

Best Practices Smoothie Production

To clean the Immersion Blender, place blender in sink and rinse with water. Tilt blender up so that water rinses out the blade. Always use caution when placing hands near blades.

Another method is to place the blender into a bucket with soap and water while plugged in. Turn machine on and allow blender to run in soapy water. Never place hands near blade while machine is operating.

