

Be resilient for life

Crafting a resilient financial life means taking control of your money, prioritizing your financial goals and putting your plan in action. Whether you're envisioning a debt free life so you can lessen your financial stress, building an emergency fund to prepare for the unexpected, or getting back on track with your goals, it's never too late to start saving for a stronger, more resilient tomorrow.

Challenge yourself to completing the following activities to help you reach your savings goals that much quicker.

☐ Designate your dollar

Build a monthly budget to make sure you know how your money is working for you.

☐ Save for a rainy day

Build an emergency fund of 3-6 months of expenses so you can make sure that when it rains, it won't pour.

☐ Cancel it out

Review your list of subscriptions and eliminate any that you can do without.

☐ Ditch the debt

List of all your debts from smallest to largest. Make a plan to pay it down and eventually eliminate your debt.

☐ Set it and forget it

Set aside a specific amount each paycheck to automatically deposit into a savings account.

☐ Secure your future

Consider saving for your retirement today and take advantage of compound interest.
