination and cross-examination during which he or she may leave the hearing room. The person conducting the expulsion hearing may also arrange the seating within the hearing room to facilitate a less intimidating environment for the complaining witness. The person conducting the expulsion hearing may also limit time for taking the testimony of the complaining witness to the hours he/she is normally in school, if there is no good cause to take the testimony during other hours. Prior to a complaining witness testifying, the support persons must be admonished that the hearing is confidential. Nothing in the law precludes the person presiding over the hearing from removing a support person whom the person conducting the expulsion hearing finds is disrupting the hearing. The person conducting the hearing may permit any one of the support persons for the complaining witness to accompany him or her to the witness stand. If one or both of the support persons is also a witness, the School Director must present evidence that the witness' presence is both desired by the witness and will be helpful to the School. The person conducting the hearing shall permit the witness to stay unless it is established that there is a substantial risk that the testimony of the complaining witness would be influenced by the support person, in which case the person conducting the hearing shall admonish the support person or persons not to prompt, sway, or influence the witness in any way. Nothing shall preclude the person conducting the hearing from exercising his or her discretion to remove a person from the hearing whom he or she believes is prompting, swaying, or influencing the witness. The testimony of the support person shall be presented before the testimony of the complaining witness and the complaining witness shall be excluded from the proceedings during that testimony. Evidence of specific instances of a complaining witness' prior sexual conduct is presumed inadmissible and shall not be heard absent a determination by the person conducting the hearing that extraordinary circumstances exist requiring the evidence be heard. Before such a determination regarding extraordinary circumstance can be made, the witness shall be provided notice and an opportunity to present opposition to the introduction of the evidence. In the hearing on the admissibility of the evidence, the complaining witness shall be entitled to be represented by a parent, legal counsel, or other support person. Reputation or opinion evidence regarding the sexual behavior of the complaining witness is not admissible for any purpose.

Appeal of Suspension or Expulsion

Parents will be notified by the School Director through a telephone call and in writing in advance to enactment of the suspension or expulsion and can appeal a scholar's suspension or expulsion.

The suspension of a scholar will be at the discretion of the School Director. A suspension appeal may be made to the CEO within ten days of the suspension. Following due consideration of the facts and safety of scholars, a decision by the CEO regarding scholar suspension will be considered final.

An expulsion may be appealed within ten working days and must be submitted in writing to the School Director. The scholar will be considered suspended until a meeting is convened to consider the appeal (within 30 working days). The appeal will be considered by the Equitas Academy Governing Board and the family will have a meaningful opportunity to be heard in the appeal process. For a scholar who is not reinstated upon appeal, the family will be sent written notification by the School Director, within 24 hours of such decision, including specific reasons why reinstatement was denied, and will be given a new eligibility review date.

The decision of the Equitas Academy Charter School, Inc. Board of Directors will be impartial and final. EQ will create and maintain records of the expulsion proceedings and make audio records and written findings available to scholars/parents and provide post expulsion support to expelled scholars and their families to facilitate continued access to education. If the expulsion is appealed and overturned, the school will reinstate the student fully with no further consequences.

REHABILITATION PLANS

Reinstatement and Readmission

Pupils who are expelled from Equitas Academy shall be given a rehabilitation plan upon expulsion as developed by Administrative Panel at the time of the expulsion order, which may include, but is not limited to, periodic review, to ensure the scholar is complying with the rehabilitation plan as well as assessment at the time of review for readmission. The rehabilitation plan includes improved behavior, attendance and academic performance and shall include a date not later than one (1) year from the date of expulsion when the pupil may reapply to Equitas Academy for readmission.

The readmission process will include a meeting with the School Director, to determine whether the pupil has met the conditions of the rehabilitation plan and/or whether the pupil continues to pose a danger to campus safety. The School Director shall make a recommendation the Governing Board for readmission unless there is a finding that the pupil has not met the conditions of the rehabilitation plan and/or continues to pose a danger to campus safety, in which case the School Director will recommend the student not be readmitted. The Governing Board will make the final determination. These procedures shall be made available to the pupil and the pupil's parent or guardian at the time the expulsion order is issued. Equitas Academy is responsible for reinstating the scholar upon the conclusion of the expulsion period.

