

Colonial Incident Card
Scenario 1

While on the space colony, a group of people believes that the way the food rations are distributed isn't fair. So late one night when everyone is sleeping, a few people sneak to the storage shed and take more food. However, the security camera caught recorded the entire theft. What should their consequence be? What rules could be made to resolve this problem?