

LOS ANGELES UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT
PERSONNEL COMMISSION

726

LAW AND RULES

October 13, 1986

726 CONCURRENT ASSIGNMENTS

A concurrent assignment of one employee may be made when a change in personnel is anticipated. Unless the Superintendent or his/her designated representative authorizes a longer period, a concurrent assignment is limited to five working days, plus the length of vacation granted to the regular incumbent if he/she is retiring. If authorized, a concurrent assignment may extend for up to three months in an executive/administrative class or up to two months in another class.

CHANGE:

Editorial changes.

Remove: January 6, 1986. Add: October 13, 1986.

726