Call to Order

Quorum was achieved at 10 a.m.

Minutes of May and June reviewed and approved.

Discussed the scope, outreach, mission and vision of the Commission.

The Commissioners had an informal conversation about the incident at Harbor Teacher Prep. It lead to a larger conversation about supporting greater introspection and strategies to handle sensitive topics.

The DPH has a list of schools identified as high trauma areas and low academic achievement.

Human Relations Awards

The Awards were very successful.

Discussed extending the award to include other services, such as the ADL peer leadership trainings.

ADL recommended peer leadership trainings for the 2018/19 recipients. Funding is a barrier. $4K per training. Perhaps Forrester could underwrite it. No Place for Hate focuses on campus efforts.

To ensure that there is no conflict of interest between the services available through ADL, the ADL rep will recuse themselves from any vote on recommendations. Other providers include Museum of Tolerance and Constitutional Law Center.

Ideas for next year: use a bigger space, propose a theme for 2019/20.

Possible theme to recognize the 50th anniversary of the desegregation. Outreach to schools thanking them for the 2018/19 awards and introducing theme for 2019/20.

Subcommittee to explore funding – Michael, Joyce, Mark, Bud. Consider LA Trust as an option.

Board membership – Judy will send letter to commissioners asking their desire for ongoing participation in 2018/19. Follow with letter to the hosts, asking if they wish to continue with their current representative.

Annie Ortega will go on leave beginning December. Anthony will represent ADL
Karen (Hop) Tarrant has decided not continue as representative of UTLA

Continue discussion on recruiting parent representatives. Allan suggests contacting Parent Community Services Branch for one representative. The other two will be at large.

Discuss having a student representative v. hosting an annual student meeting. Lean toward the annual meeting.

Meeting sites – Continue 2nd Thursday meeting. Explore off-site meetings.

Announcements - HRDE is interviewing for two counselors
Follow up retreat in January to review the goals.
City wants to host a transgender youth conference to align with trans visibility day

Guest presenters – must be pre-approved by executive committee a month prior to the meeting.

Commission Advisors – discuss how to encourage participation from community members. Recommend creating non-voting positions such as “Commission Advisors.” Quorum will continue to be based on voting members.

Executive Committee -

Public Comment - There were no public comments.