The pupil alternatively may seek to enroll in another charter school in accordance with applicable law and the terms of the school’s charter. As a school of choice, Equitas Academy does not have restrictive enrollment based on residence, etc. Parents and scholars will be informed of their public school attendance alternatives during the enrollment process through such publications as the District’s School Choices brochure.

ELEMENT 13: RIGHTS OF DISTRICT EMPLOYEES

“The rights of an employee of the school district upon leaving the employment of the school district to work in a charter school, and of any rights of return to the school district after employment at a charter school.” (Ed. Code § 47605(b)(5)(M).)

Employees of the District who choose to leave the employment of the District to work at Charter School shall have no automatic rights of return to the District after employment at Charter School unless specifically granted by the District through a leave of absence or other agreement or policy of the District as aligned with the collective bargaining agreements of the District. Leave and return rights for District union-represented employees and former employees who accept employment with Charter School will be administered in accordance with applicable collective bargaining agreements and any applicable judicial rulings.

Financial Close-Out

The CDE may ask the county office of education to conduct an audit of the charter school if it has reason to believe that the school received state funding for which it was not eligible.

Charter School shall ensure completion of an independent final audit within six months after the closure of Charter School that includes:

1. An accounting of all financial assets. These may include cash and accounts receivable and an inventory of property, equipment, and other items of material value.
2. An accounting of all liabilities. These may include accounts payable or reduction in apportionments due to loans, unpaid staff compensation, audit findings, or other investigations.
3. An assessment of the disposition of any restricted funds received by or due to Charter School.

This audit may serve as Charter School's annual audit if it meets all of the requirements of the annual audit.

Charter School shall pay for the financial closeout audit of Charter School. This audit will be conducted by a neutral, independent licensed CPA who will employ generally accepted accounting principles. Any liability or debt incurred by Charter School will be the responsibility of Charter School and not LAUSD. Charter School understands and acknowledges that Charter School will cover the outstanding debts or liabilities of Charter School. Any unused monies at the time of the audit will be returned to the appropriate funding source. Charter School understands and acknowledges that only unrestricted funds will be used to pay creditors. Any unused AB 602 funds will be returned to the District SELPA or the SELPA in which Charter School participates, and other categorical funds will be returned to the source of funds.

Charter School shall ensure the completion and filing of any annual reports required. These reports include but are not necessarily limited to:

1. Preliminary budgets
2. Interim financial reports
3. Second interim financial reports
4. Final unaudited reports

These reports must be submitted to the CDE and the authorizing entity in the form required. These reports should be submitted as soon as possible after the Closure Action, but no later than the required deadline for reporting for the fiscal year.

For apportionment of categorical programs, the CDE will count the prior year average daily attendance (ADA) or enrollment data of the closed Charter School with the data of the authorizing entity. This practice will occur in the first year after the closure and will continue until CDE data collection processes reflect ADA or enrollment adjustments for all affected LEAs due to the charter closure.

Disposition of Liabilities and Assets

The closeout audit must identify the disposition of all liabilities of Charter School. Charter School closure procedures must also ensure appropriate disposal, in accordance with the District Required Language provisions in Element 11 of this Charter, Charter School's governing board bylaws, fiscal procedures, and any other applicable laws and regulations, of any net assets remaining after all liabilities of Charter School have been paid or otherwise addressed. Such disposal includes, but is not limited to:

1. Charter School, at its cost and expense, shall return to the District any and all property, furniture, equipment, supplies, and other assets provided to Charter School by or on behalf of the District. The District discloses that the California Education Code sets forth the requirements for the disposition of the District's personal property and Charter School shall bear responsibility and liability for any disposition in violation of statutory requirements.
2. The return of any donated materials and property in accordance with any terms and conditions set when the donations were accepted.

3. The return of any grant and restricted categorical funds to their sources according to the terms of the grant or state and federal law.
4. The submission of final expenditure reports for any entitlement grants and the filing of Final Expenditure Reports and Final Performance Reports, as appropriate.

If Charter School is operated as or by a nonprofit corporation, and if the corporation does not have any functions other than operation of Charter School, the corporation shall be dissolved according to its bylaws.

