

Learn How To Help Your Child Succeed in School

Choose from one of four classes:

For families of
African American and Black Learners

Learn about roles, culture, and self-identity by focusing on language development, numeracy, and college-and-career readiness.

For families of
Exceptional Learners

Learn about the history of Special Education, parents' rights, the individualized Education Program (IEP), and key transitions for exceptional learners.

For families of
Youngest Learners

Learn the foundations of language, literacy, numeracy, social-emotional and physical development, and the importance of play.

For families of
Multilingual Learners

Learn about the benefits of multilingualism, the bilingual English Learners' journey in our schools, and ways to celebrate multilingualism in the home.

Classes begin January 16th, March 5th and May 7th, and meet Tuesday and Thursday nights for 7 weeks.
