

Energy and Utilities Careers: What's My Job Title?

Read the job descriptions outlined below and match each one to a Energy and Utilities job title.

1. What Energy and Utilities career am I?

- I conduct energy assessments for residential and business clients.
- I help uncover ways to reduce energy consumption..
- I have a certificate.
a. Energy Auditor
b. Energy Management Engineer
c. Line Worker

2. What Energy and Utilities career am I?

- I design, develop, and evaluate energy related projects.
- I make sure my designs reduce energy costs and increase energy efficiency.
- I hold a Bachelor Degree.
a. Industrial Engineer
b. HVAC Technician
c. Energy Management Engineer

3. What Energy and Utilities career am I?

- When it comes to installing heating and air conditioning systems, I am the best.
- I work on large systems in commercial buildings.
- I have an Associate Degree.
a. HVAC Technician
b. Wind Turbine Technician
c. Industrial Engineer

4. What Energy and Utilities career am I?

- I repair and service almost all household appliances.
- I make house calls but also operate a large repair center so homeowners can drop off their appliances.
- Many companies call on me to make repairs on products under their warranties.
- I earned a Certificate in my field and had lots of on the job training.
a. HVAC Technician
b. Appliance Repair Person
c. Robotics Technician

5. What Energy and Utilities career am I?

- I monitor and control equipment in a large nuclear power plant.
- I work at least 8 hours every day and am on call 24/7 for emergencies.
- I continue to learn to keep up with new technologies and problems that may arise.
- I hold a Bachelor Degree.
a. Environmental Engineer
b. Health and Safety Engineer
c. Nuclear Power Reactor Operator

6. What Energy and Utilities career am I?

- I work under the direction of an engineer.
- I inspect and maintain equipment that helps reduce air pollution.
- I make sure builders and contractors follow the codes.
- I earned an Associate Degree.
a. Energy Auditor
b. Environmental Engineering Technician
c. Robotics Technician

7. What Energy and Utilities career am I?

- I work to build and maintain power lines connecting plants that generate power to customers who use it.
- I am in excellent physical condition and am able to work at significant heights.
- I completed an Apprenticeship to learn my job skills.
a. Line Worker
b. Mechanical Engineer
c. Wind Turbine Technician

8. What Energy and Utilities career am I?

- I work on a wind farm.
- I install, inspect, and repair wind machines.
- I have a range of skills that include mechanical, hydraulic, and electrical.
- I hold an Associate Degree.
a. Industrial Machinery Mechanic
b. Mechanical Engineer
c. Wind Turbine Technician