Charter School shall retain sufficient staff, as deemed appropriate by the Charter School governing board to complete all necessary tasks and procedures required to close the school and transfer records in accordance with these closure procedures.

Charter School's governing board shall adopt a plan for wind-up of Charter School and, if necessary, the corporation, in accordance with the requirements of the Corporations Code.

Charter School shall provide LAUSD within fourteen (14) calendar days of the Closure Action with written notice of any outstanding payments due to staff and the time frame and method by which Charter School will make the payments.

Prior to final close-out, Charter School shall complete all actions required by applicable law, including but not limited to the following:

- a. File all final federal, state, and local employer payroll tax returns and issue final W-2s and Form 1099s by the statutory deadlines.
- b. Make final federal tax payments (employee taxes, etc.)
- c. Complete and submit all required federal and state filings and notices to the State of California, the Internal Revenue Service, and the Department of the Treasury, including but not limited to final tax returns and forms (e.g., Form 990 and related Schedules).

This Element 15 shall survive the revocation, expiration, termination, cancellation of this Charter, or any other act or event that would end Charter School's authorization to operate as a charter school or cause Charter School to cease operation. Charter School agrees that, due to the nature of the property and activities that are the subject of this Charter, the District and public shall suffer irreparable harm should Charter School breach any obligation under this Element 15. The District therefore reserves the right to seek equitable relief to enforce any right arising under this Element 15 or any provision of this Element 15 or to prevent or cure any breach of any obligation undertaken, without in any way prejudicing any other legal remedy available to the District. Such legal relief shall include, without limitation, the seeking of a temporary or permanent injunction, restraining order, or order for specific performance, and may be sought in any appropriate court.

SCHOOL CLOSURE AGENT

In the event of the closure of Equitas Academy, the school's closure agent will be Equitas' COO.

ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS

FACILITIES

Charter School shall comply with all geographic and site limitations and related requirements set forth in Education Code sections 47605.1, 47602(a), and 47605(a).

District-Owned Facilities

If Charter School is using District facilities as of the date of the submission of this charter petition or takes occupancy of District facilities prior to the approval of this charter petition, Charter School shall execute an agreement provided by the District for the use of the District facilities as a condition of the approval of the charter petition. If at any time after the approval of this charter petition Charter School will occupy and use any District facilities, Charter School shall execute an agreement provided by the District for the use of the District facilities prior to occupancy and commencing use. Charter School shall implement and otherwise comply with the terms of any and all applicable facilities use agreements between Charter School and the District.

The circumstances of Charter School's occupancy of District facilities may change over time such as, but not limited to, enrollment, programs, and the conditions of facilities, and the District has a vested interest in having an agreement that is appropriate for the situation.

For a Sole Occupant Agreement or any other use agreement that is not a Proposition 39 Single Year Co-location Use Agreement or a lease issued through the Notice of Intent and bid process, the term may be co-terminous with the approved Charter, as permitted by law. Charter School and the District shall negotiate any modifications of the agreement with the goal of such amendment or new agreement being considered by the LAUSD Board of Education with the renewal of the charter petition. If Charter School and the District cannot execute an agreement in time for such to be considered by the Board of Education with the renewal of the charter petition, the approval of the renewal of the charter petition shall be conditioned upon Charter School and the District executing an amendment to the existing use agreement or a new agreement no later than May 1st or within nine (9) months of the date of the Board of Education's approval of the renewal of the charter petition. During such time period Charter School shall be permitted to remain in occupancy of the District facilities under the terms and conditions of the immediately preceding, executed use agreement; provided, that if Charter School and the District cannot agree upon and execute an amendment or new use agreement by said deadline, Charter School shall vacate the District facilities on or before June 30th of said school year.

Charter School acknowledges and agrees that occupancy and use of District facilities shall be in compliance with applicable laws and District policies for the operation and maintenance of District facilities and furnishings and equipment. Charter School shall comply with all District health, safety, and emergency procedures and requirements and shall be subject to inspection by the District's Facilities Services Division, OEHS, and other District offices in the same manner as other LAUSD campuses. All District facilities (i.e., schools) will remain subject to those laws applicable to public schools.

