

Author/Speaker/Creator

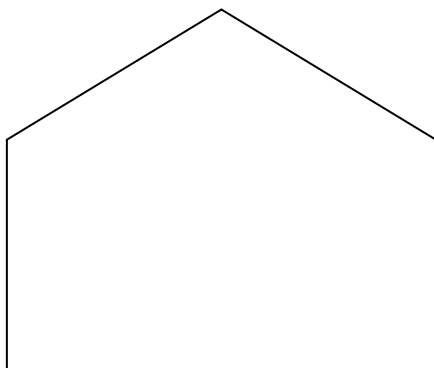

Audience/Listener/
Recipient

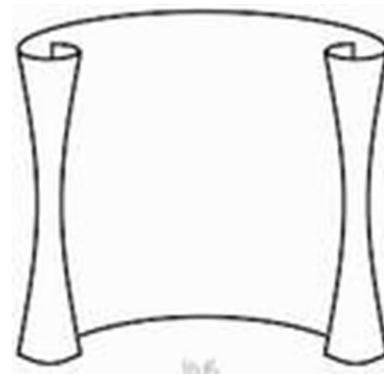

Purpose

Document/Source
Content

Historical Context

Type of Document or Source

• Who was the document written for? • How does this information help you to understand this document?	• Who wrote (or created) the source? • What is their occupation, background, etc. • How does this information help you understand this document or source?
• What is the author saying? • What details are important? • What is the main idea of the document?	• Why did the author write this document or create this source? • Does the author want something specific to happen by writing this document?
• What type of document or source is it? • How does this information help you understand this document or source?	• Where was this written? • When was this written?. • What important things were going on at the time that relate to the document? • How does this information help you understand this document?