Human Relations Awards

Jacobs presented applications from schools – Carson, Dorsey, Gardena, Grant, King Drew Medical Magnet, San Fernando, Venice, Sherman Oaks Center for Enriched Studies, South Gate, Lincoln, and Marshall.

Forester Financial will donate plaques for the award winning schools and coffee/bagels for the event.

The event will be May15 to align with the Board meeting. The Blue Room is not large enough to host all the awardees. Elected to host the event in the 1st floor Trimana cafeteria.

Send letters of invitation to each school, the local district superintendents, board members, executive staff, communication, Brenda Manuel, council offices, Ask Board Members, Superintendent and Erika Torres to speak.

Even though the involved schools did not submit an application for the 50th Anniversary of School Walk Outs. Nevertheless,

School Safety Plans

Commissioner Kakassy made several unsuccessful attempts to view the safety plans at various schools. Has broached the topic with Superintendent Ekchian about ensuring the plans are available upon request.

Community Schools

Kakassy brought forward an effort from communityschools.org to increase needed health care services to schools. Discussed the importance of vetting agencies prior to facilitating their access to minors.

Edwards attended the CA Association of African American Superintendents' conference. LAUSD Access and Equity presented. Proposed bill AB2635 looks at funding for lowest performing student group.

Wilson pointed out that Native American students have extremely low graduation rates but receive no funding.
