PRICE SCHEDULE

Important Notes

1. Fully burdened prices

All prices are fully burdened. Fully burdened means inclusive of all direct and indirect costs and profit, fringe benefits, and all materials, supplies, and equipment. This means that the following are included in the costs shown and are not charged separately.

- Staff travel for in-person sessions.
- Program hand-outs for in-person sessions
- Food for families attending in-person Family Workshops.

2. Unpriced planning and follow-up time

All prices are calculated solely based on services delivered directly to teachers and families. PowerMyLearning staff time spent on preparation and follow-up are included in the costs shown and are not charged separately.

3. No mandatory bundling or mandatory follow-on contracts

Schools can purchase any level of services within our programming, down to selecting just a single Educator Workshop or Family Workshop. PowerMyLearning does not impose mandatory bundling or follow-on contracts to generate revenue.

4. Significant volume discounts

Schools receive significant discounts for volume purchases to reflect our cost efficiencies of delivering larger programs:

Discount %	Greater than or equal to	Less than
0%	$0	$5,000
