

PARENT ADVISORY COMMITTEE

What is the responsibility of the Parent Advisory Committee (PAC)?

- Provide comments to the LAUSD Superintendent and Board of Education regarding the District's Local Control and Accountability Plan (LCAP).
- Comments for the LCAP can be specific to the needs and resources provided to English Learners, students in foster care, and low-income students.
- Offer input on graduation rates, attendance, parent/community/school engagement, English learners, and Black Student Achievement Plan.

What are the benefits of being a PAC member?

- Be empowered to have a strong voice on how students in foster care are supported academically.
- Learn about the District's plan to support the achievement of all students in foster care District-wide and provide comments to influence and improve the plan.
- Collaborate with other foster care parent leaders, caretakers, and guardians across the District.
