Quorum was not achieved. Notes of the attendees:

- Meeting open at Carlos had a chance to meet all the new members and we talked a lot about his work with museums in LA
- David announced his ADL Youth Leadership - Holocaust project and asked for help in identifying 11th grade students who might want to travel to DC for this terrific event. I suggested he get in contact with AJE - Association of Jewish Educators and Mike Bennett or Michelle Bennett
- Each school that sends a student does a service project upon return on anti-bias, and David is going to research his schools to see if any qualify for our award
- We all wondered how Judy was doing on Spring break in Florida and how David Greene discovered an emergency right before the meeting to keep him from attending. they both missed Obies wonderful snacks
- We vowed to give the awards a real push the week after Spring break - April 21
- We hope to have 10 nominations by April 28 so each member in attendance is targeting a school
- David Green has made a serious effort in the harbor area to contact Harbor Prep, San Pedro, Banning, Carson and Narbonne

- David Reynolds will be contacting Daniel Pearl, VAPA, LACES, Eagle Rock
- Obie is going to follow up on Taft and that article about the special ed student
- I have written for Venice, Hamilton, University and Dorsey on that Prime Time program that integrates special needs students into the after school sports program and the Hamilton, University, Fairfax program for Afro American Family Day
- I am also following up on Washington and Gardena where I have leads
- I am trying also Roosevelt, Mr Lopez (do you know how many Lopez teach at Roosevelt?) and Downtown Magnets
- I think someone (Judy or Joyce should contact Fluke at El Camino - he is one of our champions
- I hope you can get the word out one more time, Judy , and follow-up with a couple programs you have seen pass through your office.
- Mark is moving forward with the Board Asks!

Minutes of February and March were presented for approval.
