

Los Angeles Unified School District

Division of Human Resources

Office of

Intern, Credentialing, and Added Authorization Program - iCAAP

FRANCISCO J. SERRATO, Ed.D.
Chief Human Resources Officer

MARCO A. NAVA, Ed. D.
Administrator
Induction & Credentialing Programs

PATRICIA PERNIN, ED.D.
Director, Icaap
patricia.pernin@lausd.net

READING AND LITERACY
ADDED AUTHORIZATION

RLAA

iCAAP Leadership Team

Reading and Literacy Added Authorization (RLAA) Beginning in August 2024

(Interest form due by June 30, 2024)

"Helping kids become skilled readers begins by understanding what kids can do and what they need help doing better." Kylene Beers

RLAA: Accredited by the CA Commission on Teacher Credentialing.

Prepares candidates to assess and teach all students to read with a deeper understanding of literacy research, content specifications, and instructional strategies in response to reading assessments. (Additional information found on iCAAP's website: <https://www.lausd.org/Page/7722>)

Qualifications for the RLAA include:

- Clear teaching credential, an
- English learner authorization,
- Three years of full-time teaching experience,
- Completion of an RLAA professional preparation program & Supervised field experience
- Recommendation from a commission-approved sponsor

Interested candidates must register using the survey link below to receive additional information:

https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/RLAA_Interest_Form

Bonnie Ratner Coordinator
bonnie.ratner@lausd.net

Stephen Maccarone
Teacher Expert
snm3706@lausd.net

Wendy Marrero
Teacher Adviser
Waj2447@lausd.net

Jose Pallares
Teacher Adviser
jap5127@lausd.net

Eberardo Rodriguez
Teacher Adviser
exr6140@lausd.net

Nicoli (Nikki) Ueda
Teacher Adviser
nnu0539@lausd.net