In the event of an emergency, all District facilities (i.e., schools) are available for use by the American Red Cross and public agencies as emergency locations, which may disrupt or prevent Charter School from conducting its educational programs. If Charter School will share the use of District facilities with other District user groups, Charter School agrees that it will participate in and observe all District safety policies (e.g., emergency chain of information and participation in safety drills).

The use agreements provided by the District for District facilities shall contain terms and conditions addressing issues such as, but not limited to, the following:

- Use: Charter School will be restricted to using the District facilities for the operation of a public school providing educational instruction to public school students consistent with the terms of the Charter and incidental related uses. Separate and apart from its right as authorizer to observe and inspect any part of the charter school at any time pursuant to Education Code 47607(a)(1), the District shall have and reserves the right to inspect District facilities upon reasonable notice to Charter School.
- Furnishings and Equipment: The District shall retain ownership of any furnishings and equipment, including technology, (“F&E”) that it provides to Charter School for use. Charter School, at its sole cost and expense, shall provide maintenance and other services for the good and safe operation of the F&E.
- Leasing; Licensing: Use of the District facilities by any person or entity other than Charter School shall be administered by the District. The parties may agree to an alternative arrangement in the use agreement.
- Programs, Services, and Activities Outside Instructional Program; Third Party Vendors
 - (i) Any program, service, or activity provided outside the instructional program shall be subject to the terms and provisions of the use agreement, and, additionally, may require a license, permit, or additional agreement issued by the District. The term “instructional program” is defined, per Education Code section 47612 and 5 CCR section 11960, as those required educational activities that generate funding based on “average daily attendance” and includes those extracurricular programs, services, and/or activities that students are required to participate in and do not require the payment of any consideration or fee.
 - (ii) Any program, service, or activity requiring the payment of any consideration or fee or provided by a third party vendor (defined as any person or entity other than Charter School), whether paid or volunteer and regardless of whether such may be within the instructional program, shall be subject to the terms and provisions of the use agreement and such third party vendor shall be required to obtain a license, permit, or additional agreement from the District.
- Minimum Payments or Charges to be Paid to District Arising From the Facilities:
 - (i) Pro Rata Share: The District shall collect and Charter School shall pay a Pro Rata Share for facilities costs as provided in the Charter Schools Act of 1992 and its regulations. The parties may agree to an alternative arrangement regarding facilities costs in the use agreement; and

- (ii) Taxes; Assessments: Generally, Charter School shall pay any assessment or fee imposed upon or levied on the LAUSD facilities that it is occupying or Charter School's legal or equitable interest created by the use agreement.
- Maintenance & Operations Services: In the event the District agrees to allow Charter School to perform any of the operation and maintenance services, the District shall have the right to inspect the District facilities, and the costs incurred in such inspection shall be paid by Charter School.
 - (i) Co-Location: If Charter School is co-locating or sharing the District facilities with another user, the District shall provide the operations and maintenance services for the District facilities and Charter School shall pay the Pro Rata Share. The parties may agree to an alternative arrangement regarding performance of the operations and maintenance services and payment for such in the use agreement.
 - (ii) Sole Occupant: If Charter School is a sole occupant of District facilities, the District shall allow Charter School, at its sole cost and expense, to provide some operations and maintenance services for the District facilities in accordance with applicable laws and LAUSD's policies on operations and maintenance services for facilities and F&E. NOTWITHSTANDING THE FOREGOING, the District shall provide all services for regulatory inspections which as the owner of the real property it is required to submit, and deferred maintenance, and Charter School shall pay LAUSD for the cost and expense of providing those services. The parties may agree to an alternative arrangement regarding performance of the operations and maintenance services and payment for such services in the use agreement.
- Real Property Insurance: Prior to occupancy, Charter School shall satisfy requirements to participate in LAUSD's property insurance or, if Charter School is the sole occupant of LAUSD facilities, obtain and maintain separate property insurance for the LAUSD facilities. Charter School shall not have the option of obtaining and maintaining separate property insurance for the LAUSD facility IF Charter School is co-locating or sharing the LAUSD facility with another user.

