In one paragraph of about five sentences, state why you feel you are the best candidate for the position you have selected. If you plan to run for multiple officer positions, you may submit one paragraph for each position. Note: Individuals must be physically present at the election meeting in order to be elected as an officer.