

SCHOOL-WIDE ACTIVITY

Human Trafficking Activities

There are many ways we can all get involved in the fight against human trafficking. Here are a few ideas to help you get started on your campus and within your local community.

AWARENESS TEAM

Develop a student club to educate peers and staff at your school about trafficking and how to address it. Pair up with campus groups about sponsoring an event to bring awareness about human trafficking. You can request awareness materials here.

CONSCIENTIOUS CONSUMER

Be a conscientious consumer and learn more about where your clothes, food, and the products you buy come from. Take the quiz to reveal who is making the items you purchase, and if forced labor is involved, visit Made in a Free World's Slavery Footprint.

DRESSEMBER

Every December, advocates pledge to wear a dress or tie for the 31 days of December, known as "Dressember". Learn more about this initiative here.

WEAR BLUE DAY JANUARY 11TH

Wear blue on January 11th to show your support and promote human trafficking awareness. Encourage your peers and staff to wear blue and take a selfie, tag #wearblueday and spread the word #WearBlueDay.

RED SAND PROJECT

Red Sand Project is an interactive art demonstration designed to raise awareness of human trafficking. By spreading red sand in pavement cracks, the project brings attention to those who have fallen through the metaphoric cracks. Complete the interest form to bring this project to your school site.

SCHEDULE A PRESENTATION

Contact Dr. Linet Danoukh Linet.Haroutonian@lausd.net or submit a training request form by clicking here.