Non-District-Owned Facilities

Occupancy and Use of the Site: Prior to occupancy or use of any school site or facility, Charter School shall provide the CSD with a current Certificate of Occupancy or equivalent document issued by the applicable permitting agency that allows Charter School to use and occupy the site as a charter school. Charter School shall not exceed the operating capacity of the site and shall operate within any limitations or requirements provided by the Certificate of Occupancy and any applicable permit. Charter School may not open or operate without providing a copy of an appropriate Certificate of Occupancy to the CSD. If Charter School intends to move or expand to another facility during the term of this Charter, Charter School shall adhere to any and all District policies and procedures regarding charter material revision and non-material amendment. Prior to occupancy or use of any such additional or changed school site, Charter School shall provide an appropriate Certificate of Occupancy to the CSD for such facility. Notwithstanding any language to the contrary in this Charter, the interpretation, application, and enforcement of this provision are not subject to the Dispute Resolution Process outlined in Element 14.

Facility Compliance: Prior to occupancy or use of any non-District-owned school site and/or facility, Charter School shall ensure that the site and/or facility complies with all applicable building codes, standards and regulations adopted by the city and/or county agencies responsible for building and safety standards for the city in which Charter School is to be located, federal and state accessibility requirements (including the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and Section 504), and all other applicable fire, health, and structural safety and access requirements. This requirement shall also apply to the construction, reconstruction, alteration of or addition to the facility. Charter School shall resolve in a timely manner any and all corrective actions, orders to comply, and notices issued by any authorized building and safety agency. Charter School cannot exempt itself from applicable building and zoning codes, ordinances, and ADA/Section 504 requirements. SELPA Reorganization

The Los Angeles Unified School District is approved to operate as a single-District SELPA under the provisions of Education Code section 56195.1(a). As a single-District SELPA, the District has created two charter school sections (District-operated Programs and Charter-operated Programs) under the administration of one single Administrative Unit pursuant to a reorganization plan approved by the Board of Education on January 4, 2011 (149/10-11). Full implementation of the reorganized LAUSD SELPA commenced in the 2013-2014 school year requiring all District-authorized charter schools to elect one of the three options available under the LAUSD SELPA. Prior to an option election, all District-authorized charter schools were required to participate as a school of the District under the District-Operated Programs Unit. Prior to the beginning of the 2013-2014 school year, all District-authorized charter schools, other than those that had previously executed an Option 3 Memorandum of Understanding (“MOU”), were required to execute a new MOU setting forth the LAUSD SELPA option election for the remainder of the charter petition term. The Charter-operated Program schools do not have LEA status for the purposes of special education but will function in a similar role in that each charter school will be responsible for all special education requirements, including but not limited to services, placement, due process, related services, special education classes, and special education supports. Charter schools that have elected to participate in a District-operated programs option may apply for membership in the Charter-operated Program section of the SELPA. Charter schools accepted for participation in the Charter-operated Programs section receive support from a Special Education Director for the Charter-operated Programs.

Modified Consent Decree Requirements

All charter schools approved by the LAUSD Board of Education are bound by and must adhere to the terms, conditions and requirements of the Chanda Smith Modified Consent Decree (“MCD”) and other court orders imposed upon the District pertaining to special education. It is an agreement of the parties approved by the federal court and monitored by a court-appointed independent monitor. The MCD includes nineteen statistically measureable outcomes and facilities obligations that the District has to achieve to disengage from the MCD and federal court oversight. All charter schools are required to use the District’s Special Education Policies and Procedures Manual and Welligent, the District-wide web-based software system used for online Individualized Education Programs (“IEPs”) and tracking of related services provided to students during the course of their education.

As part of fulfilling the District’s obligations under the MCD, student level data requests from District-operated and Charter-operated charter schools are made on a regular basis. The requested data must be submitted in the Office of the Independent Monitor’s (“OIM”) required format in accordance with the OIM’s required timelines and as follows:

- End of Year Suspension

MiSiS is a suite of applications which is designed to capture all District student data. All charter schools are required to utilize MiSiS directly or interface with MiSiS via a web based Application Programming Interface (API) in compliance with the requirements of the MCD and applicable timelines. Upon charter school full utilization of MiSiS either directly or via a web based API, the list of required data above will automatically be captured within MiSiS.

