Team Professional Learning Opportunities

Is your school prepared to educate youth for the 21st century?

- Do you have a plan to use digital tools and resources to personalize instruction and create a mastery-based learner-centered learning environment?
- Do you believe it's important for schools to teach digital citizenship to the digital age learner?
- What tools and resources do you have to support educators to embrace change and create awareness as you begin to shift the instructional paradigm?

We invite school instructional leadership teams (ILTs) to join us for a 3-day cohort to dialogue and discuss the above mentioned questions and to develop an informed, effective schoolwide plan for digital age learners.

Additional topics will include:

- Overview of the International Society for Technology Education (ISTE) Standards for students and why LAUSD has adopted them.
- Personalized learning; school vision development; digital citizenship; parents; community and culture; SAMR/TPACK reflection tools; managing change and more.

Detailed Information:

- Time Commitment: Three six hour days
- Hours: 8:00am - 3:00pm
- Participants: Instructional Leadership Teams (ILTs), that include up to three teachers and participation of the principal.
