Workshops Overview

African American Parent Empowerment Summit WORKSHOPS 45 MINUTES- 2 SESSIONS

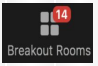

Workshop	Description
1	Title: Self-Development Equals Wealth Development- The Scholarship & Wealth Workshop Description: What are the pros and cons of making a living as a Tic Tok Influencer? Is CryptoCurrency a viable means to get wealthy? Can you get rich creating and selling Non Fungible Tokens (NFTs)? What is the difference between a "Need Based Scholarship" vs a "Merit Based Scholarship," –and what must you do to apply and compete for either? This workshop is for anyone seeking to gain a deeper understanding of current financial initiatives as well as learn the secrets to completing college debt free. Presenter: Mr. Wes Hall Mr. Wesley F. Hall, is an Educational Consultant to the Los Angeles Unified School District and hosts the District's television show, 'Inside LAUSD's Student Voices.' He is the co-creator of the "Young Men of Color Initiative." He, along with Dr. Brenda Manuel, (Director of the Student Unit), manage and direct the initiative, which includes, "The Village Movement," and "The Gathering of Minds." (A male academic-improvement, think-tank). He is the author of 4 books, and hosts a weekly radio show on Accelerated Radio.
2	Title: The Key for Unlocking Black Genius: Social-Emotional-Cultural Wholeness Description: There's no secret to achieving Black Excellence and Empowerment, PreK-University. Attend this session to learn about confident Black youth who exceeded students in the state, district and school-wide. Tap into the Kaiser Foundation Racial Equity Initiative that is helping SF Valley schools and families replicate these evidence-based practices. Be part of a village that nurtures our children as they navigate and thrive along a seamless educational journey toward greatness in career, community and life. Presenters: The partners who are co-facilitating this session have been recognized locally, statewide and nationally as highly effective in supporting academic, social-emotional and cultural excellence for Black students. They include the Alliance Advocating for African American Children and Youth, Cleveland HS Equity Team and Umoja Black Scholars at LA Valley and Pierce Community

2021-2022 Scholarship Application

COBA

2021-2022 COBA Scholarship Awards

The Council of Black Administrators (COBA) is an officially recognized organization of the Los Angeles Unified School District. One of the chief goals is to select educational opportunities for students of the college or university. This is a one-time award.

In addition, the Dr. G. Ross I. Kane Awarding Scholarship will be awarded to the scholarship recipient who has demonstrated the highest degree of excellence in academic achievement, leadership in extracurricular activities, community service, and excellent recommendations from their college advisor. This recipient will receive this $2,000 scholarship award for four years with proof of college enrollment and a minimum 3.0 GPA. This scholarship is only awarded every four years.

Scholarships are required to assist COBA in selecting outstanding students planning to attend a four-year college or university. Please have the student complete the attached application.

Requirements for Scholarship Awards

Any high school senior student who meets application requirements, except a direct financial link or receipt of a COBA award.