If the Charter School closure occurs before the end of the school year, the list also shall indicate the name of the school to which each student is transferring, if known. This electronic master list shall be delivered to the CSD in the form of a CD or otherwise in accordance with District procedures.
4. Charter School must organize the original cumulative files for delivery to the District in two categories: active students and inactive students. Charter School will coordinate with the CSD for the delivery and/or pickup of student records.

Financial Close-Out

After receiving notification of closure, the California Department of Education (CDE) will notify Charter School and the authorizing entity of any liabilities Charter School owes the state, which may include overpayment of apportionments, unpaid revolving fund loans or grants, and/or similar liabilities. The CDE may ask the county office of education to conduct an audit of the charter school if it has reason to believe that the school received state funding for which it was not eligible.

Charter School shall ensure completion of an independent final audit within six months after the closure of Charter School that includes:

1. An accounting of all financial assets. These may include cash and accounts receivable and an inventory of property, equipment, and other items of material value.
2. An accounting of all liabilities. These may include accounts payable or reduction in apportionments due to loans, unpaid staff compensation, audit findings, or other investigations.
3. An assessment of the disposition of any restricted funds received by or due to Charter School.

This audit may serve as Charter School's annual audit if it meets all of the requirements of the annual audit.

Charter School shall pay for the financial closeout audit of Charter School. This audit will be conducted by a neutral, independent licensed CPA who will employ generally accepted accounting principles. Any liability or debt incurred by Charter School will be the responsibility of Charter School and not LAUSD. Charter School understands and acknowledges that Charter School will cover the outstanding debts or liabilities of Charter School. Any unused monies at the time of the audit will be returned to the appropriate funding source. Charter School understands and acknowledges that only unrestricted funds will be used to pay creditors. Any unused AB 602 funds will be returned to the District SELPA or the SELPA in which Charter School participates, and other categorical funds will be returned to the source of funds.

Charter School shall ensure the completion and filing of any annual reports required. These reports include but are not necessarily limited to:

1. Preliminary budgets
2. Interim financial reports
3. Second interim financial reports
4. Final unaudited reports

These reports must be submitted to the CDE and the authorizing entity in the form required. These reports should be submitted as soon as possible after the Closure Action, but no later than the required deadline for reporting for the fiscal year.

For apportionment of categorical programs, the CDE will count the prior year average daily attendance (ADA) or enrollment data of the closed Charter School with the data of the authorizing entity. This practice will occur in the first year after the closure and will continue until CDE data collection processes reflect ADA or enrollment adjustments for all affected LEAs due to the charter closure.

Disposition of Liabilities and Assets

The closeout audit must identify the disposition of all liabilities of Charter School. Charter School closure procedures must also ensure appropriate disposal, in accordance with the District Required Language provisions in Element 11 of this Charter, Charter School's governing board bylaws, fiscal procedures, and any other applicable laws and regulations, of any net assets remaining after all liabilities of Charter School have been paid or otherwise addressed. Such disposal includes, but is not limited to:

1. Charter School, at its cost and expense, shall return to the District any and all property, furniture, equipment, supplies, and other assets provided to Charter School by or on behalf of the District. The District discloses that the California Education Code sets forth the requirements for the disposition of the District's personal property and Charter School shall bear responsibility and liability for any disposition in violation of statutory requirements.
2. The return of any donated materials and property in accordance with any terms and conditions set when the donations were accepted.
3. The return of any grant and restricted categorical funds to their sources according to the terms of the grant or state and federal law.
4. The submission of final expenditure reports for any entitlement grants and the filing of Final Expenditure Reports and Final Performance Reports, as appropriate.

If Charter School is operated as or by a nonprofit corporation, and if the corporation does not have any functions other than operation of Charter School, the corporation shall be dissolved according to its bylaws.

Charter School shall retain sufficient staff, as deemed appropriate by the Charter School governing board to complete all necessary tasks and procedures required to close the school and transfer records in accordance with these closure procedures.

Charter School's governing board shall adopt a plan for wind-up of Charter School and, if necessary, the corporation, in accordance with the requirements of the Corporations Code.

Charter School shall provide LAUSD within fourteen (14) calendar days of the Closure Action with written notice of any outstanding payments due to staff and the time frame and method by which Charter School will make the payments.

