Call to Order

Quorum was achieved.

Potential for a retreat:

May 18, 2019; June 1, June 10, or June 15, 2019 were mentioned as possible dates for the retreat. The retreat will revisit the mission statement and by laws as well as discuss ways to strengthen and possible enlarge the Commission. Mark suggested using Survey Monkey or Doodle to set date for retreat. Possibility of having retreat on weekday at ADL during week after school lets out.

Human Relations Awards

Room 2-131 on the 2nd floor of Beaudry has been reserved for the May 14, 2019 ceremony. Eleven applications have been received to date. Bud reports that entries include a wide variety of themes, from kindness to global drought awareness. Scott Schmerelson's office is donating $200 for expenses.

Human Relations staff update

OHRDE will continue to exist at Beaudry with Judy Chiasson, Hiram Dabbah and Janise Escobar.

Other conversations:

Norlon requested orientation regarding history, role and purpose of commission. Members gave some background. Members also visited issue of orientation for new members. This would include a packet that would include bylaws, overview of commission, names and contact information of all committee members.

Norlon brought up issue of CSEC (Commercial Sexual Exploitation of Children) intervention program may be eliminated as LAUSD goes toward a generalist model for SHHS (Student Health & Human Services). Members were concerned that CSEC population would be vulnerable without specialized intervention services.

Bud requested follow-up of Bob Whitman's Culturally Responsive Pedagogy.

Bud requested next Commission meeting to be held at ADL.