Prior to final close-out, Charter School shall complete all actions required by applicable law, including but not limited to the following:

- a. File all final federal, state, and local employer payroll tax returns and issue final W-2s and Form 1099s by the statutory deadlines.
- b. Make final federal tax payments (employee taxes, etc.)
- c. Complete and submit all required federal and state filings and notices to the State of California, the Internal Revenue Service, and the Department of the Treasury, including but not limited to final tax returns and forms (e.g., Form 990 and related Schedules).

This Element 15 shall survive the revocation, expiration, termination, cancellation of this Charter, or any other act or event that would end Charter School's authorization to operate as a charter school or cause Charter School to cease operation. Charter School agrees that, due to the nature of the property and activities that are the subject of this Charter, the District and public shall suffer irreparable harm should Charter School breach any obligation under this Element 15. The District therefore reserves the right to seek equitable relief to enforce any right arising under this Element 15 or any provision of this Element 15 or to prevent or cure any breach of any obligation undertaken, without in any way prejudicing any other legal remedy available to the District. Such legal relief shall include, without limitation, the seeking of a temporary or permanent injunction, restraining order, or order for specific performance, and may be sought in any appropriate court.

FACILITIES

Charter School shall comply with all geographic and site limitations and related requirements set forth in Education Code sections 47605.1, 47602(a), and 47605(a).

District-Owned Facilities

If Charter School is using District facilities as of the date of the submission of this charter petition or takes occupancy of District facilities prior to the approval of this charter petition, Charter School shall execute an agreement provided by the District for the use of the District facilities as a condition of the approval of the charter petition. If at any time after the approval of this charter petition Charter School will occupy and use any District facilities, Charter School shall execute an agreement provided by the District for the use of the District facilities prior to occupancy and commencing use. Charter School shall implement and otherwise comply with the terms of any and all applicable facilities use agreements between Charter School and the District.

The circumstances of Charter School's occupancy of District facilities may change over time such as, but not limited to, enrollment, programs, and the conditions of facilities, and the District has a vested interest in having an agreement that is appropriate for the situation.

For a Sole Occupant Agreement or any other use agreement that is not a Proposition 39 Single Year Co-location Use Agreement or a lease issued through the Notice of Intent and bid process, the term may be co-terminous with the approved Charter, as permitted by law. Charter School and the District shall negotiate any modifications of the agreement with the goal of such amendment or new agreement being considered by the LAUSD Board of Education with the renewal of the charter petition. If Charter School and the District cannot execute an agreement in time for such to be considered by the Board of Education with the renewal of the charter petition, the approval of the renewal of the charter petition shall be conditioned upon Charter School and the District executing an amendment to the existing use agreement or a new agreement no later than May 1st or within nine (9) months of the date of the Board of Education's approval of the renewal of the charter petition. During such time period Charter School shall be permitted to remain in occupancy of the District facilities under the terms and conditions of the immediately preceding, executed use agreement; provided, that if Charter School and the District cannot agree upon and execute an amendment or new use agreement by said deadline, Charter School shall vacate the District facilities on or before June 30th of said school year.

Charter School acknowledges and agrees that occupancy and use of District facilities shall be in compliance with applicable laws and District policies for the operation and maintenance of District facilities and furnishings and equipment. Charter School shall comply with all District health, safety, and emergency procedures and requirements and shall be subject to inspection by the District's Facilities Services Division, OEHS, and other District offices in the same manner as other LAUSD campuses. All District facilities (i.e., schools) will remain subject to those laws applicable to public schools.

In the event of an emergency, all District facilities (i.e., schools) are available for use by the American Red Cross and public agencies as emergency locations, which may disrupt or prevent Charter School from conducting its educational programs. If Charter School will share the use of District facilities with other District user groups, Charter School agrees that it will participate in and observe all District safety policies (e.g., emergency chain of information and participation in safety drills).

The use agreements provided by the District for District facilities shall contain terms and conditions addressing issues such as, but not limited to, the following:

- Use: Charter School will be restricted to using the District facilities for the operation of a public school providing educational instruction to public school students consistent with the terms of the Charter and incidental related uses. - Furnishings and Equipment: The District shall retain ownership of any furnishings and equipment, including technology, ("F&E") that it provides to Charter School for use. Charter School, at its sole cost and expense, shall provide maintenance and other services for the good and safe operation of the F&E.

 - (i) Any program, service, or activity provided outside the instructional program shall be subject to the terms and provisions of the use agreement, and, additionally, may require a license, permit, or additional agreement issued by the District. The term “instructional program” is defined, per Education Code section 47612 and 5 CCR section 11960, as those required educational activities that generate funding based on “average daily attendance” and includes those extracurricular programs, services, and/or activities that students are required to participate in and do not require the payment of any consideration or fee.
 - (ii) Any program, service, or activity requiring the payment of any consideration or fee or provided by a third party vendor (defined as any person or entity other than Charter School), whether paid or volunteer and regardless of whether such may be within the instructional program, shall be subject to the terms and provisions of the use agreement and such third party vendor shall be required to obtain a license, permit, or additional agreement from the District.
- Minimum Payments or Charges to be Paid to District Arising From the Facilities:
 - (i) Pro Rata Share: The District shall collect and Charter School shall pay a Pro Rata Share for facilities costs as provided in the Charter Schools Act of 1992 and its regulations. The parties may agree to an alternative arrangement regarding facilities costs in the use agreement; and
 - (ii) Taxes; Assessments: Generally, Charter School shall pay any assessment or fee imposed upon or levied on the LAUSD facilities that it is occupying or Charter School’s legal or equitable interest created by the use agreement.
- Maintenance & Operations Services: In the event the District agrees to allow Charter School to perform any of the operation and maintenance services, the District shall have the right to inspect the District facilities, and the costs incurred in such inspection shall be paid by Charter School.
 - (i) Co-Location: If Charter School is co-locating or sharing the District facilities with another user, the District shall provide the operations and maintenance services for the District facilities and Charter School shall pay the Pro Rata Share. The parties may agree to an alternative arrangement regarding performance of the operations and maintenance services and payment for such in the use agreement.
 - (ii) Sole Occupant: If Charter School is a sole occupant of District facilities, the District shall allow Charter School, at its sole cost and expense, to provide some operations and maintenance services for the District facilities in accordance with applicable laws and LAUSD’s policies on operations and maintenance services for facilities and F&E. NOTWITHSTANDING THE FOREGOING, the District shall provide all services for regulatory inspections which as the owner of the real property it is required to submit, and deferred maintenance, and Charter School shall pay LAUSD for the cost and expense of providing those services. The parties may agree to an alternative arrangement regarding performance of the operations and maintenance services and payment for such services in the use agreement.

- Real Property Insurance: Prior to occupancy, Charter School shall satisfy requirements to participate in LAUSD's property insurance or, if Charter School is the sole occupant of LAUSD facilities, obtain and maintain separate property insurance for the LAUSD facilities. Charter School shall not have the option of obtaining and maintaining separate property insurance for the LAUSD facility IF Charter School is co-locating or sharing the LAUSD facility with another user.

Non-District-Owned Facilities

Occupancy and Use of the Site: Prior to occupancy or use of any school site or facility, Charter School shall provide the CSD with a current Certificate of Occupancy or equivalent document issued by the applicable permitting agency that allows Charter School to use and occupy the site as a charter school. Charter School shall not exceed the operating capacity of the site and shall operate within any limitations or requirements provided by the Certificate of Occupancy and any applicable permit. Charter School may not open or operate without providing a copy of an appropriate Certificate of Occupancy to the CSD. If Charter School intends to move or expand to another facility during the term of this Charter, Charter School shall adhere to any and all District policies and procedures regarding charter material revision and non-material amendment. Prior to occupancy or use of any such additional or changed school site, Charter School shall provide an appropriate Certificate of Occupancy to the CSD for such facility. Notwithstanding any language to the contrary in this Charter, the interpretation, application, and enforcement of this provision are not subject to the Dispute Resolution Process outlined in Element 14.

This requirement shall also apply to the construction, reconstruction, alteration of or addition to the facility. Charter School shall resolve in a timely manner any and all corrective actions, orders to comply, and notices issued by any authorized building and safety agency.
